

Bees Power Pays-off. Bevos 2-Time Losers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Salt Lake City Bees powered their way into the lead in the Pacific Coast League Friday night as the stumbling Portland Beavers dropped a pair of games and the Phoenix Giants snapped a losing string at 14.

The Bees, pounding out 12 hits, romped to an 8-2 decision over the Sacramento Solons while the Beavers were dropping 3-2 and 9-5 games to the Spokane Indians.

The Giants, coming alive with 10 hits, including a pair of homers, drubbed the San Diego Padres 9-1. The Vancouver Mounties got only two hits, but one was Frank Keller's home run, in beating Seattle 1-0.

Right-hander Dick Hanlon pitched the Salt Lake City victory, giving the Solons only six hits. The Bees, who now hold a one-half game edge over the second-place Mounties, gave Hanlon all the cushion he needed with four runs in the first frame on five singles and an error.

Keller slammed out his homer in the seventh, spoiling a fine, two-hit pitching performance by Seattle's Bob Mabe, who was lifted for a pinchhitter in the eighth. Mabe gave up only Keller's homer and a bloop single to Wayne Causey in the sixth. George Bamberger limited the Rainiers to five hits.

The Indians got their winning run in the opener in the fifth inning when Frank Howard doubled and came home on Tom Davis' single. Jim Greengrass got a solo homer for the Beavers in the fourth. The victory went to Art Fowler, his first decision after being acquired by Spokane from their parent Los Angeles Dodgers.

The nightcap was a 24-hit affair, with the Indians getting 14 of the safeties, including Steve Bilko's 24th home run of the campaign and a circuit clout by Howard, both solo affairs. The Indians clinched the victory with four runs in the eighth on seven hits, including Cuno Barragan's two-run triple.

Southpaw Marshall Renfroe got the Giants out of the losing habit by stopping the Padres on four hits. He struck out five and walked four. Sal Taormina and Andre Rodgers got the homers as San Diego sent six pitchers to the mound in an effort to salvage the game.

Baltimore Machine Serious

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Those "Six Tons of Fun" are pretty serious characters, especially if the other team's got the ball.

Off the field Baltimore's beehive defensive linemen are a bunch of jovial, good-natured guys, but once they step on the gridiron the Six Tons are pretty heavy-handed.

Previously tagged the "Savage Six," Art Donovan, Gene Lipscomb, Odell Brase, Don Joyce, Gino Marchetti and Ray Krouse form an almost impenetrable defense for the National Football League champion Colts.

The veteran crew has not allowed a touchdown in the Colts' two exhibition games this season. Last week, they bear-hugged the College All-Stars in a 29-0 Baltimore victory.

Friday night against the New York Giants only Pat Summerall's field goal interfered with the Six Tons' fun as the Colts romped 28-0 over the team they edged for the NFL title last year in a sudden death playoff.

In the night's only other game, Eddie Le Baron connected on 15 of 23 passes for 264 yards to lead Washington to a 23-21 victory over Los Angeles. The games drew 140,888 fans, 85,888 at Los Angeles and 55,000 at Dallas. The Chicago Cardinals and Pittsburgh Steelers met in a nationally televised game (ABC, 10 p.m. EST) at Austin, Tex., Cleveland plays Detroit at Akron, Ohio and Chicago's Bears tackle Philadelphia at Boston.

Sunday, Green Bay is at San Francisco.

Harshman Delivers For Indians; Antonelli Nears 20 Win Mark

Damaged Chucker Surprise

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jack Harshman, unable to hold jobs with two clubs because he couldn't win, now is Cleveland's surprise crutch, giving the Indians the left-handed pitching Herb Score was supposed to deliver in their run for the American League pennant.

Harshman's bad back led to a "damaged goods" squawk by Baltimore after a 1957 winter deal with the Chicago White Sox. But he stuck with the Orioles and won 12 last year, three of them shutouts.

This season, his back still corseted, Harshman was 0-6 and the Birds traded him to Boston. He won two for the Red Sox, then lost three and they sold him to second-place Cleveland.

Now, with Cleveland scrambling to catch the White Sox, Harshman suddenly has won two, saved one and lost none—figuring in half of the Indians' six victories in their last 11 games.

The big southpaw, 32, won his second Friday night, blanking Baltimore on three singles for a 5-0 decision that gave the Indians a three-game streak and left them within 2½ games of Chicago.

The White Sox cut their slump at two, coming from behind for a 5-4 edge over Washington as reliever Gerry Staley won his sixth straight.

