BONANZA GARDEN CLUB — The Bonanza Garden Club met at the library the afternoon of November 13 with Mrs. Elsa Clark as hostess.

After the short business meeting den mother Mrs. Virginia Hartley asked two Cub Scouts to demonstrate two kinds of bird feeders. Several members requested the boys to make feeders for them.

The next meeting of the club on December 11 at the home of Mrs. Virginia Hartley in Dairy will be the Christmas party with a dollar gift exchange.

Members voted to have a card and dollar shower at the next meeting for a charter member, Mrs. Lizzie Schmor, who has moved to Turner. Any friend who wishes to contribute may do so and the cards will be sent to her after the Christmas meeting.

Refreshments were served to Virginia Hartley, Willadean Hall, Betty Rodgers, Elizabeth Bell, Sarah Michael, Alyce Haley, Louisa Horton, and Evelyn Woods. Mrs. Toni Holden was a guest.

MT. LAKE GARDEN CLUB

MT. LAKE Garden Club met in the Henley Grange Hall Monday, November 16, for a Christmas workshop. The making of della Robbia wreaths was demonstrated by Chrystal Cheyne, chairman. She was assisted by Mrs. C. H. Kelly, Mrs. Will Blackman, Mrs. L. W. White, and Mrs. George Carson, who brought quantities of varied materials for the members to use. Many lovely articles for holiday decorations were made during the morning by 22 members.

A new member, Mrs. Odessa Williams, and guests Mrs. P. J. Richter, Mrs. Earl G. Kerns and Sidney Kerns were welcomed.

A polka luncheon was served at noon by Mrs. R. L. Fleming, assisted by Mrs. Oscar Rylander and Mrs. Odessa Williams. A Thanksgiving prayer was read by Mrs. Jay Fairclough. November birthdays of Mrs. W. C. Bailey, Mrs. C. Braga, Mrs. Will Blackman, and Mrs. Jay Fairclough were honored.

A fall buffet arrangement by Mrs. Will Blackman and a Thanksgiving centerpiece by Mrs. Oscar Rylander were admired.

President Mrs. Dick Henzel conducted the afternoon business session. Mrs. Robert Bryson asked members to save coffee lids as a money project. Mrs. Will Blackman again offered attractive flower calendars.

Date for a Christmas tea, to be held at Mrs. Henzel's home, was set for Friday, December 18, from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Members of garden clubs in this district are to be invited. Mrs. Albert O. Roenick was appointed food chairman. The members will decorate the rooms as a Christmas project, directed by Mrs. C. H. Kelly, chairman, assisted by Mrs. L. W. White, Mrs. Will Blackman, Mrs. J. G. Baty, Mrs. C. Cheyne, Mrs. J. Fairclough and Mrs. R. Fleming.

The membership voted to participate in Operation Santa Claus for the Moose Lodge again. The work day will be announced by district director, Mrs. Scott McKendree.

The club voted to contribute to the community hospital survey fund.

Moving pictures of Western birds and wildlife were shown by Mrs. L. Motschenbacher, bird chairman. Mrs. Earl G. Kerns, Farm Bureau member, showed movies of an OTI scholarship tea held last year.

The showing of colorful slides of trumpet, regal and croft lilies from the Leslie Woodruff Fairyland Lily Gardens at Harbor closed the program.

A Christmas corsage prize was won by Mrs. Odessa Williams. The next meeting will be a Christmas party and gift exchange on December 14 at the home of Mrs. L. W. White.

MERRILL SCHOOL

MERRILL—Plans for two money making projects were discussed at the November meeting of the Merrill Parent-Patron Association held at the Merrill Grade School.

A pop bottle drive, chairmanned by Jim Chance, was held on Saturday, November 14. A total of $41 was netted from the drive. First prizes were awarded to Karen Chapman and Linda Chance.

GUEST SPEAKER for the December 7 meeting of KHS Parents and Patrons will be Mrs. Joy Hills Gubser of Salem. As assistant superintendent of public instruction in the department of education of Oregon, Mrs. Gubser is well qualified to speak on the communities' responsibility in the education of its children. R. Frank Tucker, president of the Parents and Patrons, urges all parents and interested persons to attend this meeting which will be held in the cafeteria at 8 p.m.

for collecting the most bottles. Second place winners were Bobby Trotman and Johnny Walker.

A food sale was planned for November 24, with proceeds to go to the hospital survey fund.

It was also announced that the 1959-1960 PPA membership drive was started on November 16.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. D. H. Baird, president. Room count award was won by the second grade, Mrs. Lucille West, teacher, and third grade, Mrs. Janis Katon, teacher.

FAIRVIEW SCHOOL

Joe Scaries was the guest speaker at the November meeting of the Fairview PTA. His subject was civil defense. A film was shown depicting the results of the atom bomb on the people of Hiroshima.

The meeting was preceded by room visitation for all parents. A Thanksgiving theme was carried out in the art work exhibited by the students in each room.

This was the first of two evening meetings during the year.

The flag salute was led by the PTA officers and Robert Mezger read the PTA prayer. Mrs. Sanders' room won the membership prize, and Cecile Vandenberg's room won the room count with 100 per cent present.

Mrs. Florence Ollman, the principal, announced that the Christmas program would be December 2 and 3. She also announced that of the 19 students to be initiated into the Honor Society at Fremont School eight were from Fairview.

William Canton, institutional representative of the Boy Scout Council, gave his report.

Bill Milne introduced the speaker for the evening.

Special prize was won by Mrs. H. F. Smith. The mothers of May Pinney and Cecile Vandenberg's rooms served as hostesses for the evening.

Little Theater Group Formed

MOUNT SHASTA — The Mount Shasta Little Theater organization was completed at a meeting recently in the high school library. Chosen as a name for the group was Starmakers.

Officers elected are Mrs. Rilla Peterson, Mount Shasta, president; Mrs. Marie Rosean, Weed, vice president; Mrs. Jack Tucker, Mount Shasta, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Roberta Reynolds, Dunsmuir, recording secretary; Mrs. Gladys Jensen, Mount Shasta, treasurer; William diCristina, Mount Shasta, business manager; and Mrs. Argyll Adams, Dunsmuir, publicity director.

All interested adults are invited to join. Annual dues are $3. Production will begin about February of next year.

All officers and most members have had theatrical experience. Some have performed professionally. Besides those now enrolled, there are several singers and musicians residing in the area who will be asked to lend their support to the entertainment.

The Mount Shasta Soroptimist Club sponsored the Little Theater movement.

BEAUTY TIP

If your features are large, wear your hair in loose waves to balance and soften the severity of your features. A wave on one side of the forehead will also diminish the width across the top of your face.
