Janice Glenn Is Bride In Baptist Church Rites

Gladioli and carnations decorated the First Baptist Church on October 25 when Janice Sue Glenn became the bride of Leroy F. Daulton. The candlelight service was read at 2:30 in the afternoon by the Rev. E. M. Causey.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville L. Glenn and Mrs. J. A. Mullins are parents of the bridegroom. All are of Klamath Falls.

Orville Glenn gave his daughter in marriage. The bridegroom was of eggshell satin and tulle. Floral medallions of lace edged the deep vee neckline of the long sleeved bodice. The full skirt was fashioned of satin to the hipline where a double row of lace medallions bordered the top of the wide floor length flounce of finely pleated tulle. A small shell cap held the long circular veil. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls. She carried white rosebuds tied with lace streamers on a white Bible.

An orchid dotted Swiss frock was worn by Mrs. Sam Cannon, matron of honor. She wore white flowers in her hair and carried a bouquet of orchid and white carnations. Mrs. Clifford Totten and Mrs. Russell Melton, the bride's sister, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of pink brocaded tulle, white flower headpieces and carried pink and white carnations.

Sam Cannon served as best man and ushers were Russell Melton and Michael Schmeck.

Mrs. Gerry Casey was organist and Mrs. Vivian McKeehan, the soloist.

In the receiving line with the newlyweds at the reception in the church parlors were their mothers. Mrs. Glenn wore a blue lace dress with beige accessories. Mrs. Mullins chose a light gray suit and white accessories. Both had corsages of pink and white carnations. Mrs. Richard Palone served punch and Mrs. Andy Catehee poured coffee. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Jackson. Leretta Glenn, the bride's sister, was in charge of the guest book.

Following the reception members of the two families gathered at the home of the bride's parents for a buffet supper.

The new Mrs. Daulton is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and her husband of Tulelake High School. He is employed at Dant and Warnock Moulding Company in this city where they will reside at 2033 Darrow.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Florence McCollum of Bell, California, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and sons of El Monte, California; Mrs. Bob Smith and daughters, Downey, California; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Parker, Monroe, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mullins and daughters of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mullins, Eugene, grandparents of the bridegroom; Mrs. Jeff Taylor and children of Tulelake.

The bride was honored prior to her marriage at a wedding shower given by Mrs. Richard Palone and Mrs. Fred DeVine. A similar party was given by Mrs. Michael Schmeck and Sylvia and Doll Massey.

MRS. AURELIA SBARBARO, seated, was honored at an open house at the Genova Hotel in Weed on November 8 in celebration of her 80th birthday. Weed Resident Marks 80th Year

WEED—Over 500 friends, Sunday, November 8, wished happy birthday to Mrs. Aurelia Sbarbaro on the occasion of her 80th birthday anniversary of November 10.

An open house birthday party was held at the Genova Hotel in Weed for the invited guests who called during Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Sbarbaro has been a resident of Weed since 1914, moving here from McCloud. She came to America in 1903 from Italy with her husband, Camillo, who died in 1944. They owned and operated the Genova Hotel, which is still in the family ownership.

Present at the birthday celebration and honoring their mother were two sons, Louie and Anthony of Weed; and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Cardellini, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Emma (Charles) Capifoni, Mount Shasta. A sister, Mrs. Clorinda Sbarbaro, Weed, attended the party also.

TURKEY

How big a turkey do you need for the holidays? Determine the size by the number of persons to serve. For each serving, allow three - fourths to one pound of ready-to-cook weight if the bird you buy is less than 12 pounds. If you buy a larger bird, you can allow a half to three-quarters of a pound per serving. The larger the bird, the meatier it is.
