Women's Club Plans Bazaar

BONANZA—Veta Williams presided over the last meeting of the Bonanza Women's Club when plans were furthered for the annual bazaar and food sale to be held on December 5. Dorothy Peterson, general chairman, asked each member to bring an apron and articles for the white elephant and miscellaneous booths. Donna Dixon showed the baby doll which will be given away during the bazaar.

Veta Purvine and Margaret Holliday of Klamath Falls, representing the Red Cross, were present to assist the group in plans for the Baby Beaver Bloodmobile which visited Bonanza on October 22. Representatives of other participating groups were Marcene Holt, Iola Hankins and Mary Noble.

Gertie Dick was welcomed as a new member.

The next meeting will be on November 3 with Doris Schmidt and Donna Dixon as hostesses.

Refreshments were served by Ida Rowcliffe and Florence Horn.

Orions

Mrs. Joe Wachter was assisted by Mrs. Dexter Elliott in entertaining the Orion Club for the October meeting at her home on Pine Street. The meeting opened with devotions given by Mrs. Charles M. Larson.

Following the brief business session quiz games were played and china cups and saucers were won as prizes by Mrs. Pete Stride, Mrs. James Sweatt, Mrs. Myron Murray and Mrs. Charles York.

Refreshments were served from an attractive table decorated in the autumn theme.

Members present included Mrs. Fred Biehn, Mrs. John W. Weber, Mrs. Richard Teater, Mrs. Neil McEachern, Mrs. Jack Paddock, Mrs. Charles Howard, Mrs. Clea Paddock, Mrs. Myron Murray, Mrs. Charles M. Larson, Mrs. James Sweatt and Mrs. Charles York. Special guests were Mrs. Pete Stride and Mrs. Eva Wagner.

Wabeno Council

WEED — Wabeno Council 231, degree of Pocahontas, members enjoyed musical entertainment during the Halloween social held following the regular meeting recently at the White Pine Hall.

Mrs. Sylvia Cardozo, Mrs. Nellie Del Nero, Mrs. Esther Aquila and Mrs. Dorothy Sottana, presented the musical selections.

Mrs. Alma Killingsworth, Pocahontas, reported the excellent performance of the council drill team initiating a new member, Mary Grassi, at the official visit of the Great Pocahontas, Edythe Bixler, on October 15 at McCloud.

Members costumed for the Friday night party meeting in keeping with the Halloween theme and exchanged secret pal gifts. Games completed the evening entertainment.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hazel Coggins.

CARRYALL BAG

The carryall bag in music roll shape is back in favor for fall. Comes in black, navy and bone; is ideal for teen-agers and gals in their twenties.

A FASHION SHOW sponsored by the Church Women's Association of McCloud was presented at the Presbyterian Church social rooms recently by Vivienne's Fabric Shop of Dunsmuir. One of the fashions suitable for a working girl's wardrobe is modeled in this picture by Winona Hitchcock as Vivienne, right, gives the commentary.
