HEADS TOGETHER these four are planning a big time for the women of Reames Country Club and their guests at the annual Halloween dress up party on October 30. Cecile Peyton, left, chairman of the affair is assisted by Katherine Stonecypher, Helen Wells and Eve Ashley. Although costumes are not imperative the committee has arranged for prizes to be given in five categories of fancy dress. Each member is asked to bring a dish of her special salad, casserole or dessert to be a part of the potluck luncheon. A charge of 25 cents will cover cost of rolls, coffee and kitchen help. Festivities are scheduled to start at 12 o'clock. —Photo by Guderian

FABULOUS DRESSING

You can concoct a fabulous thousand island dressing by adding chili sauce, drained pickle relish, sieved hard-cooked egg and diced canned pimiento (drained) to plain mayonnaise.

LE MUGUET DU BONHEUR

Caron presents lily of the valley as you've never experienced it — as fresh and frivolous and light-hearted as Paris itself. A fragrance so gay and young and beguiling that she who wears it becomes so.

JACQUELINE REED'S engagement to Dudley Reid Herrington of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hawthorne, 2316 Eberlein Street.

The bride-elect, a second lieutenant in the Army Nursing Corps stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey, has one more year of service to complete. She is a past queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel 6, and is a graduate of Klamath Union High School where she was a member of the rally squad. She received her training at Emanuel Hospital in Portland.

The future bridegroom, a graduate of University of Mississippi, is a registered pharmacist in business with his father.

No date has been set for the wedding.

FIND ANCIENT ANCHOR

GLOUCESTER, Mass. (UPI) — A 1,250-pound granite and wood anchor, found recently at the bottom of Gloucester's inner harbor, may have been used by early English explorers, marine historians theorize. These explorers used this harbor as a base as early as 1624, on them.

INSULT PLUS INJURY

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (UPI) — William Hodge was fined $100 for striking his wife after she complained that not only did he hit her, but even brought his girl friend to the coffee shop where she worked and insisted she wait harbor as a base as early as 1624, on them.

Home Extension

KENO UNIT

A lesson on rug and upholstery cleaning was given to the Keno Home Extension Unit by Mrs. Sarah Erle and Mrs. Henry Buckingham at the latter's home on October 14.

Mrs. Ruth Heiderer was elected secretary of the group following the resignation of Mrs. Pat Shirk.

Mrs. Bertha Moore suggested a white elephant sale and a traveling basket as possible money raising projects.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, November 12, at the home of Nellie Smith.

SHASTA-HOMEDALE UNIT

Upholstering and rug cleaning were demonstrated by Mrs. Orlan da Baker and Mrs. Naomi Miller for members and guests of the Shasta-Homedale Extension Unit at their meeting on October 16 at Joan's Kitchen.

Guests were Mrs. Margaret Mangrum, Mrs. Cora Judd, Mrs. Anna Winterringer and Mrs. B. Book of Upland, California.

FAIRHAVEN UNIT

The Fairhaven Home Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. Putt Roberts on October 9 to discuss the project of rug and upholstery cleaning. Mrs. Viola Roberts and Lois Harper were the leaders. Guests were Ann Hiler, Dora King, Euene Mae Wisenhunt and Esther Johnson. The next meeting will be on November 13 at the home of Lois Harper.

STORED WHEAT STUDIED

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (UPI) — A research project here has proved that bread made from wheat stored up to 33 years can still make for pretty fair eating. Tests by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Colorado State University showed that the thiamin and protein content of such bread was comparable to that made from freshly harvested wheat.

that

wears GRAFFORLON

You won't find GRAFFORLON in the dictionary. It's a word that could easily take up a whole page of description. Without a doubt the most fabulous slack material ever created for your wearing pleasure. A miracle blend of Orlon and rayon, washable, wrinkle and crease resistant, Grafforlon actually outwears wool and is much more comfortable for active wear. For work, for play for glamour on-the-go, we can't recommend it too highly. Especially since it's tailored by Graff, World-famous Graff shirts, like the one sketched here, make wonderful companions for Grafforlon slacks.

which girl has glasses?
BOTH, OF COURSE!

Actually, both pictures are of Dr. Noles' 13-year old daughter who has worn contact lenses 16 hours a day for the past two years. And... she wears dark green tinted contact lenses for swimming and skiing.

A dramatic illustration of the cosmetic and psychological benefits to be derived from wearing contact lenses.

why not send the WHOLE girl back to school?
