

OFFICERS for the coming year were elected by Klamath County Cow Belles during a brief business meeting at the annual luncheon held at Klamath Yacht Club on October 14 preceding a style show presented to the members and guests through the courtesy of Bon Bazaar and Fashion Villa. Sydney Barnes and Mrs. Dan Johnston were co-chairmen of arrangements. Shown here, from left, are Mrs. Louis Randall, new vice president; Mrs. Earl Erickson, new secretary; Mrs. Homer DeLamater, outgoing president, and Mrs. Dan Johnson, who was elected as president. —Cow Belle Photos by Kettler

KLAMATH COUNTY COW BELLES' annual fall luncheon, held October 14 at the Klamath Yacht Club, brought numerous guests from out of town. Driving down from Fort Klamath for the event were these Cow Belle members, from left, Mrs. Carroll Owens, a Tehama County Cow Belle from Red Bluff; Mrs. William Zumbun of Fort Klamath; Mrs. Bill Owens of Red Bluff and Fort Klamath, and Mrs. Loren Miller Jr., president of the Tehama County Cow Belles at Red Bluff who brings her family to Fort Klamath for the summer. Others from Fort Klamath, but not shown, included Mrs. Bert Stanley, wife of the president of Klamath County Cattlemen's Association. In the background are unidentified women, many of whom were from Lakeview, Bly and Klamath Falls.

Two Celebrate Silver Wedding

BONANZA — A silver wedding anniversary was marked on October 10 by Mr. and Mrs. Verle Heseltine when they greeted their many friends in the Klamath Basin at a party given for them at their home by Mrs. Isabelle Heseltine, Mrs. Louis VanSipe and Mrs. Jennie Hare.

Asters and daisies were arranged with silver leaves for attractive decorations and a silvered pine tree holding gifts of silver dollars was presented as a gift to the honored couple.

Mrs. Heseltine wore a navy blue dress and a corsage of pink roses as she and her husband cut the first slice of the pink, white and silver wedding cake which was topped with silver bells and the numeral, 25. The cake was served by Mrs. Fred Stabler, coffee by Mrs. Jennie Hare and punch by Mrs. Isabelle Heseltine. Special guests were the couple's daughter, Janice, a student at Southern Oregon College and Mrs. Heseltine's sister, Mrs. Phyllis Anne Mundin and two children, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stebler and three children, all of Medford.

Grandmothers Visit Families

Two Falcon Heights families recently entertained great-grandmothers. Mrs. Mark Graves came by train the end of September from her home in Western New York state to see her great-grandson, David A. Hurd Jr., son of Lt. and Mrs. D. A. Hurd. After a visit here the Hurd family accompanied her to El Cerrito for a short stay with other relatives before she returned to the East.

At the home of Lt. Charles Aly on Wright Avenue Mrs. Alice Aly of Phoenix spent most of her short stay enjoying the antics of her 3-year-old great-grandson, Kirkland Christopher (KC) Aly and his younger sister, Theresa.

THE FRENCH have a way with lace, as demonstrated in practically all of the Paris fall collections. Pictured are two contrasting silhouettes. At left, is a short evening dress in white lace from Calais, designed by Yves St. Laurent of the house of Dior, featuring the controversial new hobble-skirt and worn with ballooning ruffled cape coat in Anthracite taffeta to match the sash. At right, Chanel's graceful dance dress in mauve Chantilly lace with tiered and scalloped full skirt is banded in matching satin.

OSC Mothers Set Tea Date

The fall session of the Oregon State Mothers Club begins each year with a tea honoring mothers of new students. This year the affair will be held on October 24 at the home of Mrs. Robert Thompson, 660 Loma Linda Drive. All mothers of Oregon State students as well as alumni are invited to attend between the hours of two and four.

Mrs. Hugh Swaney, president of the local club, urges all mothers to become members at this time.

