McClellan Jet Invasion Could Prove Rough Test

A descriptive brochure containing miscellaneous information about the McClellan Air Force Base Jets, who appear Saturday night in a non-conference game with the Oregon Tech Owls on Modoc Field, gives only a small hint of the power of the invaders, it was learned Tuesday.

A long distance telephone call made by Owl mentor, Rex Hunsaker, proved it.

An early report had it that the fliers had been beaten by Santa Clara last weekend and thus had had a five-game undefeated skin snapped. The call revealed that the Jets had dumped the Santa Clarans 28-8 and so remain undefeated for the season.

amassed 158 points while allowing the opposition only 32.

The offensive forward wall of the Jets, a Mutt and Jeff situation, features three men 6-5 and over. Jim Thompson, a 250-pound right end, stands 6-5, right next to him at the tackle slot is another 6-5er, Chuck Moody. Center Bill Martin stands 6-6 and weighs 190.

Claassen Sees UO Victory

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP) — Why did they increase the width between the goal posts in college football? Well, the reason is that certain wide-beamed forecasts should be booted out of the end zone because they were unable to predict that Ohio State would handle Purdue and that Pittsburgh would be handled by West Virginia last weekend.

Sailing between the posts with the greatest of squeeze, here are this week's winners, with the understanding that the forecasts are no better than a week end ago when the average was .708 on 34 winners in 48 decisions:

Louisiana State over Florida: The Bayou Bengals rarely do more than they have to, but the formula seems to work. So the pick is Billy Cannon & Co. again.

Northwestern over Notre Dame: One of these days this Notre Dame team will jell and make everyone look silly—including the foe on the field. But not this weekend.

Texas over Rice: This is pure suicide. But one must stay with that Texas speed in the line and Rene Ramirez.

Mississippi over Arkansas: Our Memphis operator says these two teams are as good as any in the country, but that Bobby Franklin makes the Rebels the choice.

Southern California over Stanford: The Trojan blockers hit like a wooden horse.

Syracuse over West Virginia: The Mountaineers' season ended with that victory over Pittsburgh.

Auburn over Miami: With relative ease.

Oregon over Washington: Because the Webfoots handled the Air Force with such ease.

Purdue over Iowa: But it will be close.

J. D. Smith Crowding Jim Brown

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—For the second straight week Cleveland's Jimmy Brown leads the National Football League in rushing but J. D. Smith of San Francisco is pressing him for the top spot, statistics released today showed.

Brown has picked up 437 yards on 101 carries for a four-game average of 4.3 compared to Smith's 410 yards in 78 tries for a 5.3 average. Ollie Matson of Los Angeles is third with 403 yards on 66 carries good for a 6.1 average.

Quarterback Ralph Guglielmi of Washington leads the passers for the second week in a row with 21 completions out of 45 attempts for 430 yards and a 9.76 average gain. New York's Chuck Conerly has moved into the No. 2 spot with 656 yards on 47 completions out of 79 tries for an 8.30 average. Standings are based on average gain per pass attempted.

Woodley Lewis of the Chicago Cardinals continues to enjoy a big bulge as the best pass receiver. His 21 catches have netted him 397 yards and two touchdowns. Second is Frank Gifford of New York with 20 catches and 301 yards.

Rodriguez Picked To Stop Logart

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Luis Rodriguez, the Cuban welterweight whose technique of pouring in the punches has brought him undefeated through his last 24 fights, is a 2-1 favorite to lick Isaac Logart in their 10 round bout tonight.

Cynthia Jan Sullivan, 22, will be one of the youngest girls on the pro golf tour in 1960.

Linemen Awarded Acclaim

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It's a rarity when sports writers at a football game peg their stories on a lineman. To achieve such a distinction the usually unassuming boy up front has to do something extraordinary.

Bill Burrell, Illinois guard, hit the headlines in spectacular fashion last Saturday against Minnesota. His sterling play against the Gophers brought him added recognition today as lineman of the week in the Associated Press poll.

Burrell made 16 tackles, recovered a fumble and stole a pass in a 14-6 triumph over Minnesota.

The 207-pound Negro captain of the Illinois from Clifton, Ill., recovered a Minnesota fumble at mid-field in the second quarter to start his team's first scoring drive.

The 1960 Masters golf tournament is set for April 7-10 at the August National course.

