Siskiyou Artists Observe Art Week

YREKA—Watercolors, noted artists and their methods of painting were the subjects of discussion and illustrations by film and slides, when Ernest Van Harlingen of Sacramento, appeared as guest speaker before approximately 40 persons at the Siskiyou Artists Association meeting, held on Sunday afternoon, November 1, in the Melody Room of the Yreka Inn. Mrs. Calla Lukes, president, conducted the session.

Prior to the introduction of the guest by program chairman Mrs.

Lucille Townley, a brief business session was held relative to the observance of American Art Week from November 1 through November 7. Local artists drew names of business establishments where they were to exhibit their work throughout the week.

Ernest Van Harlingen, director of West Coast public relations for Grumbacher, Inc., of New York, distributors of fine artist materials, opened his program with the showing of a color sound film, featuring the noted watercolorist and teacher, Rex Brandt. It illustrated three basic techniques of watercolors—the wash method, the wet-in-wet method and the brush line.

The speaker then showed a series of colored slides of noted artists and some of their works, and various scenic settings.

The afternoon was concluded with the serving of refreshments by the committee headed by Mrs. Stell Fisher, chairman.

Beta Sigma Phi

BETA PHI CHAPTER

Beta Phi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met for the second meeting of the month on October 20 at the home of Jean Bingham. Lillian Hayden was in charge of the program and gave an interesting talk on friendship after which the group took part in a discussion.

Details for the pledge ritual were discussed during the short business meeting. Refreshments were served by co-hostess Ima Grow.

Pat Lukes, president, conducted the first meeting of the chapter on October 6, which was a model meeting for rushers at the home of Ena Rodgers.

Guests were Marge Seutter, Rita Backa, Aura Mitchell, Madonna Kalbfleischer, Shirley Bissel, Donna Horton, Shirley Blair, Ruth Drevinany, Barbara Foster, Jo-Anne Gestvang, Holly O'Neill, Lety Hicks and Marian Ackerman.

After a short business meeting, Florence Lungreen, sponsor-director of the group, gave a short talk on the aims and purposes of Beta Sigma Phi and Lillian Hayden gave a resume of the social and service activities of the chapter since its beginning in November, 1955. Questions were then answered by Pauline Connor, rush captain.

"Your Poise and Charm" was the subject for the program in charge of Barbara Kimes.

Prizes were won by JoAnne Gestvang and Barbara Foster. Lois Egger was co-hostess for the evening.

The Marshall Plan was born June 5, 1947, at Harvard University commencement exercises.
