HOME ECONOMICS CLUB
SUMMER LAKE — Mrs. Jess Penington and Mrs. Dean Cannon were co-hostesses for the business meeting of the Summer Lake Home Economics Club, November 16, at the home of Mrs. Penington. Mrs. Dawn Vectors was a guest. New officers elected were Mrs. Bill Smith, chairman; Mrs. Boyd Claggett, vice chairman; Mrs. Dean Cannon, secretary; and Mrs. Jeff McDaniel, treasurer. The next meeting will be December 16 at the home of Mrs. McDaniel with Mrs. Bob Elder as co-hostess. It will be held jointly with the guild and a social time is planned with a gift exchange.

FIDELES CIRCLE
ETNA—Mrs. Kathleen Depew, chairman, entertained members of the Fideles Circle of the Methodist Church at her home recently. Members present included Doris Jackson, secretary, Eve Keimer, Claire Potter, Doris Tuttle, Harriet Whipple and a guest, Mrs. Ethel Depew.

QUILTING PARTY
LANGELL VALLEY—Friends of Frank W. Brown, former Langell Valley resident, met at the home of Mrs. Bill Burnett recently to make a quilt for him and his bride, who was Viola Bartfield before her marriage in Bakerfield. Mrs. Burnett served refreshments following the quilting. Quilt blocks were embroidered with the names of Hattie Walker, Margaret Thompson, Jeannette Graham, Bessie Frazier, Dale Smelser, Marie Metter, Cora Leavitt, Emma Ralph, Bernice McCarrie, Nomi Scholer, Genevieve Smith, Dorothy Smith, Florence McCarrie, Olive Craven, Katherine Billingsly, Katherine Jendrzewski, Eva Roberts, Janet Ferlund, Mae Gale and Martha Hunt.

PAINT REMOVER
An ammonia solution is useful in removing paint splashes from windows. Hot vinegar works, too.
