LDS Church Dedication Slated Soon

MOUNT SHASTA — The Latter Day Saints Church on Mount Shasta's Adams Drive, which has been under construction for more than a year, is expected to be completed, and ready for dedication services by early September. No LDS building is ever dedicated until fully completed, according to Ross Miller, Modesto, general builder of the church. T. R. Pope, Salt Lake City, is the designing architect.

The building covers 4,000 square feet of space and is modern throughout. It is wired for sound amplification for either music, or speaking. The recreational facilities are complete with kitchen and banquet rooms.

The "snow pitch" roof, and lightning rod attach to the climate and weather here being considered, and these help make the church an attractive edifice.

Every bit of material, and all labor has been paid for through public donations and the cost has been in excess of $60,000. The church members of the area number a few more than 100. The chapel for religious services will seat 106 persons.

Cleric Raps Race Problem

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A Kentucky minister told a church convention Thursday racial strife could bar men from salvation.

The Rev. J. William Kemp, pastor of the East Maple Street Christian Church in Nicholasville, Ky., addressed the 43rd Annual Assembly of the National Christian Missionary Convention (Negro) here.

Dr. Kemp said Christian unity must be sought at all levels of experience — in the church, the family, among ethnic groups and between man and God.

"In our world there is no such thing as a race, a pure-blooded people," he said. "It is a misnomer to call an ethnic group a racial group."

Relief Sought By Gabby Woman

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — A woman walked into a hospital Thursday and whispered to nurses that she was sick of talking.

The unidentified woman told them she had been talking for three days while demonstrating products at the Illinois State Fair. She told the nurses at St. John's Hospital that now, every time she opened her mouth, she became nauseated.

She asked if there wasn't something she could take that would enable her to talk and feel good at the same time. The nurses said there wasn't.

Memorials For Missing GIs Made Available By U.S.

FORT SCOTT, Kan. (AP)—A mother bends over a memorial stone and places a small bouquet of flowers on the grass.

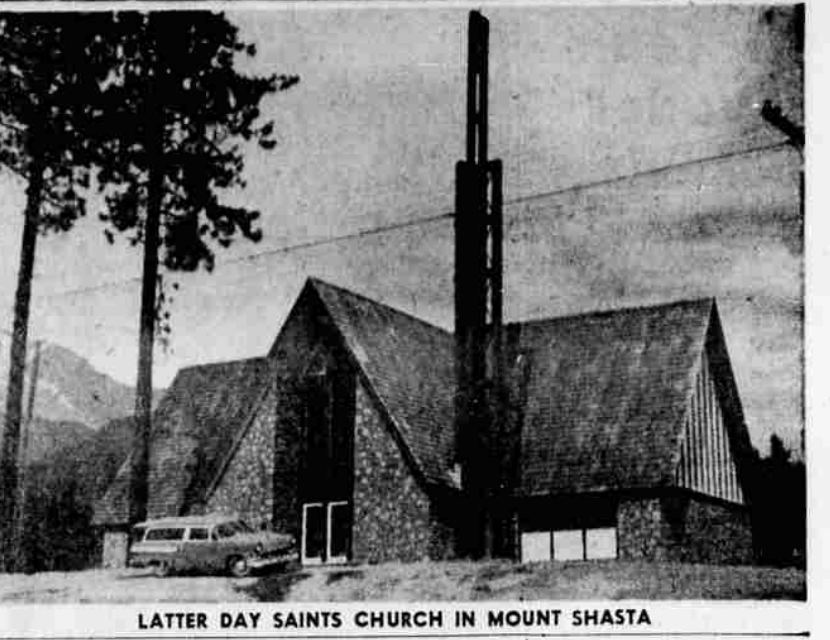

"We know it isn't the real thing," says Mrs. Fred Coble of Fort Scott, "but it's a place where I can come and feel closer to my son—a spot where I can place a few flowers, even though I know he's not there."

Her son, Joseph Robert Coble, had already been awarded the Purple Heart and was serving on the USS Houston in the Java Sea when he was reported missing in action on March 1, 1942.

Like thousands of other World War II casualties reported missing in action and presumed to be dead, the body of Coble was never found.

Last August, Congress provided that headstones for such missing in action cases dating back to the Civil War would be made available to families and placed in National cemeteries.

At the National Cemetery here and at others across the country, special sections will be set aside for the memorial markers. The

Haiti Orders The Arrest Of Nation's Top Prelate

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Haiti's government has ordered the arrest of the nation's leading Roman Catholic prelate in a widening split with the church in this predominantly Catholic Negro republic.

The building covers 4,000 square feet of space and is modern throughout. It is wired for sound amplification for either music, or speaking. The recreational facilities are complete with kitchen and banquet rooms.

The "snow pitch" roof, and lightning rod attach to the climate and weather here being considered, and these help make the church an attractive edifice.

Race Track May Be Site For Housing

NEW YORK (AP) — The abandoned Jamaica racetrack in Queens may become the site of the largest cooperative middle-income housing project in the United States.

The city board of estimate Thursday approved in principle the purchase of the 178-acre tract. The project would cost about 69 million dollars and include apartments for 6,350 families.

Occupants would make a down payment amounting to $600 a room, then a monthly maintenance rent of $23 per room.

The plan, recommended by the city construction coordinator, Robert Moses, would include about 25 apartment buildings of 14 stories, two schools, garages for 450 cars and outdoor parking for 2,100 others, and landscaped areas.

Moses was given approval to negotiate with the state for financing by a limited profit mortgage corporation. A private developer would be chosen to do the job.
