

Two Injured In Mishaps Over Weekend

YREKA — According to reports of the Yreka office of the California Highway Patrol, two persons suffered injuries in a series of five accidents in Siskiyou County last weekend.

Garnet George William Melver, 19, of West Linn, Oregon is in Siskiyou County General Hospital suffering from a serious head injury sustained early Sunday morning when he was thrown from the car he was driving. Hospital reports Tuesday afternoon indicate he is resting comfortably and his condition is satisfactory.

Melver, an employe of the Roes Ower Communications Company, received injuries, when his car went out of control on a curve and rolled over the edge of an embankment, throwing him out. The accident occurred on the Klamath River Highway, three miles east of Fort Goff Creek near Seiad. The car was totally wrecked and Eugene LeRoy Hall, 25, of Happy Camp, a passenger riding with Melver, sustained a broken arm. Both men were taken by Girdner ambulance to the hospital.

A trailer house being pulled by a pickup driven by Norman David Johnson, 63, of Exeter, California, was badly damaged Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock, when it began to whip and overturned 300 feet south of Deer Mountain Lodge on Highway 97. Johnson was traveling south at the time of the mishap. The pickup remained upright, and no one was injured.

A two-car collision occurred in Etna resulting in damages to front ends of both vehicles. Drivers of the cars involved were Edna Faye Musick, 17, of Callahan, and Councille R. Richardson, 59, of Fairfield. Neither was injured.

Fred Inman Taylor, 37, of Medford was driving a truck tractor, pulling a trailer load of terracotta pipe. According to his accident report the rig overturned Friday at 2:15 a.m., seven miles south of Yreka, at the Orr Ranch on Highway 97. He said he was forced off the road by an oncoming vehicle.

The fifth accident reported, also occurred on Friday morning about 1 o'clock when a pickup driven by Harold Van Hoosen of Yreka attempted to pass a truck driven by George Thomas Dunphy of Medford. The pickup was damaged at the right front end when it hit the truck. When the driver was forced to pull back by an oncoming vehicle. There were no injuries.

Petition For Revamping Given Road Commission

YREKA — The normal hearing before the State Highway Commission, relative to the proposed relocation of the highway through Happy Camp was waived Monday by the Siskiyou County Board of Supervisors upon the request of the California State Division of Highways. The action was taken after considering the pros and cons, both verbally and written, as presented by a delegation of seven residents of Happy Camp.

The delegation was composed of those who reside or own property in Happy Camp, with six expressing a favorable opinion on the relocation, and one against it.

Robert Montgomery, one of the delegates, presented a petition to the board, carrying the signatures of 258 persons in favor of the rerouting, wherein Second Street would be bypassed. In the petition, it is stated rerouting would eliminate danger for children who might be injured by traffic which now passes the elementary school, and would also take the logging trucks out of the shopping area.

Opposition to the relocation was registered by C. H. Bohrmann of Gridley whose objections were based on the fact that the new road is at the site of a home constructed by the father of his wife, where the Bohrmann's may decide to live someday.

Robert McKean, Siskiyou County General Hospital administrator, appeared before the board in regard to installing a new telephone system for the hospital. He pointed out that the present system is inadequate to handle the current telephone traffic. Also appearing before the board on the same matter were Floyd Dill, manager of the Yreka Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company office; Paul Henry of Chico, district sales manager for the PT&T, and Robert Walsh, service representative from Redding.

According to McKean, since the installation of the present system, which consists of four lines and 25 stations, the hospital has added a new wing, acquired the services of a full time physician, relocated its pharmacy, and many other additions, all of which overload the capacity of the present system. He said that recently because of power failure, the hospital was without service for two and a half hours.

A proposed new system outlined by Paul Henry, will consist of five lines and 35 stations, designed with an ultimate capacity of nine lines and 60 stations.

The new service would cost $311.55 per month, a $142.10 increase over the current rate, and a basic termination charge contract of $1,590 to be amortized over a five-year period.

The board tabled the request until the next meeting.

4th Speaker To Give Talk

David Rees of the Assam India Mission will be the fourth speaker in the School of Missions being held at Suburban Christian Church Thursday, October 29, at 7:30 p.m. Rees has worked in India since 1953 and is now home on his first furlough. He will show pictures of the mission and will speak on the topic, "The Present Status of Direct Support Missions."

Since Assam Province is surrounded by Burma, China, Tibet, Bhutan and East Pakistan, the mission works with people from all of these countries. Its primary work is establishing churches and training native leadership among the Khasi and Jaintia tribes. A primary school is also operated to teach Christian Education and to meet the requirements of the Indian government.

The School of Missions is sponsored in this area by the First Christian and Suburban Christian churches of Klamath Falls and the Tulelake Church of Christ. The school is a part of the work of the Northwest Missionary Conference which will be held in Eugene, November 12-14.

Portlander Convicted In Dope Case

PORTLAND (AP) — Pralmus Crosby, 33, Portland, was convicted by a federal court jury Tuesday of three counts of an indictment charging sale and possession of heroin.

Chester J. Wolksi, a federal narcotics agent, testified during the trial that he had seen Crosby deliver heroin to Eugene Westbrook, 26, Portland, a government informer.

After the defense had questioned all its scheduled witnesses Ray D. Robinette, the defense attorney, called Westbrook as a hostile witness. He had not been called by the prosecution.

Westbrook told U.S. Dist. Judge Gus Solomon he was afraid to testify because he might be subjected to bodily harm.

Solomon turned to Crosby and informed him that if any harm came to Westbrook, the court would weigh it in arriving at a sentence.

The judge said, "One man was killed, and that's what we are trying to guard against."

He said after one Portland narcotics trial, an informer was murdered.

Crosby assured Judge Solomon he did not mean to harm Westbrook but merely wanted to clear up reports that the man had made false statements.

Crosby based his defense on the argument that he was the buyer and that Westbrook was trying to sell the heroin to him.

The judge ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

FILCHERS NABBED

PORTLAND (AP)—Police were waiting when two 11-year-old girls walked out of a department store Tuesday, each with a beach bag full of merchandise.

The bags contained 119 wallets and such items as trinkets and costume jewelry. The girls went to the juvenile home.

Senator, Mark Confer On Dunes

SALEM (AP) — Sen. Richard Neuberger and Gov. Mark Hatfield conferred briefly Tuesday on Neuberger's new proposal to create a national park in the dunes area near Florence.

The Governor said he was referring the revised plan to his natural resources committee. The Governor and the committee opposed Neuberger's original plan. Neuberger said he told the Governor that the bill could not pass Congress if the governor opposed it.
