Two Celebrate Anniversary Date

The 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maupin, former residents of the Malin-Merrill area now living in Ashland, was celebrated at a family dinner held Sunday afternoon, November 1, at the Malin Community Hall. A reception followed the dinner for friends to drop in to give their best wishes to the longtime married couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Maupin were married in Olathe, Kansas, on October 30, 1899 and came to Oregon in 1905. Charles Maupin had a homestead in this area where they lived about 36 years. They have been residents of Ashland for the past 19 years.

Sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Maupin are Mrs. John (Bess) McCulley, Malin; Mrs. Mary McAuliffe, Malin; Raleigh Maupin, Klamath Falls; Clarence Maupin, Ashland; and Evan Maupin, Shady Cove, Oregon. All but Evan Maupin were present at the anniversary dinner.

District Officer Visits Auxiliary

MERRILL—A special meeting of the Merrill American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 80 was called recently by the president, Mrs. Walter Moore, at the home of Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. Helen Anthony, president of District 4, made an official visit.

Following the closing of the business meeting, Mrs. Anthony led a discussion on various phases of the American Legion Auxiliary program.

Gifts were donated by members for the Christmas gift box which was sent to the veterans hospital at Roseburg.

A subscription to the Legislative Bulletin was ordered by the unit. A one year subscription to Reader's Digest was purchased for the Roseburg hospital.

Two new pieces of hospital equipment were received from the Klamath Falls unit as a share of the result of magazine sales.

Mrs. Paul Lewis, representing the Merrill unit, presented a gift to Mrs. Anthony.

TOUCH OF FUR

Fur touches are everywhere this year. They're on dresses, coats, suits, hats and even at the hemline of evening gowns.
