

State Masons' Grand Master To Visit City

Grand Master of Masons in Oregon, David W. Pearson of Portland, will pay an official visit to lodges in Masonic District No. 21 at the Scottish Rite Temple, 632 Walnut Avenue, on Wednesday, October 21.

Crater Lake Lodge No. 211, Klamath Falls, will be host to officers and members of the district. Masonic District No. 21 includes Klamath Lodge No. 77, in its 80th year and one of the oldest lodges in Eastern Oregon; Ponderosa Lodge No. 220, also of Klamath Falls, in its third year and next to the youngest lodge in Oregon; Malin Lodge No. 194, and Chiloquin Lodge No. 197.

A no-host dinner, arranged by

the social club of the Eastern Star, will be served at 6:30 p.m. A meeting will follow the dinner at which time the grand master will outline his program for the coming year, with emphasis on education.

Other grand lodge officers taking part in the meeting will include Bernice Wilson of Merrill, district deputy of the grand master and in charge of meeting arrangements, and Harry D. Proudfoot, grand secretary.

Dale Howell, worshipful master of Crater Lake Lodge No. 211, will assist the visiting officers. The PTA Mothersingers, under the direction of Mrs. Don Miller, will present a program of entertainment.

Hit The Pad

NEW YORK (UPI) — A Brooklyn truck driver probably owes his life today to an order pad he carries in his shirt pocket. Charles Hager, 23, told police that two armed thugs jumped on the running board of his truck and tried to rob him Friday. When he attempted to shake them off, he said, one tired right at his head. The bullet hit the order pad and was deflected. The thugs fled.

NOT WITH KISS

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — Smoke got in the eyes of about 40 people attending the movie "It Started With a Kiss" and they had to leave the Paramount Theater. Firemen said the smoke started not with a kiss but with a short in a neon tube.

THE ARTIFACTS CLUB will meet in the Klamath County Library at 8 p.m. Monday. Above is a group of Indian relics found on the surface of the ground around local lakes. They are among many others that will be shown at the meeting. Light colored pieces in center are clay pipes which were probably traded to local Indian tribesmen by other tribes. The largest pipe is 15 inches long. Also pictured are obsidian knives and spearheads. Anyone having artifacts to display or to have identified will be welcome.

Farm Safety Laws Sought

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Two state officials say they hope a stronger farm safety program results from the death of a gallant 12-year-old girl.

The child, Christine Hays of Blackfoot, Idaho, died in a Salt Lake City hospital Friday—three days after a farm machine caught her hair and tore the scalp, ears and eyelids from her head. The accident Monday happened as she helped harvest potatoes on an east Idaho farm.

Labor Commissioner W. L. Robison said, "I think it points up the necessity of publicizing a little more the need to give some protection to youngsters working on the farm."

Robison said both state and federal industrial safety laws now exempt farm labor.

Couple Buys Mudge Building

CHILOQUIN — Announcement has been made of the purchase of the Paul Mudge Building on Chestnut Street by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Oates. Mrs. Oates operates Marie's Cafe in the adjoining building to the east.

The Mudge Building has two small apartments, one vacant business section where Mathis and MacDonald had their store for several months earlier this year, and the post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mudge, former Chiloquin residents, were in town from their home in Madera, California, earlier this fall to complete the transaction and to do a small amount of carpentry on the building.

The Oates family has lived in the Chiloquin area many years. He is local foreman of the Beaver State Telephone Company, equipment and repair division.

"Since I am over 3,000 miles from home, the USO has been my 'home away from home' during the past 14 months," wrote a Klamath Falls soldier recently.

He is Pfc. Wilburn Pearson, currently stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey and the son of Pearl Wissen-Back, 2023 Ward Street.

His was one of several testimonials jotted by local servicemen on cards provided for the purpose in United Service Organization units throughout the world during the year.

The statements are released annually by the Oregon United Appeal, supported in Klamath County by the United Fund, during fund drives.

Some men are high in praise of USO in the space provided on the cards for "messages to home." Others jot simple "hellos" to relatives.

Said Pfc. Wayne Lyle Salisbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Salisbury, 3249 South Sixth Street, "I haven't seen a better one than this." He was referring to a USO unit in Tokyo.

Army Pvt. Darryl J. Chaffee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Chaffee, 388 Hillside Avenue, said "Corpus Christi USO is just great. A swell bunch of guys here."

Army Pvt. James E. McGee of Bly wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McGee, "On my way to Fort Ord. Will write when we get there." He wrote from the USO unit in Oakland.

Pvt. Roger D. Kauble, son of Elwin and Cora Kauble, 1517 Derby Street, Klamath Falls, said, "be home sooner than you think." He wrote from a USO club in Tacoma.

Other messages were received from Pvt. Robert A. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman M. Wilson, 791 Lakeshore Drive, from Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri; Airman 3-c Ronald L. DeVine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Bowman of Crescent, from Austin, Texas; Pvt. E-2 Richard E. Kenny, son of Dorothy Tubandt, formerly of Klamath Falls, from Columbia, South Carolina and Airman 3-c Robert F. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson, 508 Upham Street, from El Paso.
