Luncheon Features Hawaiian Theme

Members and guests of AAW enjoyed the warmth of an Hawaiian atmosphere at their November 21 meeting at the First Presbyterian Church.

The arrangements and decorations for the buffet luncheon were handled by co-chairmen Mrs. Dick B. Miller Sr. and Mrs. Richard Newman. Leis, sea shells, orchids flown from Hawaii, glass balls, nets and many other Hawaiian symbols graced the room, creating a very realistic Hawaiian setting. Hostesses were attired in muu mus and leis.

The exotic food was prepared by Mrs. Phillip Blohm. She was assisted by Mrs. Fred Ehlers, Mrs. William Fink, Mrs. George Stevenson, Marilou O'Connor, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. H. A. Hall, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. A. L. Brandt and Mrs. E. L. Bishop. Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor, music chairman, introduced Dale Hallack of KUHS who directed a string ensemble in several numbers. Jean Carnini danced an Hawaiian number accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Wickersham.

Mrs. Dick B. Miller Sr. introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Carl Brandenfels of St. Helens, president of Oregon State Division American Association of University Women. Mrs. Brandenfels chose as her topic "The Forty Years Build-Up to Mr. Khrushchev's Visit." She traced the history of Marxism, Leninism and the rule of Stalin to Russia's present day ruler, Khrushchev, who embraces the works of Lenin.
