COTTON CLOTHING
NEW YORK (UPI)—A pair of work pants requires 1.5 pounds of raw cotton to manufacture, according to the National Cotton Council. The council also reports that nearly half the garments in Italian fall-winter fashions were 100 per cent cotton.

STOCK PROMOTION
NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Stock Exchange is distributing sales kits to its member firms to promote gifts of stock to June brides and school graduates. The program may help "rescue young brides from a mass of pickle forks," says the Exchange.

UNINVITED GUESTS
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Silverfish and firebrats have not developed resistance to DDT as some other household insects have. Household sprays containing five per cent DDT are effective against these pests, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

SUNNY NOTE

NEW YORK (UPI)—"Take the sun gradually to avoid drying-out precious oils in both your skin and hair," suggests Ellen Noreen Baum, beauty expert. "A little prevention goes a long way," she said, "so be sure to take along a bottle of sun lotion and a scarf for your hair on every beach outing."

MAKING THE GRADE

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Federal grades for beef have stimulated price competition, held down the costs of marketing and contributed to changes in the organization of the wholesale meat industry, reports the Department of Agriculture. Most independent packers, wholesale distributors, and independent retailers, as well as chains, favor either the present voluntary system of beef-grading or a compulsory grading system, according to U.S.D.A. researchers.

Family Laundresses
... at your service!

Sometimes I hear people say the family laundress has disappeared. They just haven't looked far enough.

Here at Cascade we have forty family laundresses. They're the same skillful people who used to do the family wash at home. While their methods are somewhat different, they use the same thoughtful care.

Your clothes come out cleaner and whiter than was possible by the most back-breaking scrubbing in grandma's day. The secret is gentle action and lots of soap and water. Five sudings and six rinsings are used at Cascade.

Cascade laundresses are proud of the professional finish they give to your things. And so will you be.

Our prices will please you, too. For example, five sheets finished to snow-white perfection, just 75 cents.
