ROUND ABOUT

By ERIEN BECHEN

All roads apparently led to Eugene last weekend for the traditional football rivalry between the Oregon and Oregon State teams. The losing score and deluge of rain, however, failed to dampen the spirits of the Homecoming activities for the University of Oregon.

Undoubtedly there were more than Klamath Falls folk in town, but to name a few, were the John Holstons, Charles Larkins, George Myers, Ed Niles, Robert Cuendets, the Greer and Lloyd Daves, Fred Burgoyne, Roy Whitlatch, Merle West, Wilson Willey, Wilson Willey Sr., Frank Tarrs, George and Ed. Brosthorpes, Harry Todd and the Tom Walters. Had there been more time to get around to more places surely the list would have been longer.

Ex-Klamathites spotted on the campus were the Jim Bushes and Mair Reymers from Ashland, the Charles Fyncks and Wes McNees of Portland and the Don McLucas from Maupin.

Looking forward to seeing their daughter, Sue, star in the Oregon State College production, "Annie Get Your Gun," are Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson. They plan to attend the final performance on December 5. Bobby Thompson will accompany his parents, as well as Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Juckeland and Betty, and Dr. and Mrs. John Cox and John.

NAOMI SHRINE

The 12th anniversary of Naomi Shrine No. 3, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, and Charter Member Night were celebrated jointly at a stated meeting held at the Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, November 14. Ruth Idenberger, worthy high priestess, and James Hunter, acting in the absence of Elvin Phillips, watchman of shepherds, presided.

A well attended potluck dinner preceded the meeting. Isabel Sanders, district deputy, and Jack Schulze, assistant supreme guard, were escorted to the east and introduced for the first time under their supreme titles.

Charter members were also honored and the following were escorted, introduced and presented gifts: Vera Clemmens, Stella Dryden, Mary Ellen Gaster, Minnie Grizzle, Ethel Henry, Bess Hunt, Betty Hunter, Phyllis May, Alice Peyton, Kate Peyton, Nell Retherath, Blanche Schulze, Jack Schulze and Sallie Wood. James Hunter, also a charter member, was introduced and gave a gift. Each spoke briefly in commemoration of the occasion.

The Shrine voted to hold a special meeting on Saturday evening, December 5, for the purpose of conferring degrees. The annual Christmas party will also be held on this date. A practice for this ceremonial is scheduled at the temple for Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The regular stated meeting will be held on December 12 at 4 p.m. The noble prophetess, Luella Chilcote, announced a bazaar and apron sale starting at 10 o'clock on this date. Coffee and cake will be served.

Blanche Schulze was elected and installed as worthy treasurer due to the resignation of Lucille Wirtz McDaniels who is now making her home in Richland, Washington.

A large cake decorated with the emblem of the order and resplendent with 12 birthday candles awaited the members as they assembled in the banquet room following the meeting. As the worthy

Richard Stewarts
Bid Farewell

LANGELL VALLEY—A surprise farewell party was given in the church recreation hall Thursday evening, November 12, for the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Stewart and their three children. Reverend Stewart has been minister at the Lorella Full Gospel Church and is to be minister of the Full Gospel Church in Silverton.

For the surprise the Stewarts were invited to have supper with the Walter Smith Jr. family and later to go to the hall for a party given for the winning team in a "fishermen" contest. A gold wishing well was given to the Stewarts by friends to buy a gift for their new home. The Little League baseball team of Langell Valley attended as a group and helped with the wishing well.

The program opened with Benny Brown playing an accordion solo. Harold Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Villano Noble entertained with songs. Susan Randall gave a reading, "A short comedy, The Part a Guest," with the following cast: completed the program, Geneva Smith, Joan Hilson, Gary R. Hill, LeRoy Orton and C. Hillson.
