

New Homes, Both Here And Away, Of Interest Locally

MAYORS, PAST AND PRESENT, formed a committee for presentation of the gift to the Weavers at the housewarming party. From left to right, John Houston, Lawrence Slater, Robert Thompson and the honored couple. — Photo by Guderian

SOCIETY

By HELEN BECHEN

Herald & News
Klamath Falls,
Oregon
Sunday,
Nov. 29, 1959

SURPRISE and delight register on the faces of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver as they unwrap a handsome plant given to them at a housewarming in their honor on November 11. Members of Mrs. Weaver's bridge club arranged the party at the couple's home, 1045 Newcastle Street. — Photo by Guderian

AMONG THE GUESTS who honored the Frank Weavers in their new home were, left to right, Mrs. Larkin, Mrs. Ivan Thompson, Al Backes, Mrs. Backes and Mrs. Loren Palmerton. — Photo by Guderian

ENJOYING the housewarming party of the Weavers was this group, deep in conversation, left to right, Mrs. Charles Larkin, W. J. Kessler, Loren Palmerton and Stanley Miller. — Photo by Guderian

CALIFORNIA BOUND is the Jim Wells family to a new home in Fresno. Mr. and Mrs. Wells are pictured with their daughter, Jann, who is a popular member of the sophomore class at Fresno State High School. Jim Wells assumed the managership of Wards store in this city in 1958. Since that time he and his wife have been enthusiastic workers in the city's school and social affairs of the city. Mrs. Wells, accompanied by her daughter, left Fresno where her husband will manage a new store for Wards. — Photo by Guderian

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM RAJNUS, well known Malin residents have announced the engagement of their daughter, Vlasta, to Larry Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Haynes of Tulelake. The bride-to-be is a 1959 graduate of Malin High School and is presently attending Shasta Junior College. Her fiancé, a Tulelake High School graduate, is now a senior at Chico State College. No wedding date has been set. — Photo by Ferebee

A MOVE was made last week by Major Richard F. Waller to California where he will be stationed with the Headquarters of Air Defense Command. They and their daughter, Cynthia, have resided in Klamath Falls for the past two years. Major Waller has been squadron commander of the 408th Fighter Group. The family will join them after a short vacation trip en route to their new home. — Photo by Sgt. Ch...