Study Class Meet Told

The Bible study class of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service met in the church parlor Thursday, November 19, with Miriam Smyth, leader. A copy of the text, "A Serious Call to a Devout and Holy Life," by William Law, has been purchased for the church library as a memorial to Mrs. Edna Kent, who died this year.

A salad luncheon was served at noon by the Linda Gragg Circle. Following the business meeting at 12:45 p.m. a program was presented by Mrs. Glenn Funderburger and Mrs. Florence Dale, on "Social Creeds and Moving Populations."

Guest speaker was Dr. Dallas McNeil, pastor of the First Methodist Church, who gave an informative review of the "Social Creed of the Methodist Church," an official pronouncement by the General Conference of the church.

Interesting reports were given by Mrs. Paul Campbell and Mrs. Ralph Ovgard of the recent jurisdictional conference held in Portland. Many speakers of note from the division office were on the conference program. Of special interest to Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Ovgard was meeting Elizabeth Carlyle, a retired missionary for whom one of the local circles is named.

Mrs. Campbell also made the conducted tour of the Linnton Community Center, which serves the St. John Industrial area of Portland.

NEW ARRIVALS—The Reverend and Mrs. Charles A. Rader and family have arrived from Vallejo to minister to the congregation of the Dorris Assembly of God Church. Left to right are Danny, 6, Mrs. Rader with Beth Ann, 3, on her lap, the Rev. Rader and John, 4 years old.

Evangelist Sets Series

NEWELL—Evangelist Phil Shuler, Pasadena, will hold a series of evangelistic services at the Baptist Church here beginning November 30 and continuing through December 6.

All weekday services will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sunday services will be at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Special musical numbers by the evangelist and local talent will be featured during the crusade.

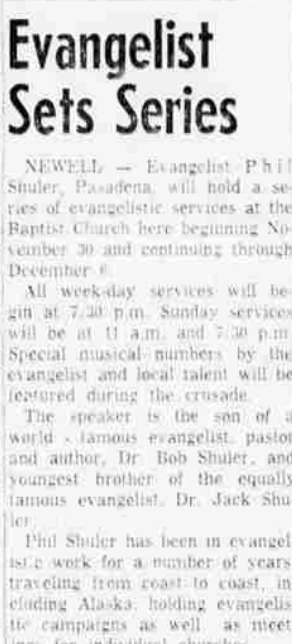

The speaker is the son of a world-famous evangelist, pastor and author, Dr. Bob Shuler, and youngest brother of the equally famous evangelist, Dr. Jack Shuler.

Phil Shuler has been in evangelistic work for a number of years, traveling from coast to coast, including Alaska, holding evangelistic campaigns as well as meetings for individual churches.

The public is invited to attend the services by the pastor of the Newell Baptist Church, the Rev. Howard W. Roth.

The church is located in the Newell township eight miles south of Tulelake and one block east of the highway.

The United States has more than 15,000 veterans.

EVANGELIST PHIL SHULER

Dedication Rites Held

ALTURAS—The Seventh Day Adventist Church recently dedicated a cannery at Orland to be operated by the church to provide needy Navajo Indian Reservation residents in Arizona and the needy in Korea. The organization will also assist needy families in the Orland area with canned food and articles of clothing. Elder George Sims who pioneered the Seventh Day Adventist Church work in Modoc County, is author of this welfare plan.

Elder Sims and Mrs. Sims labored in Alturas and Cedarville where they have many friends and some relatives.

Surplus food is obtained by members of the congregation in the Orland region, Gridley, Paradise and Placerville areas.

The next project of the congregation is to raise $100 to purchase a license to can vegetables other than tomatoes, the only vegetable which can be canned at the present time.

The wood ibis is a gregarious creature and feeds as well as nests in large flocks.

Senior Citizens Party Planned

A party for senior citizens of the Klamath Falls community is planned for Wednesday, December 16 at the Young Men's Christian Association headquarters. The hours will be from 2 to 4 p.m.

The affair is sponsored by the Klamath Basin Council for the Aged. Senior citizens include those 50 years or older.

Ministers of the Klamath Basin will announce the party to congregations.

A program of games and entertainment and refreshments is planned.

Leadership Schools

Christian Endeavor Union and Societies officers will attend schools of leadership in three areas in Oregon Friday and Saturday, November 27-28.

Those attending from Klamath Falls will meet in the Christian Church in Redmond.

YREKA FAMILY PAYS 3¢ AN HOUR FOR CLEAN, SAFE ELECTRIC HEAT

Earl House, Yreka barber, made a careful study of heating costs in his 1560-square-foot home. He discovered that ELECTRIC HEAT is "cheaper than anything I've ever had."

In Mr. House's own words:

"We keep the house just the way we like it—72 to 75 degrees—at a cost of just 3¢ per hour during the coldest months. Our total heating bill was just $21.00 for the coldest month of the year."

Mr. House also likes the convenience of electric heat:

"You just turn a button, set it, and forget it," he says. "You can regulate the rooms just the way you want them. The heat is always there, and it's safe. There isn't anything about electric heat I'd change. If I were to build again tomorrow, I'd have exactly the same heat."

Like Mr. House, you and your family can enjoy the safety, convenience, and economy of clean electric heat. For complete information, or for free engineering help in installing an electric heating system, call your COPCO office or see the dealer or contractor displaying the Cal/Ore Electrical League Emblem.
