

MR. AND MRS. CLAYTON WIARD were honored on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary at a reception on June 28. Hosts for the affair were Clayton Wiard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wiard. Assisting at the party were Mrs. Alice Traver, Mrs. Juanita Lundston, Fern Rider. Karen Wiard passed the guest book.

The Wiards have lived in Klamath Falls since their marriage in 1934. Mrs. Wiard is the former Marguerite Uerlings, member of a pioneer family. The couple have three children, Roger, Allen and Karen.

Two Mark Date At Open House

LANGELL VALLEY — A silver wedding anniversary was given at the parish hall in Langell Valley on Friday evening, July 31, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lilly.

Hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Orval DeVaul, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Settle, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Art Rodgers.

Pastel gladioli and phlox were used for table and room decoration. White tapers in silver candelabra flanked a three tiered cake trimmed in silver and decorated with two blue love birds and silver bells with the numeral 25 on top. The cake was made by Mr. and Mrs. Peterson.

A silver tree was presented to the couple by the 50 visitors who signed the guest book.

Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Johnnie Peterson, Mrs. Claude Brown, Mrs. M. D. Settle and Mrs. Art Rodgers.

The couple's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hinson and family of Oakridge, were unable to attend the party.

Mrs. Lynden Walker and children from Medford were party guests.

New Decorating Trend: Two Rugs In The Room

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

If you are a two-rug-in-the-room woman, you've got your finger on the pulse of good decorating.

The current trend in home furnishings is to make life easier for the homemaker as we put charm without clutter into home decor. Two rugs offer many advantages.

It is easier to roll up a pair of rugs for cleaning, than to try to roll up one big size carpet. It can give the effect of making a room look larger or if furniture is properly placed it may give the effect of dividing a room into two sections.

Two rugs cut down on the yardage requirement of one large rug. The rugs may be used together whenever you wish a change of scene. It gives you an opportunity to display your hard flooring.

They may be used easily in smaller rooms when you move to new quarters or change the decor in the room.

A small rug can give the effect of coziness used in a particular area of a room such as in a tete-a-tete section where sofa or love seat and arm chairs are grouped.

There is great emphasis on texture in the new crop of soft floor coverings. Many of the cotton ridged rugs give the effect of chenille texture with rows closely woven into acetate yarns. There is a wide variety of color effects available from the brilliantly matched colors to the softer shades of olive green and turquoise.

Alta Dixon and Lizzie Schmor will be hostesses at the next meeting on September 1.

PLAN LEFTOVERS

A good way to use up leftovers is to plan for them when you make out menus for the week. Don't let leftovers get spoiled before you get around to using them. You know your family's eating habits and can plan accordingly.

CHERRIES

Botanically speaking, cherries are identified as "drupes." According to Webster, a drupe is any fruit with a soft fleshy part around an inner stone that contains the seeds. Apricots, plums and peaches are in that classification, also. No one seems to be absolutely sure where or when the first cherries grew. The area of Asia and Europe around the Caspian Sea and through the Balkans is generally considered the home of sweet cherries. They were part of the caveman's home life, at least explorers have un-

Two Celebrate Golden Wedding

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Poole offered congratulations to the couple on Sunday, August 9, the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, at an open house given by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Poole.

The prettily appointed table was centered by a three tiered wedding cake which was served to approximately 50 friends who called between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock. Presiding at the coffee service were Mrs. Floyd Moak and Mrs. Ray Telford. Assisting was Mrs. Carroll Poole.

The Poole's other son, Carroll, and his wife, came from Annapolis, California, for the occasion. Also present were grandsons, David and John, sons of the Warren Pooles, and Gerald Poole, his wife and their daughter, Theresa, from Hillsberg, California.

Among the guests were Mrs. Poole's only sister, Mrs. Tom Morgan of Salem; a brother, Arthur Beardsley of Albany; brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beardsley of this city; nephew, Ivan Osterman, his wife and son, Jerry of Salem.

Longtime friends of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Savage of Salem and Willard Savage of Dorris, were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Poole were married in Salem and came to Klamath Falls in 1933 to open their bicycle store. Since their retirement nearly 10 years ago they have spent their winters in Florida.

earthed mounds of sweet cherry pits from caves in Central Europe. Pliny, in the first century after Christ, described 10 varieties of cherries and wrote that the Romans took the cherry to Britain when they invaded that island. Spanish, French, Dutch and English all made room for small cherry trees on their early journeys to America. The American Indians took up cherry cultivation and today cherries are grown from coast to coast.

MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE A. POOLE celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on August 9. The occasion was observed at an open house held at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Poole on Lawrence Street.

JUST FOR FUN

In the just-for-fun department: wooden paddles, somewhat like ice cream sucker sticks, marked in degrees of doneness of meat. Use them to identify sandwiches and steaks as they come from the grill. Picnic departments have them.

SALT MILLS

Did you know that there are salt mills, used in the same way as pepper mills? Give the same results, too, adding more flavor to any dish.