On the other side of the line is left end Bob Davis, 6-3, 220 pounds and tackle Ray Gonzales, 5-8, 210. At the guard slots, each at 190, are J. A. Eirp, 5-10, and Leon Garding, a 5-9 All-Stater from University of Montana.

Teaming with Bettez and Steele in the offensive backfield are fullback Sid Brown, a 220-pounder and speedster halfback Eli Ireland, 185.

One note, included in the brochure, states "many of the Jet players have been offered good football jobs to commence upon their separation from the service."

After taking Monday off after their bruising game with the almost too-determined SOC Red Raiders last weekend, the Technicians returned to the practice field Tuesday night.

The first session was a speedy, hard, short drill that was spent primarily on passing and pass-receiving drills.

Missing from the session was conference high-scoring Allen Leach who was taken ill Tuesday morning.

Returning, however, was halfback Al "Tiger" Everson who has completely recuperated from a rib injury suffered two weeks ago.

Fullback Stan Glass, the focal point for the Red Raider defense last week, is suffering from numerous tender spots but is expected to be in shape for the McClellan hassle.

In the SOC game both Glass and quarterback Roy Johnson played defensive positions for the first time in the current season.

The Pelican Booster Club meeting scheduled for the Chuck Wagon Restaurant at 6:30 this evening will feature a highly interesting report by Pelican coach Bob Williams. His commentary will accompany the showing of the Medford-Klamath Union game movies.

Also planned is a pre-Springfield game report by assistant coach Hank Smith, who observed the Millers in action against Eugene last weekend.

Club president Harold Howard noted that there are also a number of important business matters to be discussed at the meeting.

field Millers here Friday night, stayed inside Tuesday for a 3½-hour skull practice that included a review of the Medford-Klamath game films.

Said coach Bob Williams, "The movies proved that we did as much to defeat ourselves as Medford did to beat us. We (the coaches) spent three hours Monday checking the films and we reviewed them completely for the players yesterday."

Today's practice plan for the Whitebirds included more tackling work and work on offensive assignments in a dummy scrimmage between the first and second Pelican units.

VETERAN REPORTER DIES

NEW YORK (UPI) — Funeral services will be held Thursday for Edward P. Farrell, 77, a veteran newspaperman and a member of the publicity staff at all New York race tracks since 1940. Farrell died Monday night.

to be at nearly full strength by the time the Springfield eleven reaches town Friday. John Hancock, who was acclaimed for his work against Medford despite a troublesome knee, is staying out of contact work thus far, but has suited up for calisthenics and running. He will play Friday night.

Tackle Gary Hancock suffered a slight misfortune with a bag of concrete early in the week but is also figured to be okay by game time. Co-captain Larry Bunyard who was jostled roughly in the Medford action is also reported ready as is halfback Blake Griggs who

Blattner, Diz Dean At Odds

PHOENIX (UPI) — "I never pushed anybody around except them hitters."

That's what Dizzy Dean said today about Buddy Blattner's claim Dean pulled strings that caused a rift between the two television "Game of The Day" announcers.

Blattner quit the show Tuesday with the comment, "Diz can be charming but he likes to push people around. I had made up my mind he'd do it to me one day."

Blattner, Dean's partner for seven years, was making plans for a show of his own. He said Dean got their sponsor to keep him co-broadcasting the Milwaukee-Los Angeles playoff game in Milwaukee with George Kell.

"I don't understand why Buddy went to the papers with his complaints," the former National League pitching star said at his home here.

"I believe I'd have called Buddy if I had something to say to him...There's a lot of people that'd like to be pushed around for $75,000 a year for 48 ball games."

Dean denied he prevented Blattner from doing the playoff game. "I wanted to get back to Phoenix myself," he said. "It was done season and time was wasting. The agency we work for had me stand by but when details couldn't be worked out I came home. I didn't even see Buddy after we said goodbye in Chicago."

was ill Sunday.

The Millers, who were edged 7-0 in the final minute of play against the rated South Eugene Axemen last Friday, average 177 across the starting offensive forward wall, and 170 in the backfield. The Pels hold the edge in the poundage up front but are considerably lighter in the backfield.

In other action Friday night the only Southern Oregon Conference game scheduled is a clash between the Central Point Crater Comets and the Cave-men at Grants Pass. Medford steps out of conference play to host the Eureka Loggers; and Ashland forays into California for a non-counter with the Del Norte High team at Crescent City.
