College Chapel Setting For Scott-Medley Vows

Price Memorial Chapel, Old College Hall, on the campus of Pacific University was the setting for the ceremony when Patricia Medley exchanged wedding vows with Thomas D. Scott on October 10. Bronze and gold chrysanthemums decorated the altar for the 7 o'clock service performed by the Rev. J. Vincent Crane of the Campus Congregational Church.

The bride, a resident of Hillsboro, is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Medley of Klamath Falls. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Scott of Walla Walla, Washington.

For her wedding the bride chose a ballerina length gown of lace over satin fashioned with all-legro sleeves and scoop neckline. A five point pearl crown held her short bouffant veil and she carried a cascade of golden bronze tulle roses.

The bride's attendants were her two sisters from Klamath Falls. They wore matching frocks of bronze taffeta made with balloon skirts and three quarter length sleeves and carried cascades of autumn colored chrysanthemums. Mary Lou Medley served as maid of honor and Barbara Medley as bridesmaid.

Dr. James Scott of Portland was best man for his brother, Ted Medley, groomsmen, and David Medley, candlelighter, are brothers of the bride.

Jane Gould sang "How Do I Love Thee" with Kathryn Compton as accompanist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Alumni Memorial Room of Old College Hall. Assisting were classmates of the bride at Pacific University. Sandra Trentz served the cake and coffee and punch were poured by Mollie Chaffee and Suzanne Richards.

Church Bazaar Set For Bonanza

LANGELL VALLEY—The Guild of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church met at the parish hall the afternoon of October 22 with Marie Bland, president, as hostess. Final plans were made for the annual turkey dinner and bazaar to be held at the Bonanza School on November 7. Marie Bland is general chairman assisted by Betty Pepple. Serving will be done by the young married women of the church at 6 o'clock.

Madge Monroe and Nancy Milne are in charge of the bazaar and Lula Penner will sell the Christmas cards.

The next meeting will be a Christmas party and gift exchange on December 10.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bland to Madge Monroe, Ruby Brown, Grace Dearborn, Catherine Shaw, Lois Monroe, Lula Penner, Donna Gift, Marie Metler, Beverly Nelson, Sheryl Ruddy, Carolyn Dearborn and Beverly Roberts.

Yreka Rebekahs

YREKA—Highlight of the recent meeting of the Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33 of Yreka, was the visit made by Mrs. Mary Calendar, district deputy president, and Mrs. Olive Wheeler, district deputy marshal. The meeting was held in the IOOF Hall with Noble Grand Mrs. Florence Foster presiding.

During the evening, Delores Landrum was installed as color bearer by the visiting officials.

Mrs. Calendar set January 30 as the installation date for the new officers of the Hope Rebekah Lodge. She also announced that her next official visit to the Yreka lodge is scheduled for February 23, 1960.

An invitation was read inviting the members of Hope Rebekah Lodge to attend the official visit of Mrs. Helen McFarland, president of the Rebekah Assembly, at the Red Bud Rebekah Lodge No. 416 at French Gulf, California, on November 17.

Mrs. McFarland is planning an official visit on November 23 to the Laurel Theta Rho Club No. 99 of Yreka, who have invited the local Rebekah lodge to give its assistance at this meeting.

The evening's events were concluded with the serving of refreshments in the banquet room by Mrs. June Ager, chairman, Mrs. Ellen Sander, Mrs. Ria Manuagh and Mrs. Mae Hartley. During this social period, costume jewelry by Sara Coventry was shown by Mrs. Frances Cunningham.

FREQUENT VISITS at the home of their grandparents, Judge and Mrs. David Vandenberg, are made by Con and his baby sister, Lori Ann, who are pictured with their mother, Mrs. Phil (Sue) Lynch of Lakeview. Young Con is looking forward to his second birthday on November 6. His sister is just five months old. After a short visit with their grandparents this week the young family returned to Lakeview where the other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Con Lynch, also reside. — Photo by Kettler

BETA SIGMA PHI

KAPPA CHAPTER

Kappa Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held the first meeting of the month at the home of Maureen Zacher. Jonnie Vanish was co-hostess. Eve Morey of the Mt. Mazama Toastmistress club was guest speaker for the evening and presented a very interesting program on "Prose."

The second meeting of the month was the "model meeting," held at the home of Katie Vanderhoff with Donna Turner assisting.

Guests for the evening were Darlene Eck, Eloise Shaw, Shirley Tockey, Maxine Patzke, Wilma Bardal, Pat Wilkerson, Ramona Coffman, Pat Beck, Leita Gourley, Lois Tucker and Joann Overen. Joan Hall, a guest transfer from Susanville, was also present.

Following the meeting a "hobo party" convened to a makeshift jungle where "tramps" from all parts of town attended to get acquainted with their new rushees and welcomed them to "hop on the freight" with them.

Manzanita OES

Manzanita Chapter No. 172 held a stated meeting in the Scottish Rite Temple on October 14, with Nina Hall, worthy matron, and William Steiner, worthy patron, presiding.

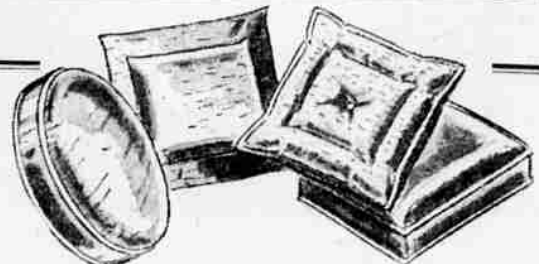

Junior Past Matron Gladys Chubb and Junior Past Patron W. E. Anderson were introduced and escorted to the east and given a hearty welcome. They were then escorted behind the altar by the conductress and associate conductress with the courtesy stars forming an honor guard. Mrs. Ruby Pence sang "Holy Bible Book Divine" accompanied by Arlene Chapman on the piano. The junior past officers then added their names to the Bible, and were presented with bookmarks for their own Bibles.

It was reported that Theima Newtz, a past matron of Manzanita Chapter, had been in a serious car accident and is now recovering at home. Cards may be sent to her at 1435 N.W. 23rd, Portland 19, Oregon.

At a social hour held in the dining room refreshments were served by Vera Fritch, chairman, assisted by La Verne Fitzsimmons, Arlene and Glenn Chapman, Beverly and Joe Green. The tables were attractively decorated with fall leaves and the napkins were in keeping with our meeting as each one had a grace on it.
