

BASIN BRIEFS

Furlough — Visiting relatives in Fort Klamath, Chilquien and Klamath Falls is Pvt. Wynn Hecock, U.S. Marines, recently transferred from Camp Pendleton to Treasure Island. He is on furlough until November, accompanied by a friend, Pfc. Darryl V. Casey.

From California — Former Crater Lake National Park employee, Lon Hash and his wife were overnight houseguests last Wednesday at the home of old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Varnum, of Fort Klamath. They went on to visit relatives at Corvallis. They are on vacation from their home at Three Rivers, California, near Sequoia National Park, where Hash is employed as shop foreman.

Sammy Tuxhorn — of New Pine Creek was home for a 24-hour visit last Friday evening. He arrived in Klamath Falls by plane, where he was met by his parents. He is being transferred from Fort Ord to Fort Eustis, Virginia.

To Keno — Mrs. R. E. Marly and her mother, Mrs. Beulah Crabtree, visited recently in Keno with friends.

Young People's — group of the First Baptist Church in New Pine Creek will have a Halloween party Saturday night, October 31, for members and invited guests. There will be a program followed by refreshments.

Lakeview — Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Franklin have sold the "News and Sweets" to Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Graves. The Franklins plan a combined business and vacation trip to Seattle in the near future.

Tickets — have been on sale the past week for the annual Firemen's Ball to be held in the grand hall at New Pine Creek Saturday, October 31. Efficient operation of the department depends largely on money raised from this event.

Kelly Creek — PTA at New Pine Creek is planning a scholarship dinner for November 14. The dinner will be in the Kelly Creek School cafeteria. Proceeds from the project go to the Kathryn Dick Scholarship Fund.

Death — News has been received by friends in Lakeview that Ira McCall formerly of Lake and Klamath counties, died October 12 at Redding.

Willow Ranch — school carnival, sponsored by the PTA, will be held Saturday, October 31. Proceeds from the event help finance the organization's various projects.

OES Social Club — at Lakeview held its annual smorgasbord recently at the Masonic Temple. Approximately 400 people attended.

Construction — will begin on Glenn Smith's new home on the old Earl Hinkle ranch, New Pine Creek. The old ranch home burned last summer. A well has been drilled at the location.

Ill — Mrs. W. L. Bell and Mrs. Beulah Crabtree of Dairy have been ill the past week.

Former Resident — Mrs. John King, who owned the Fashion Shop, now Maxwell's, at Lakeview, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Koop, Lakeview. She was accompanied by her husband. The Kings live at Agnew, California.

Business — took Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bodnar and children of Dairy to Merrill last Monday where they also visited relatives.

Halloween Fun — Boy Scout Troop No. 34 and Cub Scout Pack 34 of Fort Klamath will sponsor a party in the C.I. Clubhouse Saturday, October 31, starting at 6:30 p.m. Prizes will be awarded for games and costumes. Refreshments will be served by leaders and parents. Public is invited.

To Fort Bidwell — Mr. and Mrs. Paddy Kenneally and five small daughters of Fort Klamath spent a recent weekend visiting at Fort Bidwell with his brother and family, the Jack Kenneallys. A recent addition to the Jack Kenneally family is Mary Ann, born October 3, joining an older brother, Johnny. Jack Kenneallys are former Fort Klamathites.

Former Residents — of Tulelake, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson, now of Anderson, were weekend visitors in the Basin. They attended the potato festival.

Visit Father — Mr. and Mrs. Bill Macy and Tommy have returned from Calistoga where they visited Mrs. Macy's father, Dr. Welsh, who is ill, and Mrs. Welsh, Kitty, Corry, and Mike Macy stayed with Joanne Dahle during their parents' absence.

Visit Here — Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wells of Santa Rosa are visiting his brother and family in Klamath Falls. They are former Tulelake residents, having homesteaded here. He was also principal of the Malin High School at one time. They called on old friends in the Tulelake area last Friday.

Thief Errs After Holdup

McKEESPORT, Pa. (AP) — A lone bandit walked into the First National Bank of McKeesport Thursday and shoved a note to the teller.

