STOP TO CHECK PIMPLES!

Don't pick, scratch, squeeze or merely "cover them up"

Doctors know that acne or pimples are caused by the germ called the acne bacillus. These germs invade overactive oil glands in the skin, cause blackheads and pus pockets; then your skin "breaks out."

What's needed is (1) to dry up the excessive oil that collects on skin; (2) to destroy acne germs on the skin, and (3) to stop itching and irritation so pimples can heal.

A doctor's formula, liquid Zemo has this effective 3-way action; also keeps skin looking cleaner!

Get liquid Zemo, Ointment, too. In regular and extra strength. To save—buy the large sizes of Zemo.

Balloon Buster Game Regina Savro

Each player is given a numbered balloon (paint on numbers after balloons are inflated). IT is chosen and blindfolded. He stands in a circle made by the others, who hold hands. Then all the balloons are tossed in the center. While the players count 50, IT breaks as many of them as he can. Each player must watch his number and if his balloon is broken, he must leave the circle. The owner of the last unbroken balloon wins the game.

Fun with Eggshells

Earl Ireland

You can make a miniature Eskimo village with just a few halves of eggshells, some cotton, and perhaps a small mirror. Take the shells up carefully, rinse well, and cut around the jagged edge where they were broken in half, making them fairly even. With a pencil, draw lines up and across the shell to make ice-block squares. Darken a spot for the door. Place the small mirror on a table or tray, arrange cotton around it for snow, and place your igloos here and there to resemble an Eskimo village.

Pick a Face Maude E. Hallmer

Here is a game that goes over big at any party. The day before the party, gather up some magazines with pictures of movie and television stars. Cut out the heads of those you know. Now cut out some pictures of babies, men, women, and children. Choose ones that are about the same size as the stars. Cut away the faces, but not the hair, of the babies, children, etc., and paste the face of a star in that space. You will be surprised at how different and funny familiar people can look.

Make a dozen or so of these and ask your guests to guess who they are. Many will fail to recognize faces they know very well. To be sure that you know who they are, keep a private list for yourself, saying, for example, "Wyatt Earp with bonnet and yellow curls," etc.

Give a prize to the best guesser.