New York belted Kansas City 9-7, and Detroit beat Boston 2-0 on Paul Foytack's four-hit and Al Kaline's two-run homer.

Indians 5, Birds 0

With Score winless in seven starts since July 3 and passed over in pitching rotation, Harshman made his second start with Cleveland and came through with his second complete game. Now 4-9, he didn't walk a man and struck out five.

ChiSox 5, Nats 4

The White Sox scored two unearned runs in the first, then had to come from behind after the Senators chased Dick Donovan with two in the sixth for a 3-2 edge. Johnny Romano's two-run pinch single got back the lead for Staley (7-3) in the sixth.

Tigers 2, BoSox 0

Foytack (12-0) walked but one and struck out eight, allowing one hit after the second inning for his first victory over Boston in five decisions. Kaline's 22nd home run came in the third against Bill Monbouquette (4-5). It followed a walk to Harvey Kuenn.

Varsity 9, Jayvees 7

The Yankees blew 2-0 and 5-3 leads and finally needed Ryno Duren's save after the A's scored one in the ninth. With one out and the bases loaded, Duren struck out Joe DeMaestri and got Roger Maris on a foul.

Mazzuca Twirls

One-Hit Shutout

PORTLAND (AP)—Louise Mazzuca hurled a one-hit shutout as the Lind Florists of Portland beat the Salem Shamrocks 10-0 in one of the opening games of the Northwest Women's Softball Tournament here Friday night.

In another game, the Seattle Ramblers dropped the American Linen team of Portland, 3-1.

SF Boss Foresees Hot Race

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "This thing is going to be a photo finish and I hope we take a good picture."

Bespectacled Bill Rigney sat in the manager's corner of the visiting clubhouse at Connie Mack Stadium Friday night, talking about the National League pennant race.

Rigney was talkative. Why not? His cup runneth over. The Giants had just taken two from Philadelphia Phillies and picked up half a game on the runner-up Los Angeles Dodgers. The Giants lead by 2½.

At what pace will the Giants have to play to cop the flag? Rigney thought a minute, then observed: "I'd say we have to win 90 games to clinch. Let's see. We've got 32 left, that would be 20-21 to the end. That would be .625 ball."

Rigney went on: "This is going to be close down to the wire. We need a little streak to see it over. You know, we haven't won more than four in a row all season."

Rigney said that the Giants had been lucky in recent days. "When we lost, so did the Dodgers and Milwaukee."

"And let me say here that the Braves aren't dead," commented Rigney.

Nellie Fox Feted By Chi

CHICAGO (UPI)—Nellie Fox, the Chicago White Sox spunky little second baseman who consistently winds up on the all star teams, pondered Saturday what he was going to do with a 26-foot sailboat—in Pennsylvania.

Fox got the sailboat, along with an air-conditioned Cadillac and gifts in all totaling almost $50,000, Friday night at Nellie Fox night while the Sox played the Washington Senators.

Fox went hitless for the night, though he did help the Chicagoans to a 3-4 win by getting struck on the back by a pitched ball in the first inning, then, with the help of fellow speedster Luis Aparicio, took part in a double steal which led to the Sox' first two runs—both unearned.

Season Odd-ball For John

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's been an odd season of success for Johnny Antonelli, San Francisco's lefty ace who was upset by "lousy fly balls," and who can't beat Milwaukee, yet is closing in on 20 victories for the first time in three years.

Since losing two straight three weeks ago (beaten by these fly balls that went for homers in the Giants' windy home park), Antonelli has won three of four decisions while San Francisco has jumped into the National League lead.

Antonelli tied Milwaukee's Lew Burdette for the major league lead with his 17th victory Friday night. He did it with an eight-hitter that put the opener away as San Francisco moved 2½ games ahead with a 6-0 and 10-6 twilight doubleheader sweep at Philadelphia.

Second-place Los Angeles defeated Pittsburgh 6-5, but the third-place Braves fell five games behind when their game with the Chicago Cubs was rained out. Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 2-1.

Giants 6-10, Phils 0-6

Singles by Giants' Jackie Brandt and Orlando Cepeda dropped Robin Roberts (11-13) in the first inning. The Giants made it a breeze for Anty (17-7) with three in the sixth.

Young Mike McCormick (11-10) beat the Phils in the second game. He allowed only three hits, one Wally Post's 18th homer, but needed Stu Miller's relief after giving up his fifth walk in the seventh. The Giants got this one with seven runs in the fourth.

