Woman Who Hurt Rapist Getting Anonymous Calls

CANOGA PARK, Calif. (UPI)— Patricia Faye Smith, 30, hounded for four years by a would-be rapist whose face she scarred with a hot iron, again has been receiving anonymous phone calls, police said today.

"There have been several calls made to the Smith home in the last two weeks," said Detective Sgt. J. L. Austin of the Los Angeles Police Department's Reseda station in the West San Fernando Valley. "There's never any conversation—just the sound of someone breathing."

Austin said he and his partner, G. W. Murphy, assumed the calls were made by the man into whose face the attractive red-haired housewife and mother slammed a hot iron when he broke into her home in June, 1955, and tried to attack her.

Body Found; Police Say 'Foul Play'

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—The body of 5-year-old Charlene Zahm, who has been missing for six weeks, was pulled from an irrigation canal 18 miles south of here Friday.

An autopsy disclosed that her death was caused by drowning. But police said they found evidence of foul play. Capt. Gus Uresti, acting chief of police, would not say what evidence he had.

"There are several different leads and the police and sheriff's office are working with them," said Prosecuting Atty. William Roden.

Uresti said there was no evidence that the child had been sexually molested.

The body was spotted in the canal by a fisherman who notified authorities. It took some time to identify the decomposed body. The child's father, Bernard Zahm, 38, made positive identification.

After Charlene disappeared from her home in northwest Boise June 30, an intensive search was made of the many irrigation canals in this area. The nearest stream that flows into the canal in which the body was found is several miles from the Zahm home.

Trek Terminates For Wagon Train

PORTLAND (AP)—The Oregon Centennial wagon train reached the end of the trail today.

After being piggy-backed from Salem by truck, the seven wagons jogged three miles to the Oregon Centennial Exposition grounds where they may be inspected by the public this week.

With them will be 18 members of the wagon party to answer questions about the 2,221 mile trek from Independence, Missouri to Independence, Ore., and four head of mules.

COP DELIVERS OWN CHILD

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A 36-year-old policeman who has delivered three babies for mothers unable to reach the hospital in time, chucked up his fourth delivery Sunday. This time it was his own child. Austin Burt Fernald performed the task when his wife, Anita, 33, gave birth to a daughter as he raced toward a hospital in their car.
