ETNA REBEKAHS
 ETNA — The regular meeting of Aureolia Rebekah Lodge No. 111 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was held Thursday evening with Laura Grossen, noble grand, presiding.
 Members discussed a letter concerning the Odd Fellows and Rebekah float, Tall Tale, for the Rose Parade in Pasadena on New Year's Day.
 Another letter for the American Field Service of the Scott Valley Chapter was received.
 Officers for next term were nominated.
 The members voted to have a Christmas party on December 10 and invite the Odd Fellows. The committee appointed for the Christmas party includes Thelma McNeil, Geraldine Facey, Claire M. Potter and Laura Grossen.

Reports Made To Auxiliary
 DUNSMUIR — Mrs. Signa Ahlstrom reported at the last meeting of the Epps Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary that the unit had completed all the requirements of the Department of Rehabilitation. Christmas gifts amounting to $159 have been sent to the Veterans Hospital in Palo Alto. These gifts are all new and are not less than $3 per gift. Sewing for the hospital will start soon.
 The unit's special Christmas donation to the department for child welfare, education, and rehabilitation has been completed.
 District President Lillian Elder will visit the unit at the December 3 meeting at 7:30 p.m. It is requested that all members attend.
 The poppy seals have been received. Proceeds from the poppy sale goes to education of veterans children.
 Department officers will be guests at the district meeting to be held December 6 at Mount Shasta. They will bring up many important works of the legion and auxiliary.
 Plans have been made for a silver tea to be held in Dunsmuir Saturday, December 12, from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. All proceeds will go for rehabilitation.
 There will be a potluck dinner following the tea. The dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. for the legion, auxiliary, and their families. A Christmas party with the exchange of gifts will follow.
