Mrs. Stanley B. Brooks is the mother adviser.

SHORT CUT

DETROIT (UPI) — Install a combination washer-dryer on the second floor of your home, rather than in the basement. With the laundry center close to bedrooms, where soiled linen originates, you'll cut needless stair-climbing. Also, with a modern combination unit, you can do the laundry in small batches at convenient times and possibly bypass the all-day washing chore, said Carl Sundberg, partner in a Detroit industrial design firm specializing in appliances.

Massachusetts enacted the first state compulsory school attendance law in the United States in 1852.

SUPPLIES AND SURPRISES are in store for those who come to the rummage sale to be given by the Oregon Technical Institute Faculty Wives on November 6 and 7 at Clyde's Towing Service, 734 Klamath Avenue. Included in the items already on hand are a TV cabinet for father, kitchen and household needs plus jewelry for mother and toys and clothing for children, both large and small. Looking over some of the articles ready for sale is this group of OTI wives, left to right, Mrs. James Armison, Mrs. Howard Rowe, Mrs. Ole Lunde, Mrs. R. L. Madsen and Mrs. A. V. McVey. They ask that for pickups for rummage please call Mrs. Howard Rowe at TU 4-4562. — Photo by Guderian

Siskiyou Cow Belles Hold Fall Luncheon

YREKA — Members and guests of the Siskiyou County Cow Belles gathered at the Shamrock Cafe on Thursday, October 22, for the regular fall luncheon meeting of the organization, with Mrs. Alice Hessig presiding.

Prior to the luncheon, Mrs. Emily Atchley, Yreka, gave an interesting demonstration on arrangements for table and buffet, using various dried grasses and figurines.

During the brief business session, Esther Foulke of Gazelle, publicity chairman, announced that she has received more orders on the Cow Belles place mats, which included 5,000 from the Shamrock Cafe. These place mats were designed by Mrs. Calla Lukes, artist from Etna, who is currently president of the Siskiyou Artists Association. The mats have been used by various cattlemen's associations throughout the state at banquets and luncheons.

Other reports were made by Mrs. Pat Smith of Gazelle, beef promotion chairman and Calla Lukes, fair booth chairman, who announced that the Siskiyou County Cow Belles' booth at the county fair in August was awarded second prize. Mrs. Elma Selby of Scott Valley announced that the Cow Belles had captured a second prize ribbon award for their float in the Siskiyou County fair parade.

Mrs. Hessig announced that memberships in the Siskiyou County Cow Belles are now open. Those eligible are wives whose husbands are members of the Siskiyou County Cattlemen's Association, or affiliate organizations.

Also during the session, the group voted to contribute $15 toward the State Cow Belles' scholarship fund.

Other officers of the organization in addition to President Mrs. Hessig are Mrs. Elma Selby, first vice president; Mrs. Betty Kuck, Montague, second vice president, and Mrs. Pat Martin of Little Shasta, secretary-treasurer.

SOMETHING IN THE AIR

NEW YORK (UPI) — More money is spent on after-shave lotions than any other form of fragrance, including women's perfumes, according to Jan Hansum, general manager of a firm that makes sweet-smelling men's products. Since 1954, new toiletry products for men have mostly been colognes, accounting for 40 per cent of the estimated $9 million dollars in annual sales. These have been bought chiefly by women — as gifts.

DECEMBER 23 has been chosen by Diana Rae Hardman as the date for her marriage to Rodney Lee Gruell. Their engagement was announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hardman. The ceremony will be in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, followed by a reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gruell, 1536 Ivory.

THOUGHTFUL

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wise brides and bridegrooms, according to hotel executive, Robert Howard, won't hold a reception between the hours of 4 and 7 because the dress problem is too complicated; serve hors d'oeuvres that are messy on the fingers; or permit the cocktail hour to run longer than an hour.

CO-PRODUCERS TO CO-STAR

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actors John Dierkes and Rodolfo Acosta have joined forces to produce and co-star in a film this fall in Mexico. The movie, titled "The Bandit," will be shot in both English and Spanish.

WELL-SCRUBBED

NEW YORK (UPI) — Americans take an estimated 300 million baths per week. In addition, they spray, smear and roll on more than 90 million dollars worth of deodorants during the course of a year.