Bums 6, Pirates 5

The Dodgers came from behind with four runs in the seventh against Ronnie Kline (8-12), then scored the clincher in the ninth when the Bucs missed a double-play on a bases-loaded grounder by pinch-hitter Carl Furillo.

Reds 2, Cardinals 1

Reds' rookie Jay Hook (3-3) gave up a first-inning homer by the Cards the rest of the way on four hits. He also singled and scored the winning run on Gus Bell's single off Larry Jackson (10-12) in the fifth.

Loading Ramp Built At MS

DUNSMUIR — Installation of a leading and unloading ramp, midway up the Mount Shasta chairlift to accommodate winter sports enthusiasts next winter, has been planned by the board of directors of the Mount Shasta Ski Bowl Corporation.

A member of the board explained the ramp would allow skiers, who did not wish to undertake the full course, to get off at the halfway point. The ramp can also be used for upper level skiing which proved so popular last winter.

Lift manager Dave Rankine said the chairlift is proving a great tourist attraction. The staff is concentrating on preparing for the large influx of skiers next winter, which is Olympic year in California.

Trackmen, Splashers Termed Tremendous

CHICAGO (AP) — The head coaches of Uncle Sam's male track and field and swimming teams called their squads "tremendous" today and said they expected records to be shattered in every direction in the Pan-American Games.

Both Chick Werner, of Penn State, the athletics chieftain, and Charles McCaffrey Jr., of Michigan State, the swimming top kick, predicted a huge harvest of gold medals for the United States in the third Western Hemisphere sports show, Aug. 27-Sept. 7.

"Our swim team is the greatest ever assembled by the United States," said McCaffrey. "I think every Pan-American record will be broken."

"Probably the greatest team ever put together," was Werner's comment about his mighty squad. "Most of the Pan-American records will be broken."

Both said their boys were all keyed up "to shoot the works," and both were a little fearful that a massacre might be misunderstood and endanger our good neighbor policy.

"We're not going to hold anything back," said McCaffrey. "Our friends in North and South America want us to put our best against them. They don't mind getting beaten by the best and if they win anything they know they will have beaten the best."

Werner put it almost the same way.

The competition among the United States entries will be fierce. Almost to a man they're aiming for gold medals here and a foot-in-the door for the 1960 Olympic Team.

The swimmers are headed by recent world record breakers Mike Troy (butterfly) and Frank McKinney (backstroke) of Indiana, and 18-year-old Alan Somers, the Indianapolis schoolboy who posted the second fastest 1,500 meters ever.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"We'd fight Archie Moore tomorrow, if we could, and very probably we will soon," said Von Clay's happy manager, Anthony Graziano.

"We're guaranteeing Yvon Durelle $10,000 to fight Clay on Oct. 9 in Philadelphia," announced promoter Herman Taylor and matchmaker Pete Moran.

It seemed like optimistic talk regarding a 29-year-old fighter with only 11 pro fights, but that was the mood Friday night after Clay finished off Sonny Ray, the fourth-ranked lightweight, in 56 seconds of the fifth round of a scheduled 10-rounder.

The decisive victory, in his first nationally televised (NBC) fight, meant that Clay had reached the top ranks of his division — and Ray's comments reflected the blow dealt to his career.

Three tentatively scheduled fights, the 23-year-old Chicagoan said, without going into detail, probably will have to be cancelled.

"I'm going down to my grandmother's farm in Kentucky," he said, "rest, give the cut over my eye a chance to heal, and then see about a rematch with Clay, maybe in Kentucky."

That Tuesday the 8th day of September, 1959, at the hour of 7:30 o'clock P.M. there is to be a public hearing in the City Hall of Klamath Falls, Oregon, shall be and is hereby authorized and directed to cause a notice of said hearing to be published as provided by the City Charter and conforming thereto shall cause this resolution to be published in the City official newspaper, once a day for ten consecutive days, and the City Engineer, he and he is hereby directed to post, within five days after the first publication of this resolution, on the street or streets along the line of the contemplated sewer line, two notices, headed: "NOTICE OF SEWER WORK" in letters of not less than one inch in length, and said notices shall contain in legible characters, a copy of the resolution of the Council and the date of its passage, and the City Engineer shall file with the City Recorder an affidavit of the posting of such notices, stating the date when posted, and places where posted and the number of notices posted.

Passed by the Common Council of the City of Klamath Falls, Oregon, this 10th day of August, 1959.
