MISTAKEN IDENTITY?—You might think the creature above is a bear, but it happens to be Gunker, a deodorized pet skunk, his familiar white stripe not showing. He opens wide in Oconomowoc, Wis., for his favorite tidbit—a marshmallow.

GLOBAL CONFERENCE URGED

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Independent producer Charles Schneier has proposed an international conference of the motion picture industry to exchange ideas on the problems of film-making, including censorship, television and the European market.

NO 5-AND-10 STUFF

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Jill St. John's next film may feature some of the year's most expensive props if she wears the matching pin and bracelet set given to her by Woolworth heir Lance Reventlow. The jewelry, made for Miss St. John by Tibor of Beverly Hills, cost $2,000. It contains gold, platinum and diamonds.