New Beauty Tool Applies Lip Color

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

A brand new beauty tool has just turned up. It's the first automatic roll-on lipstick, combining the properties of lipstick, lip liner and lip brush.

In a slender, two-tone golden case, the new lip-quick is longer, more graceful and easier to use. You take off the cap and the rounded, ballpoint applicator tip is ready to release flowing color from an inner well.

With this new tool, you can outline a perfect shape. The fluid formula rolls the color on evenly and quickly. You draw on a clean outline, wet your lips and press them together. That's all.

Because it's greaseless, the makers say there's no need to blot once you've used it. Nor is there a gummy, sticky feeling.

Canton Crater Honors Officers

Canton Crater No. 7 honored three state officers of the Association of Ladies Auxiliaries Patriarch Militant, Department of Oregon, at an informal reception on Thursday, September 24, in the IOOF Hall.

Preceding the reception a short business meeting was held by Helen McCormack, president.

Frances Munsell, vice president of the association; Vera Fritsch, chaplain and Ina May Wells, left aide to the vice president, were the three state officers escorted and introduced by officer of the day, Mildred Rexford, as the Chevaliers of Canton No. 7 formed an honor guard. All were welcomed by Helen McCormack and seated in the east for the remainder of the reception.

An excellent program of piano solos and duets was presented by Rene and Helen Hurlburt who were introduced by Vera Clemmons. Mildred Rexford gave clever renditions of two readings, and the president gave a brief explanation of the order.

Members and guests introduced included Mae Anderson, past president of the association; George Blanas, captain of Canton No. 7; Harriett Estes, grand outside guardian of the Ladies Encampment Auxiliary of Oregon; Frank McCormack, member of the joint youth committee; Velma Krause and Esther Johnson, noble grand of Prosperity and Merrill Rebeah lodges; Beth Kirby, adviser of Theta Theta Rho Girls' Club; Donna Odell, assistant adviser and Sharon Odell, district chairman of Theta Theta Rho No. 8, and Herbert Munsell, past grand patriarch of Oregon.

A short addendum by Zelma Howard, Isabel Foster and Kate Hogue presented gifts from the auxiliary to the three honored officers.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall with the reception table and the room decorated with arrangements of gold marigolds and purple dahlias, colors of the auxiliary, by Helen Blanas, chairman, was assisted by Kathleen Hepburn, Lorene McCollum and Louise O'Brien. Presiding at the coffee service was Mae Anderson and at the punch bowl, Zelma Howard.

The next auxiliary meeting will be on October 8, and all officers are asked to be present in order to practice for the official visit of Lady Lila Holmes, president of the association and reviewing officer. Ethel Pease on October 22 at 8 p.m. in the IOOF Hall.

Yreka Couple Host Progressive Dinner

YREKA—An autumn theme dictated the use of decorations by several members of the "Wingdingers," a couple's club of the Yreka Methodist Church when they entertained during the annual progressive dinner.

Cocktails were served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Elliott, who had decorated their home with corn stalks and colorful gourds. They were assisted with the serving by Mr. and Mrs. Verle Hodge.

The party then progressed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McBain for the salad course, and here again the autumn theme prevailed, with squash designed to hold fall flowers, and Indian corn decorating the tables. The McBains were assisted with host duties by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Batterman of Yreka, and Mr. and Mrs. James McAdams of Montague.

The main course was served in the social hall of the Yreka Methodist Church, which was mainly decorated with fall flowers. Sharing hostess duties were Mr. and Mrs. Hartsel Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hennig, this committee being headed by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kernohan of Montague.

The dessert course was served at the home of Dr. and Mrs. O. K. Kendall, who were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wettle, Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Payne, all of Yreka, and Mr. and Mrs. James Elsea of Montague.

In addition to those mentioned, members present were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Beckwith, the Rev. and Mrs. Harold Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Kito, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zamow, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller and Mr. and Mrs. George Luttrell.

Present as guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Pendley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fowler, the latter two couples being from Montague.
