

CONGRATULATIONS and best wishes were given to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Cramer on their silver wedding anniversary, October 17, by a group of friends who planned a surprise party in their honor. They are pictured with a silver money tree presented to them by the guests.

Two Celebrate Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Cramer, 239 Alameda, were honored by a group of their friends at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Compton, 421 Damont Street. The surprise cocktail party and buffet supper on October 17 marked the silver wedding anniversary of the Cramers.

Mr. and Mrs. Cramer were married in Seattle in 1934 and have made their home in Klamath Falls since that time where he has owned and operated Cramer's Communications Service.

A silvered tree decorated with silver dollars was presented as a gift to the couple. Mrs. Compton prepared a silver memento book containing greetings from the guests and mementos of the occasion to be kept by the Cramers. Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Calhoun, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Holland and Mr. and Mrs. Odell Olson.

Klamath Falls guests included Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bigger, Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Vergeer, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Golding, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cook and Dr. and Mrs. Ivan Thompson.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Princehouse, Mrs.

Cramer's sister; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cramer, brother of Keith Cramer, Carolyn Cramer, his sister, all of Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bargell, Mrs. Cramer's son of Portland; Mrs. Jessie Reed and Howard Reed, Paulina Lake; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Minton, Tulare, California; Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Snyder, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Veri Walker, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Turner, Portland.

BRIDGE CLUB

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Mae Gale entertained her bridge club at the Bonanza Library this week. High prize for the afternoon went to Mrs. Owen Pepple, second high to Mrs. Paul Monroe, low to Mrs. Harold Williams, traveling to Mrs. Ted Rowcliffe and the special prize to Mrs. Leland Harris. Others enjoying the party were Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Harry Frazier, Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mrs. Bill Bechold, Mrs. Cecil Haley, Mrs. Merrill Stewart, Mrs. Charlie Schmidt, Mrs. Mabel Maxwell, Mrs. Lloyd Gift and Mrs. Doug Smelcer. Secret pals were revealed and new names were drawn at the close of the afternoon.

"PRACTICE makes perfect" was found to be true by Kathy MacCracken who spent her entire time at the OTI-SOC football game conquering this step, a big one for a 17-month-old. She came to the game with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott MacCracken, who are staunch supporters of SOC since he is a professor at the college.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

DUNSMUIR — Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Horsley, 1225 Hill Street, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on October 10. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Barker of Alturas, who were the wedding attendants, were present to help observe the occasion.

Guests Visit In Local Homes

Mrs. Roger Sands of Seattle visited last week at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Juckeland. On the weekend they all flew to the Bay Area to visit the Juckeland's daughters. Joan Juckeland teaches in the Palo Alto elementary school system and her sister Betty is on the engineering staff of Sandia Corporation, a subsidiary of Western Electric in Livermore. While in the south they attended the Stanford-Washington State football game.

Robin Jones of Eugene spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Adolph Zamsky and family.

Returning from California Mr. and Mrs. Matt Finnigan stopped for a short visit with Judge and Mrs. David Vandenberg. The Finnigans, former residents of this city, now reside in Spokane.

Registered recently at the Winema Hotel were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hardenbrook of Roseburg. Mrs. Hardenbrook enjoyed many afternoons with her friends while her husband was hunting.

Not visiting but still traveling are Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Krause who left on Thursday for Pasadena where they spend the winter months each year.

FRESH AND FLAVORFUL

Next time you are making egg salad sandwiches for the school lunch box add a good bit of minced parsley if it happens to be in the refrigerator. Fresh flavor!

Service Club Slates Dances

Fun evenings of square dancing are scheduled for airmen of Kingsley Field by Mrs. Billie McLean, service club director. The first will be on Monday evening, October 26, followed by others on November 9 and 23.

Leonard Williamson, well known in square dancing circles, will be the singing caller and instructor.

Mrs. McLean invites young women of the city to come join in the good times. A bus will provide transportation from the Winema Hotel at 7:30 and at Bing's in Town and Country Center at 7:45.

For any information or other transportation needs call Mrs. McLean at TU 4-4731 or TU 2-4411, Ext. 227.
