Winner Of Beauty Contest Pleased Over Rig Charges

By EDDY GILMORE
LONDON (AP) — Corine Rottschatter, a blue-eyed Dutch blonde who won the 1960 "Miss World" title by a 5-4 vote Tuesday night, is pleased over charges that the contest was rigged.
"I'm a model and I need publicity," said Corine after her selection prompted walls of protest from the American and Canadian contestants. "Now I'll be able to charge higher prices."
Corine edged Miss Peru, Maria Rossel, 17, to take the crown, which ranks with Long Beach's "Miss Universe" and Atlantic City's "Miss America" in the upper bracket of beauty contests.
Both Loretta Powell of Bridgeport, Conn., representing the United States, and Miss Canada, Hugette Demers, charged that padding was responsible for the 57-inch bust that topped the winner's 22 waist and 37 hips.
They also claimed that Corine is engaged to one of the judges — Frenchman Claude Behr, a beauty contest organizer who sponsored Corine in last year's Miss Universe competition.
"We don't think it right that a friend of the winner should be one of the judges," asserted Loretta,

Local Pupil Wins Award

A Klamath Falls student at Oregon State College has been presented a $500 certificate of award to be used during the remainder of the 1959-1960 school year for study in the field of fisheries.
Recipient is Raymond A. Zalunardo, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Zalunardo, 2301 Radcliffe, Klamath Falls. He was one of seven students in his chosen field to receive such an award. Selection of those to receive the awards was by the faculty of OSC.
Zalunardo lost part of his schooling last year following an accident during the holiday season when he stepped into an open ditch of hot water and was severely burned about the legs. He is studying for a masters degree.

Pilgrimage Set Saturday

A United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth benefit, sponsored by the Klamath Falls Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges is planned for Saturday evening, November 14, in the IOOF Hall. Time will be 7:30 p.m.
This benefit affair is to raise funds to send a boy or girl from this area on the annual expense-paid trip next summer to the United Nations in New York City, a program sponsored by Odd Fellows throughout the United States, deemed by the lodge members as one of the most worthy sponsored within the lodges.
This trip usually follows an itinerary across the United States and Canada to New York, Washington, D.C. and other points of interest.
About one out of every 10 Canadians speaks both English and French.

Refreshments of hot dogs, pie and coffee will be for sale by the Theta Rho girls and members of the Prosperity Lodge No. 7.
