Answers

- No. Our finest citizens and best mates include many actively engaged in civic affairs or in pursuing hobbies.
- No. What could be more boring than a couple that seldom or never disagrees?
- No. Mature love does not require monopolizing a mate's time and interests.
- No. A sensible woman would not insist that he usually accompany her if he dislikes her relatives. An occasional visit, however, might placate everyone.
- No. This adds up to a tolerable but not superior mate. The latter is a good provider, stimulating companion, ardent lover, and well-endowed with masculine traits.
- No. People are entitled to harmless faults, and an understanding mate will not try to remodel her spouse in her own image.
- No. Life is transient. It is not prudent to "put all our eggs in one basket." We ought to have other interests, too.
- Yes. This is unequivocally true.
- No. Men and women are humans, not angels.
- No. It may make her a more interesting and competent wife and mother.
- No. Not everything. Couples need to be away from each other occasionally, and cultivate individual interests.
- No. Mature love permits sacrifice, but not the exploitation or crushing of one's personality by an overpossessive and unreasonable spouse.

Scoreboard

Each correct answer scores 3 points. A score of 30-36 is excellent, and denotes superior understanding of marital relationships; 12-29 implies average to good perception; 3-11 indicates the need for increased understanding of marital happiness.

NO ONE KNOWS MY HAIR IS GRAY!

because I use

CANUTE WATER

I can hardly believe my eyes as I comb this pure, colorless, crystal clear liquid into my hair. Amazingly, and at once, my gray hair begins to color and look young again—just like my own, original natural shade. It's simply thrilling!

I know my lovely new color does not wash off—and is guaranteed against sun-fading. A simple touch-up with Canute Water, about once a month, keeps my hair always young-looking. Permanent waving is no problem! And, since Canute Water is designed for easy home use, my "gray hair secret" is my own.

No skin test required because Canute Water is harmless. Not a single injury in more than 45 years. Only a few cents per application. At all drug stores. For men, too...
