Man Returns To Old Job

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Nathan Miller — who said two months ago he might have to offer his new-born triplets for adoption because of financial difficulties—is leaving a $50-a-week job he got as a result of his plight and returning to his $25-a-week job as a hired hand.

Paul Jones, operator of an egg farm near here, gave Miller a job, and a house with the stipulation that the Millers keep their triplet girls.

But Miller, 55, said Monday, "My family just ain't satisfied, that's all. And there's a heap of walking in this egg job. And I've got bad legs. In my other job I rode a tractor mostly."

Miller, his wife, the triplets and their three older children were to return to Clarendon Plantation, near Southport, N.C. Owner Cornelius Thomas is giving Miller his old job.

No Matter The Change, 'Tis Still O'Brien

EAST ORANGE, N.J. (AP) — What's better than a name like James Mortimer O'Brien?

James Patrick O'Brien, said James Mortimer O'Brien Monday. He came to court and asked permission to change his name to just that.

He explained that although he had been baptized James Mortimer, he preferred James Patrick. The judge granted permission.

Housewife Foils Would-Be Thief

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A Pittsburgh housewife put a robber twice her size to flight Monday.

Police said a man got into the apartment belonging to Clara Berwin by telling her he wanted to leave a note for a family across the hall who was away from home. Once inside Mrs. Berwin's apartment the robber grabbed her, slammed his hand over her mouth and demanded $5.

The lady sank her choppers in his hand and off he ran.
