Lions Auxiliaries Host State President

Mrs. Dana Shelton, president of the Oregon Lions Club Auxiliaries, and Mrs. Dan Dwyer, director of District E, were guests of the Klamath Falls Lions Club and Ladies of the Toketee Lions auxiliaries on November 12 at a dessert meeting at the Winema Hotel.

Mrs. Shelton, whose home is in Cutler City, Oregon, accompanied by Mrs. Dwyer of Medford, had visited several clubs in Southern Oregon earlier that week.

In addressing the members, Mrs. Shelton spoke of the fine work being done with blind children at the School for the Blind in Salem and the part the auxiliaries share in participation at the summer institute. Mrs. Shelton also stressed the importance of working in close cooperation with the Lions Club. A donation of $25 was voted to be sent to the hospital survey fund.

The winner of a special prize donated by Mrs. N. S. Hepburn, was won by Mrs. Ellis Oakes.

Mrs. Don Nolan announced that candy had arrived and is now available to all members. Proceeds of the sale will go toward the eye conservation and underprivileged children's programs.

The Christmas party will be held on December 14 at the home of Mrs. James Olson. There will be a sale of cookies in addition to the gift exchange. Those not wishing to bring cookies may offer some other item for sale.

Zuleima Nile Luncheon Meeting

TULELAKE—Zuleima Nile Club held a luncheon meeting Thursday, November 12, at the Sportsman's Hotel. Ruth Rodenberger presided at the meeting.

The group made plans to send a Thanksgiving box to the Mexico City Shrine Hospital.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party to be held December 3 at the Sportsman's Hotel. Husbands will be invited to the dinner party at 7 p.m. Nile Club members of other Nile Clubs and their husbands are also invited.

The Christmas box will be sent to the Portland Shrine Hospital. The women are to bring a toy for the husband's gift exchange, which will be forwarded to the hospital. The group has also purchased 60 pounds of candy for the box.

We love to assist you in planning your wedding and in selecting your dress and trousseau for the happiest time of your life!

Panel Discussion Heard By Sorority

Hostesses to the November 7 luncheon meeting of Alpha Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, were Clara Carlson, Marie Johnson, Eva Burkhalter, Lois Evans and Rose O'Leary.

The program consisted of a panel discussion, "Spiritual Enrichment Through the Arts." This was introduced by Dorothy Adams, second vice president, acting for Helen Hoffman, first vice president. The panel was moderated by Ruth O'Brien who spoke on the wider concept of the arts. She was followed by Lillian Brandt and Martha McLaughlin who gave a demonstration of their work in ceramics and advocated their work for spiritual enrichment. Cleo Lowery spoke about the pictorial arts in a very charming and amusing manner, and Leola Thompson spoke upon creative writing as another means of spiritual enrichment.

In the business meeting conducted by the president, Marguerite Parker, reports were given on the forthcoming rummage sale by Lillian Brandt, chairman, and on scholarship by Gladys Owsley. Edna Fletcher reported on trends, modern and old, in teaching.

WARMER

Wool is warmer after it is properly washed and dried. The fibers fluff up and actually provide more insulation against the cold air.
