

CHRISTMAS SHOPPERS in Mount Shasta will be delighted with the appealing items which will be featured at the bazaar to be given on November 19 by the Women's Society of Christian Service in the Community Methodist Church. In addition to the sale from 10:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m., a 75 cent luncheon and a $1.50 dinner will be served. Proceeds from the affair will go to church aid and local charities.

Royal Neighbors

A meeting of Friendship Camp No. 9886, Royal Neighbors of America, was held in the Odd Fellows Hall on Wednesday evening, October 28. Past Oracles were honored and escorted to the chairs by Ardele Reeves and Jennine Smith. They conducted the work through the meeting and exemplified the opening and closing drills.

Officers were Kate Hogue, oracle; Lola Myers, vice oracle; Jennie Poole, past oracle; Anna Shafer, chaplain; Martha Baker, recorder; Thelma Colvin, recorder; Jessie Steele, inner sentinel; Anna McCormack, outer sentinel; Ada Barlow, marshal; Alice Hoover, assistant marshal; Kathleen Hepburn, flag bearer; Lillian Rossen, faith; Elsie Longmire, courage; Nelle Motschenbacher, modesty; Frances Killian, endurance; Edna Pinney, unselfishness; Josephine Robinson, Martha Pereau and Dacie Hoover, managers.

Kathryn Smith, musician.

Visitors included Martha Pereau, Polson, Montana; Edith Brown, Los Angeles; Margery Pearson, Francis Zundel, Helen Pace, Eva Frazier and Anna McCormack, all of Medford.

The evening's work and program were dedicated to Recorder Thelma Colvin. She was presented a corsage and handkerchief and all past oracles were given a handkerchief boutonniere.

Mayme Cammock, program chairman, welcomed the visitors. A prayer was given by Anna Shafer, chaplain. Mrs. Shafer also read a tribute to Thelma Colvin. "A friend who just stands by." A reading, "The goblins will get you if you don't watch out" was presented by Ada Barlow. Spooks were Thelma Colvin, Thelma Morris, Alice Hoover and Charlotte Carmichael. "Will a secretary go to heaven?" and "It ain't the goblin who gets the feller gets" were readings given by Mayme Cammock.

A SESSION of a YMCA contract bridge class was photographed this week by Don Kettler. This group has been attending classes for five weeks. Standing in back is Mrs. Dave Richardson who is instructor for the Goren point count system.

Etna Rebekahs

ETNA—The regular meeting of Aureola Rebekah Lodge No. 113 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at Etna was held recently with Laura Grossen, noble grand, presiding.

Visitors, Juanita Evans, district deputy president of District No. 29 and a member of Oro Rebekah Lodge No. 40 of Fort Jones and Atlanta Adams of Atlanta Rebekah Lodge No. 373 of Weed, were present.

An invitation to attend a meeting of Castle Lake Rebekah Lodge No. 6 of Mount Shasta on November 13 when Helen McFarland, president of Rebekah Assembly of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will make her official visit, was received.

The members voted to have a public card party and cake auction on November 7. Appointed to the committee were Clair M. Potter, Laura Grossen, Leatha Palmer and Ada Jordan.

District deputy president Juanita Evans announced there will be a Fraternal Symposium at Weed on November 22 at 2 p.m. conducted by Helen McFarland for Districts 29 and 69. She asked that as many of the officers attend as possible. The meeting will be followed with a potluck dinner.

At the conclusion of the meeting a Halloween party was held in the banquet hall. Refreshments were served by Augusta Rotan, Eleanor Lewis, Laura Grossen and Ada Jordan.

Birthday of Geraldine Facey, Thelma McNeil, Dorothy Orpe, Della Tozier and Eureka Corson were also celebrated.

Bridge Classes Attract Many

YMCA contract bridge classes have been received in this area with great enthusiasm. The present class of 44 members has been in session for five weeks. The classes are held on Thursday morning from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, in the main dining room of the YMCA administration building at 722 Pine Street. Paul Campbell, general secretary of the Klamath County YMCA, announces that other series of these bridge classes will be offered from time to time, to members.

The popular Goren point count system of contract bridge, is being presented by Mrs. David Richardson, who is the instructor. Mrs. Richardson is also director of the Lakeshore Duplicate Bridge Club, which meets every Thursday evening at the city library auditorium.

Planning is under way for a bridge class especially for junior high and high school students, to begin after Thanksgiving. Any student interested in these classes should register as soon as possible with Mrs. Richardson or at the YMCA headquarters front desk.

WON'T SCUFF

Keep children's shoes from getting scuffed by applying a thin, fresh coat of pure, white shellac after they've been cleaned and dry, polish the shoes as usual.

FOAM PILLOWS

Keep foam rubber pillows out of direct sunlight and do not wash them in washing machine or dryer. Pillows should be washed by hand and placed in the shade to dry.

CARPET CHOICE

When choosing a carpet, choose one that expresses the character of your furniture or furnishings, whether they be traditional, modern or casual. Your carpet can coordinate all the furnishings.

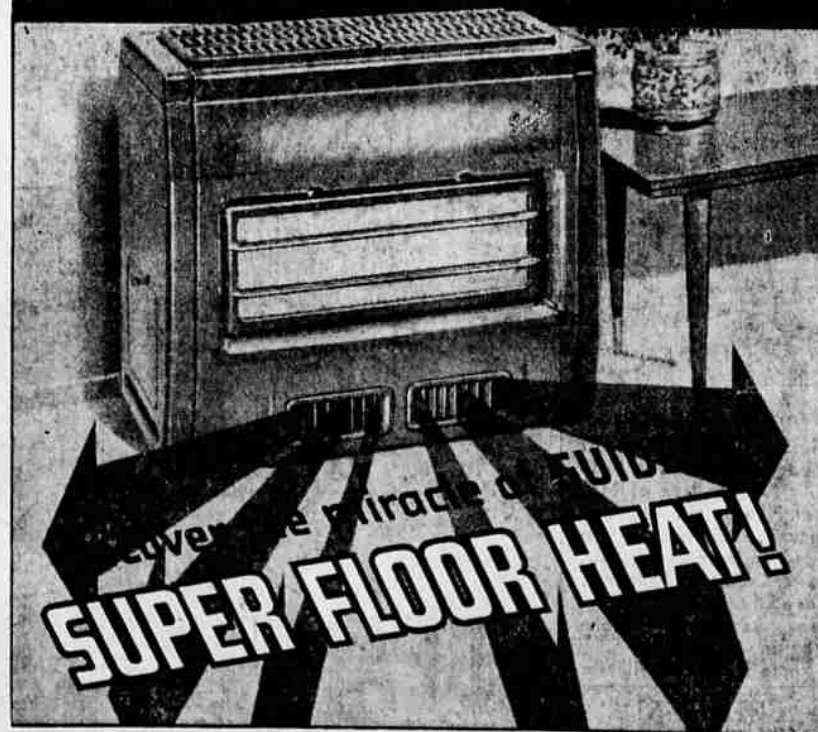

We love to assist you in planning your wedding and in selecting your dress and trousseau for the happiest time of your life.
