Coffee Pool Pilfered

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A rubber got only $2.43 but it lirked the bank's employes. The theft at the West Oakland branch of the Bank of America wasn't discovered until coffee break time Monday. Entering through a skylight, the thief didn't touch a thing except the desk drawer containing the coffee pool. The United States produces about two-thirds of the peaches in the world.

Duck Hunter Being Sought

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP) — sunk by the time they reached the spot. The search resumes today for a duck hunter who drowned in the Columbia River after falling from a boat Monday. The sheriff's office identified the victim as John Ryder, about 35, apparently a resident of the Vancouver area. Deputies said the accident happened near Ridgefield, Wash., down river from Vancouver. Coastguardmen and police searched until nightfall for the body. Other hunters told deputies they saw Ryder fall from his boat about 100 feet from shore. He had the situation.
