Dorris Couple Wed In Reno

DORRIS—Ruth Louise Foote and Harold Robert Porterfield exchanged their wedding vows recently at Park Wedding Chapel in Reno with the Rev. Warren O. Ward officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Foote and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Mary Porterfield, all of Dorris.

The bride chose for her wedding a waltz length dress of white lace made with cap sleeves and scalloped neckline. A pearl necklace, small white hat and corsage of pink carnations completed her ensemble.

Attendants for the couple were the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wall Fotheringham of Merrill, Mrs. Fotheringham was a brown silk organza frock and a corsage of gardenias.

Guests at the ceremony included the bride couple's mothers, Mrs. Joseph Foote and Mrs. Mary Porterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose. Following a honeymoon spent in Southern California, the newlyweds are at home on the J. F. Ranch near Dorris.

Eulalona DAR

Eulalona Chapter, DAR, met Monday night, November 2, at the First Presbyterian Church. "Are we a thankful people?" was the stirring subject of a talk by the Rev. Robert C. Groves, pastor of the church.

The chapter was pleased to welcome as new members Mrs. Norma A. Miller and Mrs. Robert Chilcote. Guests for the evening were Mrs. Anna Bean, Mrs. Ida Grimes, Mrs. Henry Perkins, Mrs. Leola Thompson and Mrs. Will Wood.

Additional copies of "Eastern Oregon Historic Landmarks" have been ordered and will be available in time for that special gift. The popular candy sold by Eulalona chapter is now on hand and was distributed to members Monday evening.

Hostesses were Mrs. Bert Thomas, Mrs. Roland Wright, Mrs. Alfred Coltingham, Mrs. Charles Martin and Mrs. Robert Odell.

The Christmas meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Goeller. Members are requested to bring a suitable gift or warm clothing for children. These will be boxed and mailed to the schools at Warm Springs and Chemawa as most of the children there are unable to return to their homes for the Christmas holidays.

Founders Night Observed By OES

An informative evening was spent in the Scottish Rite Temple by the members and visitors of Manzanita Chapter No. 172, Order of Eastern Star, on October 28. Worthy Matron Nina Hall and Worthy Patron William Steiner presided in the east. Founders Day was observed by hearing the interesting history of the order and its founders, Rob Morris and Robert McCoy, read by Mary Anderson. Nadine Brown and Clea Rowden, both of the air base, were visitors.

The Halloween theme prevailed in the dining room, where tables arranged in the emblematic star, were centered with brightly colored autumn leaves and jack-o'-lanterns. Chairman of the evening was Georgianna Clark assisted by Jim Clark, Judy Louviere, Mary and Gus Vlahos and Esther and Lewis Hodges.

MR. AND MRS. GERALD T. DUNCAN

Nancy Pruitt Is Bride Of G. Duncan In Reno

Park Wedding Chapel in Reno was the setting for the ceremony on October 24 when Nancy Pauline Pruitt became the bride of Gerald T. Duncan. The double ring service was read at 3:15 p.m. by the Rev. Warren D. Ward.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Glodski of Klamath Falls. They and their daughter, Judy, were present for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Duncan of Milwaukie are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a toast colored afternoon dress with matching lace hat and corsage of pink rosebuds.

The couple was attended by the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duncan of Oakland.

A wedding supper at Bundoz followed the ceremony after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Monterey and Carmel. They are now at home at 1419 Grand Street, Apartment 302, in Alameda, California.

The new Mrs. Duncan is a graduate of Henley High School and the San Francisco School of Dental Nursing. She also attended San Jose Bible College.

Her husband served as a jet mechanic with the Air Force in Europe following his graduation from Milwaukie High School. He is now employed by Standard Oil Company.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Hilyard of this city are grandparents of the bride.
