

WEEKEND PRIZE — H. E. Hastings, local barber, returned from the Ochoco Forest area last weekend with this bull elk, which produced 454 pounds of meat, weighing over 500 pounds after being field dressed. Hastings, who used a .30.06, shot the animal Sunday.

Yesteryear Halftime Antics Make Return

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK (UPI)—There was a time back in the "pep talk" day of college football that a Southern team regarded as "hopelessly outclassed" entertained a rugged foe from the Midwest and, as expected, was trailing at halftime.

The coach of the Southern team—who happened to be a Northern himself—pulled out all the oratorical stops. In a tear-filled drawl he pleaded with his boys not to "disgrace our Confederate heroes lying yonder on the hill."

Fired and inspired, the Southern boys went out and scored an upset victory.

College coaches on the whole insist that these tactics are useless today. They contend that your college boy now is a sophisticated fellow who would give a coach the amused double-O if he used such corny dramatics.

Bob Blackman of Dartmouth is one of the dissidents.

He feels that getting the players "up" mentally is one of the deciding factors in whether a team wins, loses or draws—and is a contributing factor to the "upsets" which mark each weekend's play.

"I don't mean that you have to give them that oratorical corn," Bob grins. "But the college boy of 21 who is playing football is never so sophisticated that rallies and inspirational aids don't have some effect."

What causes the upset? "There are," says Blackman, "a number of factors."

He lists them as:

1. Spirit.
2. Confidence.
3. Experience.
4. Depth of material.

When all of these jell at one time, such things happen as Dartmouth's amazing 12-8 win over Yale last weekend. Dartmouth had lost three games and Yale was not only unbeaten but also unscored upon.

"I felt if we could score early we had a great chance to win," Blackman added. "It would be a great lift to us and a blow to their morale because they were so proud of not having been scored on."

So what happened? Yale had an 8-0 lead going into the second half.

"But we had threatened a couple of times and our kids had confidence that they could do the job," said Blackman, who worked rebuilding that confidence at halftime.

Burney Lions Sponsor Shoot

BURNEY—Plans and arrangements for a public trap shoot have been completed, according to Lou Schroeder, chairman. The shoot will be on the Black Ranch Road Sunday, November 8, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Burney Lions Club has arranged the shoot. It is open to all shotgun enthusiasts. Valuable prizes will be awarded to winners of each event. Refreshments will be served all day.

Proceeds from the shoot will go into the Lions activities fund, for civic and charitable purposes. Burney Lions sponsor the local Cub Pack and Youth Activity Klub (YAKs), assisted financially in sending the FFA group to Kansas City for the national judging finals, and sponsor the annual relay track meet in McArthur each year.

Light leads with 77 passes, and Ferguson is second with 72 completions.

Pete Reiser Gets LA Coaching Job

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Pete Reiser, one of the all-time bargains of baseball, today was named coach of the Los Angeles Dodgers to replace his former Brooklyn roommate, Pee Wee Reese, who accepted a broadcasting job.

Made a free agent from the St. Louis Cardinals organization in 1938 by the late Judge Kenesaw Landis, Reiser was signed by the Dodgers for a $100 bonus. He went on to become the rookie of the year and National League batting champion in 1941 when he led the club to a pennant with a .343 average.

US Team Favorite In Classic

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP)—The United States is only a slim favorite to regain possession of the famed Ryder Cup from Great Britain as play opens today in the international golf classic.

The setting is the new Eldorado Country Club's 6,320-yard course with its dangerous water hazards and par 35-35-70.

On tap in the first of the two days of play were four Scotch foursomes of match play—two players of each team playing one ball and alternating shots.

The top foursome featured Capt. Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff against Britain's Harry Weetman and Dave Thomas.

Leading off were Britain's Bernard Hunt and Eric Brown against Bob Rosburg and Mike Souhak of the United States. Other matches pit Capt. Dai Rees and Ken Bousfield of Britain against Julius Boros and Dow Finsterwald and Peter Allis and Christy O'Connor against the Yanks' Doug Ford and Art Wall Jr.

Idle today, but possible contestants in Saturday's eight singles matches, are Jack Burke Jr. and Jay Hebert of the United States and the invaders' Norman Drew and Peter Mills.

