Regime Of Fidel Castro Swings Farther To Left

HAVANA (AP)—Mal. Ernesto Guevara, left-leaning leader in Prime Minister Fidel Castro's official family, promised more belt-tightening for Cubans today but said there would be no drastic changes in economic policy, as he took over presidency of the Cuban National Bank.

In an interview with the semi-official newspaper Revolucion, Guevara said his most important task will be to safeguard Cuba's foreign exchange level, which presumably will fall even more before starting to improve in mid-January—the start of the sugar harvest.

Guevara said he expects even further tightening of imports because of the foreign exchange situation.

Asked by Revolucion to comment on unrest among Havana bank depositors when his appointment was announced, Guevara said rumors that he planned substantial changes in the government's financial setup were logical but unjustified.

President Osvaldo Dorticos in a ceremony investing the new Cabinet members with their offices denied there was a ministerial crisis in the government as had been rumored.

Capt. Osmany Cienfuegos, brother of army commander Maj. Camilo Cienfuegos, who was lost in a plane flight, becomes minister of public works to replace Manuel Bay.

Navy Capt. Rolando Diaz Azarain is the new minister for the recovery of stolen public property, replacing Faustino Perez.

Ray was appointed president of the army's Superior Institute of Science and Technology, apparently a new post. A government announcement said Perez will be assigned to "other revolutionary duties."

The younger Cienfuegos was formerly in charge of "cultural indoctrination" of the revolutionary army and adheres to the same leftist line as Guevara. As min-

Big Bird — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eberhard of Mount Shasta won a prize at a recent VFW 20th District meeting, a 21-pound turkey. To help the Eberhards take care of the situation, their sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Everingham and three children of Sacramento and Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlap, Covelo, with their three children, came to dinner.
