State Officers Visit Etna Lodge

ETNA—Mrs. Maxienne Porter, a member of La Jijera Parlor No. 282, Inglewood, and grand president of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, recently made her official visit to Eschscholtzia Parlor No. 112. Mrs. Porter was accompanied to Etna by Mrs. Ethel C. Enos, a past grand president and a member of Marada Parlor No. 199, Modesto.

During the evening Mrs. Myrtle Hathaway Parrot and Mrs. Helen Rohrer Crebbin, Yreka, became members of the order by initiation. Mrs. Thelma McNeil, president, presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Porter gave a very interesting talk on the projects of the order and especially stressed the Native Daughters Home in San Francisco. She was presented a monetary gift from the parlor by Mrs. Laura Grossen, deputy grand president.

Barbara Cross, Gladys Dimmick and Dorothy Hayden sang "October's Party," accompanied by Mrs. Minna Horn at the piano.

Mrs. Irene Weston Dawson, a recent bride, was presented a wedding gift from the parlor.

Mrs. Ethel Enos, Mrs. Minna Horn, Mrs. Helen Crebbin and Mrs. Myrtle Parrott each spoke briefly to the group.

Prior to the meeting a potluck dinner was served in the banquet hall. The tables were attractively decorated by Anita Tucker with bowls of autumn flowers and colored candles. The meeting hall was decorated with baskets of flowers by Frances Smith and Barbara Duffy.

Those who came from a distance to attend the meeting were Anna Hammond, Edgewood; Julia Abramson, Elna Henry of Weed; Dorothy Hayden and Shirley Gilmore, Callahan; Sara Luttrell, Laura Wolford, Anna Dunham, Erma Moore, all of Yreka; Mrs. Daisy Sullivan, Montague; Mrs. Anna Calloway, Mrs. Marjorie Cloyd, Joan Baker, and Lucille Spriggle of Fort Jones.

While in Etna, Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Enos were houseguests of Mrs. William M. Smith.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Darlene Schoenewald to Robert Carl Jacobson has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schoenewald of Ashland.

The bride-to-be is a student at Ashland High School. Her fiancé, a graduate of Klamath Union High School, is engaged in ranch operations with his father, Carl Jacobson.

Costume Party Held By Club

YREKA—Autumn leaves, shocks of corn and pumpkins created a festive atmosphere at the Hawkinsville Hall, where the Circle-N-Square Dance Club recently held its annual Halloween costume party with Ken Hood of Medford as the caller.

Approximately 80 persons attended the event in various types of costume. Prizes for the most clever costumes were awarded to Mrs. Darrell Bell and Stan Solus.

The committee in charge of decorations included Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ashcraft, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hester, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Heltema.

NEEDLE CLUB

NEW PINE CREEK—The New Pine Creek Needle Club met recently at the Lakeview Hotel with Mrs. Cora B. Follett, the last remaining charter member, as hostess. Table decorations carried out the "Last Rose of Summer" theme with colorful fall leaves used for background. Gifts were received by Mrs. Bernice Moffitt and Kathryn Dick. Besides the regular business, the hostess read a fitting tribute to the rose and all that it exemplifies to the 14 members present, after which refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Hilda Holt in Lakeview.

We love to assist you in planning your wedding and in selecting your dress and trousseau for the happiest time of your life.

Founders Day Noted By Club

Founders Day was given recognition with a candlelight ceremony at the October meeting of Alpha Delta Kappa held at the home of Mrs. Sam Rife of 1953 Esplanade. Mabel Hanson was co-hostess.

Plans were made by the group to attend other Founders Day activities in Eugene as guests of Kappa chapter.

A clever skit for the occasion was prepared by Betty Boyle, May Phinney, Alice Tronnes, Mabel Hanson and Emilie Haldeman. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostesses.

CHOSEN AS ROYALTY for the recent Welcome Week for Freshmen at the University of Utah was Marilyn Metler, right, who was runnerup to the queen, Suzanne Hubbard. The second princess is Linda Derrick, left.

Klamath Coed Chosen Princess

Pretty blonde Marilyn Lee Metler was chosen a member of the royal court to reign over Freshman Welcome Week at the University of Utah. As runnerup to Queen Suzanne Hubbard, she served as first princess. The third court member was Linda Derrick.

Each living group on the campus selected one girl from among the 2,100 freshmen women to represent it in the contest. After being judged on talent, poise and personality, final selection was made by votes cast by professors of the university.

Welcome Week is designed to help orient freshmen and transfer students. The last affair of the week was a dance after the University of Utah-Brigham Young University football game which featured the music of Jimmy Dorsey's orchestra.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Metler of Klamath Falls. An accomplished dancer after eight years study with Edna Howell, she is studying ballet and majoring in physical education at the university.

Her brother, Eugene Metler, has just returned to the university as a senior student after two and a half years on a Spanish Mission.

Worship Week Topic For Meet

MONTAGUE—"Worship Service Week of Prayer and Self-Denial," was the basis of the program presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Hessig, program chairman, to the members of the Montague Women's Society of Christian Service when they gathered for their October social meeting at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Robinson. She was assisted with hostess duties by Mrs. Cecil Bowman and Mrs. Ruby Stafford.

Mrs. James Walker, president of the society, announced that arrangements for the annual Montague ESCS Bazaar are progressing with all members working and sewing on a large variety of articles that will be offered for sale which is usually held the first Friday in December.

The afternoon's activities were concluded with the serving of refreshments by the hostesses.

Present, in addition to those mentioned were Mrs. John Acord, Mrs. Fred Boersma, Mrs. Harold Coatsney, Mrs. Pearl Conroy, Mrs. Hugh French, Mrs. Laura Jones, Mrs. Sadie Meamber, Mrs. Di Raver, Mrs. Bud Rugg, and visitors, Mrs. A. Lambert and Lois Kirkland.

The home of Mrs. Willard Freeman will be the setting for the next meeting on November 13.

GOOD TASTE

Next time you are preparing salted almonds for a party, try sprinkling them with a little curry powder. Spicy munch!

DELICIOUS SPREAD

Canned shrimp are soft enough to mash with a fork for sandwich fillings. Add the seafood to soft cheddar cheese and mix in a little chili sauce for a delicious spread.

KEEP IT HOT

You can keep drip coffee hot, while you are pouring the water through, by placing the coffee pot on an asbestos mat over very low heat.
