NORTHSIDE GARDEN CLUB
Northside Garden Club members meeting at the home of Mrs. Earl Redman on October 23 heard an interesting discussion on chrysanthemums led by Margaret Valk and Iris Georgeson. Slides from the Lehman Gardens of Fairbault, Minnesota, were also shown. It was announced that plants may be obtained from Black's Gardens in Salem and Thompson's in Central Point.

At the business meeting reports were given on the community lounge district meeting in Malin and nominations were taken for district officers.

Christmas workshop was announced for November 24. The district workshop at the city library will be November 25 at which time B. G. Black of Salem will speak.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Earl Redman and Mrs. Ray Keller.

BONANZA

BONANZA—The Bonanza Garden Club met at the library building the afternoon of October 23 for a no hostess party.

Mrs. Henry Schmor was the speaker for the afternoon and talked on winter mulch.

The next meeting will be at the library on November 13, with Mrs. Ross Clark as hostess. Bonanza Club Scouts No. 92 will demonstrate how to make bird feeders. Their den mother is Mrs. Bob Hartley.

Present were Mrs. Walter Ritter, Mrs. Bob Horton, Mrs. Nelson Woods, Mrs. Glen Huifman, Mrs. Oliver Haley, Mrs. Ross Clark, Mrs. Marvin Brown and Mrs. Schmor.

ALTURAS GARDEN CLUB

ALTURAS—The attractive mountain cabin home of Mrs. Pete Weber in Jess Valley was the setting for the October meeting of the Alturas Garden Club. It was a drab day with off and on showers of rain but the cheery atmosphere, the bright fire burning in the fireplace and the aroma of the food for the delicious potluck luncheon made up for the lack of sunshine.

QUICK FACIAL

If you soak in a hot tub, give yourself a quick facial at the same time: smear your face with petroleum jelly. The steam and cream will smooth the skin.

states for war veterans of all branches of the service. Its maintenance and landscaping is a project of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs.

A small donation was also made to the National Garden Club Headquarters Building located in St. Louis.

MT. LAKE GARDEN CLUB

The Mt. Lake Garden Club's regular meeting was held Monday afternoon, October 19. Mrs. Glen Batty entertained the group at her home, assisted by Mrs. William Wales Jr. and Mrs. E. L. Barke. There were 23 members present. Mrs. P. J. Richter was a visitor, and welcomed from the Tulelake Garden Club were Mrs. Robert M. Addison and Mrs. Leonard Meshke.

Mrs. Dick Henzel, president, presided over the business meeting. For roll call members named their favorite herb with a suggestion of how to use it.

Members were invited to a district Christmas decorations demonstration, the date to be announced soon.

Plans were made for a day's fall outing to Blue Creek, with sack lunch, to collect cones and greens for the coming holidays.

Mrs. Will Blackman offered 1960 flower calendars for sale, which are most attractive gifts.

Mrs. Crystel Cheyne, with Mrs. Hugh O'Conner of the Klamath Falls Garden Club recently returned from taking a course in landscape design at the University of California, Berkeley. They were the only Oregonians taking the course.

Mrs. I. R. White announced the theme of the spring flower show will be "On Wings of Spring."

In keeping with the club's prescribed study program for the year, Mrs. Lawrence Mutschen-bacher gave a paper on "Just What is a Lily?" She was introduced by Mrs. Richard L. Fleming, program chairman, who then presented the speaker for the day, Mrs. Oscar Rylander spoke on herb gardens.

An informative herb picture chart made by Mrs. E. C. Schwietzer of Tulelake was shown. Delectable culinary herbs were named and described. The members agreed "the herb garden is truly a magic garden; one of varied and lasting interest."

A Christmas guest tea is being planned for December at the home of the president, Mrs. Dick Henzel.

The next meeting is at the Henley Grange Hall on November 18 at 10 a.m. It will be a Christmas workshop with potluck luncheon. Mrs. Fleming will be assisted by Mrs. Crystel Cheyne, Mrs. George Carson, Mrs. I. R. White, Mrs. Will Blackman, and Mrs. C. H. Kelley. Colorful slides of "lilies" will be shown. All members are urged to attend, and bring their own table service, as well as materials for the workshop.

PTA NEWS

PELICAN
A silver tray, now the permanent possession of Pelican School, was presented by PTA Red Cross blood donor chairman, Mrs. Claudia Moore. Mrs. Marilyn Rose, Pelican donor chairman, graciously accepted this honor for Pelican PTA at the October 21 meeting.

Colorful slides taken on his trip across Canada and Europe were shown by Ernest Balogh. The pictures included famous landmarks and quaint off the beaten path countryside scenes.

Room count awards went to Mrs. Donna Journey's first grade and Ernest Balogh's seventh grade rooms.

Both the special and membership prizes were won by Elton Geil, sixth grade teacher.

CONGER SCHOOL
Dick Wyatt, district executive of the Boy Scouts of America, was guest speaker at the October meeting of Conger PTA. He spoke on the essential needs that go into making a successful scouting program. The secretary was instructed to write each senior student telling him of the available PTA scholarship which was not taken up last year.

Coach Erwin Ellis announced the start of basketball practice.

Refreshments were served by Virginia Hartley and her committee.

The next meeting will be on December 2.

BONANZA

BONANZA — Book reviews by the fourth and sixth grade pupils and a talk by Mrs. Betty Cote, Klamath County librarian, provided an interesting program for the October 28 meeting of Bonanza Parents and Patrons Club. Howrey Roberts presided over the meeting attended by 120 persons.

It was discussed whether or not to have a special music teacher in the school, following the plan of other county schools. Board members LaVern Haskins, Marcine Holt and Frank W. Brown, with Thelma Schmoie, Cassie Ritter and Evelyn Seater of the PTA will form a committee to meet with Carrol Howe, county superintendent, to discuss this subject.
