

Cuba Faces Red Threat Says Washington UPI Chief

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Lyle C. Wilson, United Press International vice president and manager for Washington, fears there is real danger of a Communist government taking over in Cuba although he does not think Premier Fidel Castro is a Communist. "It would be fatal for the United States to let grow up in Cuba a Communist government," Wilson said Sunday in a speech before the annual meeting of the UPI Texas Editors Association.

Cossack Chorus Due In Lakeview

LAKEVIEW—Sponsored by the Lakeview Lions Club the General Platoff Don Cossack chorus and dancers will appear in Lakeview for one performance on Sunday, November 1, at 3 p.m., on the Arthur D. Hay School stage.

Proceeds from the appearance of this internationally famed group of entertainers will be used for the tennis courts which the club is building at the town park.

The Don Cossack group, all American citizens now, first came to the United States in 1939, and have made several thousand appearances in this country and Canada. They also toured overseas to entertain troops during the war.

Lions Club members have tickets for sale or they can be obtained at the door.

THRIVE ON JIVE.

POLLARD'S HILL, England (UPI)—Youth club leader Stanley Comber said Sunday nearly all of the boys answered a questionnaire form inquiring into their hobbies and interests by writing: "Jiving and girls."

The girls wrote: "Jiving and boys."

ocrats are not about to accept Johnson," Wilson said. He conceded that House Speaker Sam Rayburn may succeed in organizing a "Johnson-for-president club" in every county in Texas.

"But it would be more impressive if he established even one 'Johnson-for-president club' in Pennsylvania."

Wilson said he doubts that the veteran Rayburn can get himself elected permanent chairman of the Democratic National Convention in 1960.

He said he thinks the convention might settle upon Adlai Stevenson as a compromise candidate if the convention goes beyond five or six ballots and that Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri is a likely "alternate compromise candidate."

The race for the Republican candidacy is between Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York with "Nixon out ahead."
