MILWAUKEE (UPI)— Businessmen in the Milwaukee suburb of Whitefish Bay were so pleased with the success of the local high school basketball team that they bought 16 wallets, one for each of the players and one for the coach. But when the coach, John R. Plimpton appeared at the school's athletic awards convocation, he discovered that such gifts are forbidden to amateurs by the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association.

As a result, only Plimpton received his award. Eight of the players got theirs after they graduated but the other seven will have to wait till next year—when they get out of high school too.
