

A SILVER CHRISTMAS TEA will be given for the Sisters of Sacred Heart Academy on December 13 at the officers club at Kingsley Field. Air Force mothers of academy students will be hostesses from two until four o'clock. The committee in charge met this week to formulate ideas for decorations. Seated, left to right, are Mrs. Lorraine Huettl, Mrs. Lillian LeMay, and Mrs. Barbara Edwards. The latter two are co-chairmen for the tea. Standing from the left, Mrs. Barbara Tiernan, Mrs. Flora Rawlins, Mrs. Shirley MacEachen and Mrs. Polly O'Connell.

—Photo by Sgt. Charles Bennett

DECORATIONS was the project for this committee of Sojourners who met November 15 at the home of Margaret Rusk, 181 Dahlia Street. These stars will add to the glitter of the holiday decorations for the Sojourners annual Christmas party on December 9 at the Willard Hotel. Left to right are Kathleen Vergeer, Margaret Rusk, Eldine Judd and Dorothy Neet.

Two Take Vows At Church Altar

Josephine Bosmans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bosmans of San Antonio, Texas, became the bride of A.C. Thomas E. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Larson of Bend, on November 14 at St. Gerard's Catholic Church in San Antonio. The Reverend Thomas Duggan celebrated the nuptial mass.

The bride chose a wedding gown of lace with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and long tapering sleeves. The bouffant tulle skirt was appliqued with jeweled lace motifs. The back skirt, with a bustle over tiered lace, billowed into a chapel train. A queen's crown of orange blossoms held her illusion veil and she carried white orchids.

Gloria G. Villarreal and Mrs. Gloria Smith were honor attendants. Bridesmaids were Margaret Bosmans, Frances Aguilar, Mary Torres, Gloria Bosmans, and Frances Bosmans. Mary Eloise Garza and Sammy Armstrong were flower girl and ringbearer.

Larry Larson was best man and groomsmen were George Desvouses, Robert Gutierrez, Conrad Lesniak, William L. Harper and Ronald Larson. Gilbert and Lee Villarreal Jr. were ushers.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the Kelly AFB

NCO club ballroom. The young couple will reside at 534 Grigsby Street in San Antonio. The bridegroom was graduated from Gilchrist High School in 1956 and is now stationed at Brooks AFB in San Antonio.

ETNA WOMAN'S CLUB

ETNA—The Etna Woman's Club had a social evening and potluck dinner recently in the Masonic Hall. Verna Lukensmyer presided at the meeting. They were entertained by several musical numbers. Lonnie Manning of Yreka sang a solo and then a duet with Thurnace York. Wesley Bowen, organist for Youth for Christ Movement, was the piano accompanist.

A WHITE TURKEY was crowned as the "Harvest Queen" at the annual Sacred Heart Bazaar card party on November 13. Earl Blankenship, left, was awarded the bird as a special prize during the evening. Mrs. Otto Smith, right, was general chairman of the party.

—Photo by Charles Van

Many Attend Bazaar Party

A harvest theme was used for decorations for the successful Sacred Heart bazaar card party held Friday, November 13. Prizes were given at each of the 72 tables of card games. A special prize of an arrangement of artificial flowers done by Mrs. Hugh O'Connor was won by Mrs. Othilda Mattes.

The crowning of "The Harvest Queen," a white turkey, was the highlight of the evening. This was a special surprise prize donated by Mrs. Joe Heiderer and won by Earl Blankenship.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Dick Miller Sr., Mrs. Junior Wagner, Mrs. John Raffetto, Mrs. Dan O'Leary, Mrs. John Kennedy and Mrs. William McCroskey.

Mrs. Otto Smith was general chairman of the affair. Her committees included Mrs. Joe Heiderer, decorations; Mrs. John Kennedy, prizes; Mrs. William Bishop, reservations; Mrs. William Ely and Mrs. John McAndrews, telephone; Mrs. Lawrence Amberg and Mrs. C. J. Schmitz, refreshments; Mrs. B. H. Cavanaugh and Mrs. Homer Brown, publicity; Mrs. William Heilmann, tables; Mrs. Hobart Rawlins, serving; and Mrs. Ted Rose, posters.

Two Take Vows In Home Rites

ETNA—Loretta Ann Henderson McNeal and Richard Cupp of Sacramento exchanged wedding vows at the Lee Bogue ranch home on Saturday evening, November 14. Pink, yellow and white artificial roses made by Mrs. Bogue decorated the fireplace for the double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Orval Clay.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose for her wedding dress a pale mint green sheath with nylon overskirt. A rhinestone tiara held a shoulder veil and she carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Carolyn Ayres, bridesmaid, wore a blue princess style frock with white accessories.

James Bogue served as best man.

At the reception following the ceremony a four tiered wedding cake was cut and served by the newlyweds to their guests.

The young couple will make their home in Sacramento.