"Give me all the money in the cage," it read. "If you sound the alarm within two minutes after I leave I'll shoot you and anyone in my way."

The frightened teller stuffed the bag with some $10,500 in cash. The bandit fled. The teller yelled: "Stop that man. He just robbed the bank."

Less than half an hour later, police apprehended Milton Rowell, 32, of Braddock in an alley three blocks from the bank. The loot was found in a brown paper bag inside his shirt.

Rowell, a Negro, made one mistake—he stopped to shave off his mustache and change clothes.

SCOUT NEWS

CUB SCOUTS

CHILQUIN — The first pack meeting of Troop 30 Cub Scouts for the current school year was held Friday night, October 23, at the grade school gym. Ross McIntyre, cubmaster, was in charge of the program which included a group game, a short skit by each of the two dens, presentation of awards, and an inspirational talk.

Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick and Mrs. William Shellabarger's den acted out an Aesop's Fable. A song was sung by boys in the den of Mrs. Donald Cox and Mrs. Lloyd Peters.

Darrell Haas and Charles Kirkpatrick were awarded the bear and a gold arrow went to Charles. Billy Shellabarger, Stanley Lobert and Danny Dye were given their cards and bobcat pins.

Parents and the boys enjoyed refreshments in the cafeteria at the close of the meeting.

Barrel Race Slated Sunday

A jackpot barrel race will be held by members of the Oregon Barrel Racing Association on Sunday.

Races will be held at Klamath County Fairgrounds and will start at 10 a.m. Racing will be finished before the Merrill Rodeo Club starts its roping sessions at 1 p.m. at the fairgrounds.

The workout last Sunday was highly successful with some 10 members with their horses showing up for the practice.

Temperatures in Alaska sometimes reach 100 degrees in the summer months.

Pastor Tells Of UN Role In World

The Rev. M. A. McKinnie, pastor of the Congregational Church, in an address before the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service, spoke on "The Role of the United Nations in a Changing World." The meeting was held in the church with Mrs. Kenneth

Meet Time Set Ahead

Monday evening's meeting of the KUHS Parents and Patrons will start at 7:45 p.m. instead of a o'clock, it is announced by R. Frank Tucker, president.

Willard C. McKinny, principal of KUHS, is having prepared schedules of each class' daily activities. Copies will be given to high school students to take home to their parents.

At Monday evening's meeting, parents will be invited to move from class to class at 10 minute intervals. Room teachers will explain the purpose and aims of each course and general subject matter in order to give the parents an idea of a full school day's schedule.

Student club officers and class officers will be introduced and the hospitality committee will be on hand starting at 7:30 p.m. on Monday evening. The regular meetings of the Parents and Patrons are held in the high school cafeteria.

Dykeman presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Paul Campbell. Mrs. Campbell was in Portland where she was present for the Jurisdictional Conference of the society.

In reviewing some of the highlights of history showing the impact by Christianity during numerous crises and in times of great stress, Rev. McKinnie told his audience that the challenge now is very great in view of current conditions. "The Christians must be faithful," he said, "to

Yankee Girl Sheds Mate

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Two years ago a young Iranian student married an American girl while studying here. Last year he was ordered home by his parents.

His wife Cleo stayed here—because he feared his parents objected to the East-West marriage. Mrs. Sarraf Thursday obtained an uncontested divorce from Hadi A. A. Sarraf. A letter from Sarraf explained that his mother didn't object to the marriage, but his father wouldn't tolerate it.

"He (the father) swears he will divorce her if we stay married," Sarraf said. "I cannot destroy a complete family because of my selfish welfare. I had to sacrifice to avert complete disaster to a family of 10 boys and girls, many of them still young."

the best beliefs of the church, working with the fire and zeal of the early Christians, and, like them, turning the world upside down, if necessary, to establish justice and brotherhood in a world community."

This, Rev. McKinnie pointed out, is likewise the aim and program of the United Nations, working through its various agencies, with the support and backing of concerned people throughout the world.
