PTA NEWS

BONANZA — At the recent meeting of Bonanza Parents and Teachers Club, Howard Roberts, president, introduced his officers, Dorothy Smith, vice president; Louise Horton, secretary; and Violet Brown, treasurer.

Principal Charles Steber presented his teachers, who in turn gave a short history of their teaching experience. On the staff this year are Erma Partridge, Olive Fraley, Jean Angel, Marie Ellis, Jack Morley, Johanna Chapman, Bill Caswood, Mrs. Norman Stratton, Norman Stratton, Jim Morley, Dilard Shipley, Jan Meinhold, Erwin Ellis, Joanna Givan and Charles Doherty.

Room mothers include Violet Brown and Opal Harris, first grade; Louise Horton and Jean Rodgers, second grade; Maxine Brown and Evelyn Seater, third grade; Cassie Ritter and Beverly Roberts, fourth grade; Sharon Eastwall and Dorothy Smith, fifth grade; Bonnie Fernlund and Mary Noble, sixth grade; Margaret Whitlatch and Mary Brouwer, seventh grade; Margaret Burnett and Grace Dearborn, eighth grade.

Committees for the year are: Clyde Wooten, Lois Monroe and Charles Steber, school improvement; Roger Reid and Florence Baldeck, ways and means; Beverly Roberts, food; Margaret Whitlatch and Marie Ellis program; Louise Horton and Cora Leavitt, publicity; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett and Mr. and Mrs. LaVerna Haskins, membership; Jackie Morley and Betty Steber, hospitality.

Refreshments were served by Evelyn Seater and her committee following the colored slides of national parks shown by Mrs. Paul Monroe.

RIVERSIDE — Riverside School PTA held its 1959-60 meeting in the school gym, October 20. Mrs. Julian Eccles, president, opened the regular business meeting with the announcement, "This is a year of the fathers' interest back to the school." meeting. Parents were invited to visit individual classrooms where each teacher explained the present curriculum and what students are expected to learn this year.

With questions in mind, the members and staff returned to the gym, to a panel discussion, with the Riverside teachers and principal Don Golding, answering questions.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Eccles. She made a plea for den mothers for our school Cub Scout troop. Interested persons please call Mrs. Eccles, Mrs. L. N. Barbee was introduced as the new membership chairman. Mrs. Florence Smith, fourth grade teacher, urged parents to encourage their youngsters, once again, to find a theme for the Science Fair. Don Golding reminded parents a written excuse is needed for any absence from school.

Room count was won by Mrs. M. A. Young's first grade and Mrs. Verna Dean Long's fifth grade rooms.

The family dinner night will be held in the Riverside cafeteria on November 6. Carnival type booths will be set up and a bazaar booth will feature many home made articles.

Next regular meeting will be November 17.

ROOSEVELT SCHOOL — The flag salute, led by Mrs. Frank Johnson's Cub Scout Den 7, opened the October 20 meeting of Roosevelt PTA.

Mrs. Frank Tucker spoke to the group on "Living with your Family." Refreshments were served by James Johnson, chairman.

Over The Garden Gate

TULELAKE GARDEN CLUB — Tulelake Garden Club met at the home of Edna Scott Tuesday afternoon, October 20. Co-hostesses were Fanny Ryckman and Gladys Jensen.

Further plans were made for the house to house tour Saturday, December 12. Homes to be toured and committee chairman will be announced later.

A letter was read from the national headquarters at St. Louis stating that Marguerite Bradley, a new Tulelake member, had visited the headquarters while vacationing there.

Roll call was answered by listing a dry plant material suitable for use in a winter arrangement or corsage.

Silver McFall displayed two fall arrangements.

Lois Johnson received the guest prize.

TULELAKE — Mrs. Violet Main has returned from Eugene and Corvallis where she served as a judge for two flower shows. A fall flower show was held at Eugene and the fall flower and mum show was held at Corvallis.

At the latter show, a silver trophy was started in honor of Dr. Krause who has produced so many winners.

Home Extension

POE VALLEY-OLENE HOME EXTENSION UNIT — Mrs. Frank Sullivan and Mrs. Rex High were project leaders for the study on rug and upholstery cleaning at a meeting of the Poe Valley-Olene Home Extension Unit October 13 at the Olene Community Hall. Twelve members answered roll call.

The next regular meeting starting at 10 a.m. November 10 at the Poe Valley Community Hall will include a lesson on beef cooking.

LINDLEY HEIGHTS UNIT — Lindley Heights Home Extension Unit met on October 14 at Maggie Samples' home on Laurel Street. The lesson on rug and upholstery cleaning was demonstrated by Opal Paristotta and Maggie Samples.

Kathryn Billings reported on the recent meeting of the Klamath Basic Civil Service League.

It was decided to have an open meeting in December to feature a lesson on knitting.

The next meeting will be November 10 with Kathryn Smith and Bernice Ducat in charge of the beef cooking project.

Guests and prospective members were Mrs. Vodie Paxton and Mrs. Edna Strunk.