ATTENDING Pasadena College at Pasadena is Beverly Ann Houston, who received the President's Scholarship of $1,000. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Houston of Dorris and was graduated in 1959 from Butte Valley High School. At that time she received the Bank of America, Fine Arts award and C.S.F. life membership award.

—Photo by Guderian

Clipper Club Meets In Etna

ETNA—Mr. and Mrs. Bears Dillman, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tuttle Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Towne were hosts recently for the Scott Valley Clipper Club at the Methodist Church.

Skippers Mr. and Mrs. Hooper Mapiesden conducted the meeting with the purser and quartermaster, Ed and Betty Eames, taking part.

The group voted to send $20 for CARE packages again this year and to assist local needy families for Thanksgiving and Christmas. A pledge of $30 was also made to the Foreign Exchange Student Fund with members making personal donations as well.

Dr. and Mrs. G. P. Ashcraft furnished the entertainment by showing pictures of their European summer tour.

BETA SIGMA PHI KAPPA CHAPTER

Kappa Chapter held the first regular meeting for November at the home of Charlotte Pierce. Marie Vanderhoff was co-hostess for the evening.

It was decided that the chapter would donate $50 to the Hospital Survey fund. This is to be part of the service project for the year. Browne Stramwell gave a program on poetry with Eleanor Souder and Mrs. Isabelle Brixner assisting.

Refreshments were served to those present.

The pledge ritual was held November 15 at the home of Betty Perrin for eight new members, Maxine Patzke, Darlene Eck, Eloise Shaw, Pat Beck, Shirley Torkay, Wilma Bardal, Pat Wikerson and Lois Tucker.

All members were asked to be on the alert, as the "galloping coffee hours" would be resumed as part of the new means project.

Eleanor Souder presented her program on coffee making.

present were asked to recite verses.

Refreshments were served by Lucille Crawley.

USE YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT

"the best place to shop . . . after all"

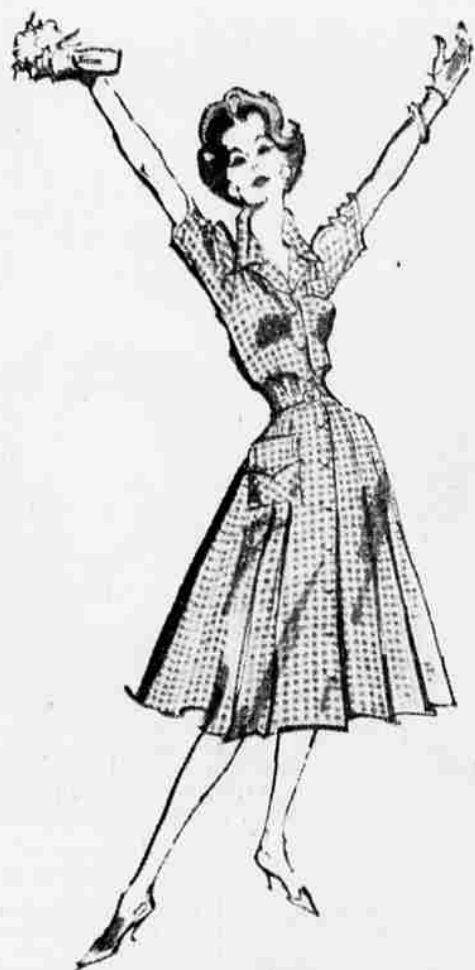

FREE CUSTOMER PARKING

The Perfect Gift

for Mother, Wife, Sister, Daughter . . .

Activi-Tee

the "busiest dress in her wardrobe" only $6.98

The perfect dress for her every daytime occasion! This superbly action-styled dress of fine woven cotton is precision-tailored. Convertible collar, vented sleeves, generous pockets. Completely washable, color-fast and shrink resistant, needs little or no ironing. Choice of colors. All sizes 12-20, 38-42, 12½-22½.

All Charge Purchases Made now are not due until January 10, 1960

"and you can't even hear the electric clock tick!"

The Truly Magnificent

ELDORADO BROUGHAM

Creating a new era of elegance!

In styling, craftsmanship, interior luxury and attention to every detail, the Brougham has no peer. It is the true monarch in the realm of motoring majesty.

Custom-designed and custom-built, the Brougham is a limited production automobile, produced to customer order, and includes every advanced feature for comfort, convenience, luxury and performance.

Among its special features, air conditioning, air suspension and Cruise Control all are offered as standard equipment. There is no optional equipment on the Brougham. Everything is standard.

The price for 1960 remains unchanged at $13,075.00

Delivered

The DICK B. MILLER CO.

7th and Klamath

18, 116, 4-6184

FIRST FEDERAL

Extra "Dollar" Days

			$	$	$	$
$	$	$	$	$	$	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22	23	24	25
26	27	28	29	30

Take advantage of these extra earning days — save on or before the 10th of the month and earn 4% from the 1st of the month at First Federal.

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS

A LOAN ASSOCIATION

Member of the Federal Reserve System and a member of the Oregon Bankers Association