The matches are played every two years, alternating countries, for a trophy established in 1927 by the late Samuel A. Ryder. The British upset the Americans at Sheffield, England, in 1957 for their first victory since 1933.

The winner of each match earns one point.

Burke, whose four previous appearances in Ryder play are second in number for the United States to Snead's six previous, viewed this renewal with apprehension.

"The Americans will have to be the luckiest guys in the world to win. These British players are good—they play as tough a tournament schedule as we do and they play tougher courses."

Dowty, MG Nab 1st Place

Erv Dowty, driving an MGA, turned in the fastest time of 1:05 in the Gymkhana on Spring Street last Sunday. The sport car event was put on by members of the Sports & Imports Car Club of Klamath Falls.

While Dowty was garnering top honors in the men's division, Muriel Heath paced the women by touring the course in 1:12.4.

Next on the schedule for the local sport car enthusiasts is an auto cross slated for the fair grounds next month. The exact date and time will be announced.

Sunday's keen competition featured a three-way first place tie between Dowty, Bob Heath and Don Robin in the Class III sports.

All three hit 1:05 but Dowty prevailed in a runoff.

Other first places went to Fred Muskaff in Class I sports, Gail Osborn in Class II sedans, Ron Friedrich in Class IV sedan, G. Z. Rinehart in Class V sports, and Jim Daniel in Class VII sports.

Young Hunters Need Certificate

YREKA—Juveniles, between the ages of 10 and 16, and who are anxious to go pheasant hunting when the season opens Saturday, November 14, must have a junior hunter safety certificate in their possession before they will be issued a license for hunting.

These certificates are given only to juveniles who have taken the junior hunter safety training course now being offered by the Siskiyou County sheriff's office.

Any interested youngsters should apply before Friday night, November 6, to take this course which will be conducted at the sheriff's office in Yreka. The course usually is a two-hour session, three nights a week.

However, according to the sheriff's office, there must be enough youngsters entering the course before it will be given, and so far, the office reports only four have applied. This is not enough to warrant conducting the course.

BIGGEST TROUT — This 9½ pound, 27½-inch German brown caught in the McCloud River last week by 12-year-old Rod lives, son of Mr. and Mrs. Last, is reportedly the largest trout ever taken from the river.

LSU, Vols Promise Struggle

Syracuse (No. 4) has won all six games while seventh-ranked Penn State has a 7-0 record. Both are being closely eyed by the Orange, Cotton, Gator and newly-formed Liberty Bowl committees. Even the loser of this one should get a bid to one of the above.

LSU, heading for another national title and Sugar Bowl appearance, won't have an easy time with Tennessee (4-1-1). The Vols are a quick, aggressive team that could catch the Tigers (7-0) down a bit after their thrilling 7-0 victory last week over previously unbeaten Mississippi.

If Texas (7-0) gets by Baylor (3-3) then it has Texas Christian to look forward to next week. Coach Darrell Royal's Longhorns have backs Rene Ramirez, Jack Collins and Bobby Lackey in fine shape.

Southern California (No. 6) plays Southern Conference member West Virginia (3-4) in an inter-sectional game in Los Angeles. The Trojans (6-0) and particularly guard Mike McKeever, will be watched closely after last week's alleged slugging incident at California. Southern Cal also will have to watch itself closely after its two squeakers over Stanford (30-28) and Cal (14-7) the last two weeks.

The rest of the top ten action is in the South where Mississippi (No. 5) plays Chattanooga, Auburn (No. 8) tries to keep its SEC title hopes alive against Mississippi State and tenth-ranked Clemson hopes to stay atop the Atlantic Coast Conference against Duke.

The other important Ivy-conference games are in the Ivy and Big Eight. Georgia, the actual SEC leader with a 4-0 mark (LSU is 3-0) plays Florida (2-3-0). North Texas State, the other major unbeaten at 7-0 and heading the Missouri Valley plays independent Louisville.

The three-way tie in the Ivy should be broken after two, Yale and Penn, meet in Philadelphia. Princeton, the other, starts the league's Big Three rivalry against Harvard.

Oklahoma and Kansas, co-leaders in the Big Eight with 3-1 marks, meet Kansas State and Colorado, respectively. The Sooners are trying to start another 74 game unbeaten string.
