

Honkers Clip Modoc Team In Lakeview

LAKEVIEW—Coach Bert Borrevik's Lakeview Honkers clipped their 1959-60 basketball season by handing the visiting Alturas Modocs a 32-31 non-league clipping here Friday night.

The nip and tuck contest saw the lead change hands several times with the two squads tied 7-7 at the end of the first quarter. Alturas holding a 16-12 bulge at halftime and the Honkers posting a 23-19 margin at the third period mark.

Modoc Don Saucada had a chance to tie the game when he stepped to the foul line with just five seconds left. But the Alturas forward took too much time taking the gift toss and the ball went to Lakeview who stalled out the remaining seconds.

Alturas' Tom Bell grabbed scoring honors for the night with 12 counters while Honker Jerry Parkinson led his team with 10. Lakeview's Frank Egenhoff trailed with nine.

Said Borrevik following the game, "Their zone defense crossed us up but I am happy with the win. It was a good opener for us and we have a lot of work to do."

Lakeview JV's took a 60-32 beating in the preliminary from the Alturas Jayvees.

Etna Hi Splits At Fort Jones

FORT JONES — Siskiyou B League basketball got off to a roaring start here Friday night as the Etna A team and Fort Jones B team emerged victors in the first league action of the season.

The Etna A quintet dropped Fort Jones 34-28 in the opening half of the twin-billing while the Fort Jones B crew handed Etna a 40-24 drubbing in the second half.

In the A contest the Cubs held quarter leads of 11-5, 21-10 and 29-20 and were in command all the way.

Tom Petrich, with eight points, led Fort Jones while Etna's Bert Heil topped all scorers with 13 markers.

The B test saw the host team grab an early 16-7 first quarter lead and hold it for the win. Etna was held scoreless in the second period, the count at halftime standing at 24-7. By the end of the third frame, Fort Jones had extended its lead to 33-14.

Bucky Hobson led all scorers with 12 counters for the winners while teammate Ralph Shaddox followed with 10. Center Tom Martin led the losers with eight markers.

Quartet Of County Favorites Move To Finals In B Tourneys

By JOHN NOLEN
Herald and News Sports Writer

County B cagers kicked off the 1959-60 basketball season Friday night at Henley and Chiloquin as Merrill, Malin, Chiloquin and Gilchrist, all pre-season "possibles" for the County B League crown, ran off with victories to advance to the finals, which were held Saturday night.

In the opener on the Chiloquin hardwood, Gilchrist handed Bly a 36-23 drubbing while in the second half of the twin-billing Chiloquin came from behind in the final quarter to clip Sacred Heart Academy, 45-42.

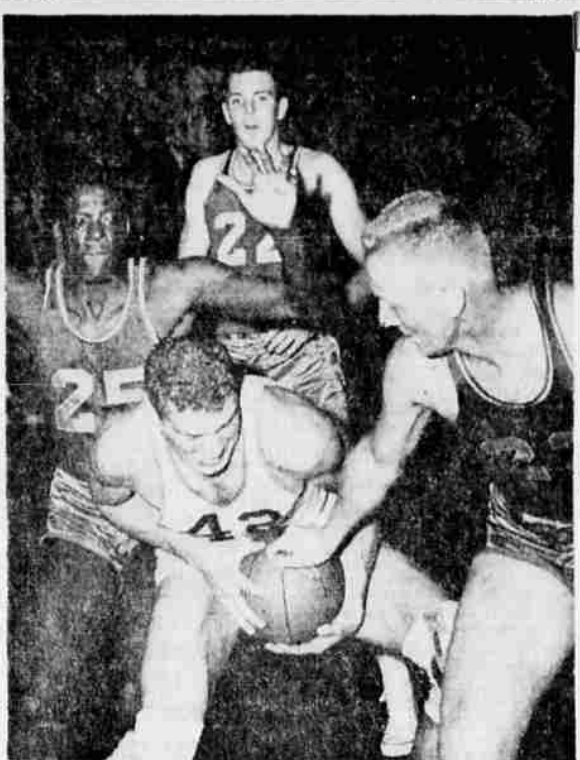

Malin roared past Henley, 52-30, in the opener on the Henley court and Merrill, the defending county titlist, downed a stubborn Bonanza quint, 53-42, in the second test.

Mustangs Roll

A sharp-eyed Malin five, which was led in the scoring column by Randy Miller with 18, Rick Illian with 14 and Jim Long with 10, led 11-7 at the first quarter, 19-11 at the half and 39-20 at the third quarter mark.

The Mustangs, who were hot from the foul line all night by hitting 14 of 22 attempts, were in command all the way as the cold-shooting Hornets could register only seven markers in the opening stanza, four in the second, nine in the third and 10 in the fourth.

Miller, who dropped in seven field goals and four of six from the foul line, kept the Malin attack rolling with his playmaking

THIS WASN'T EASY — Oregon Tech's Paul Layher (42), with ball, stands 6-7 but getting a rebound away from the trio surrounding him but no cinch at any time during the Owls' 65-62 loss to Westminster College Friday night. Burgess Evans (25) stands 6-6 as does teammate Al Barnett (22) in the background. Reaching in to further harass Layher is Parson Ron Swenson, the shortest of the four, only 6-5.

Fullmer Stops Webb, Eyes 'Ancient Arch'

LOGAN, Utah (AP) — Power-punching Gene Fullmer, reigning solidly as king of the NBA middleweight class, contemplates stepping up a rung to challenge venerable lightweight champ Archie Moore.

Or possibly he might clear the 160-pound picture by fighting Sugar Ray Robinson again if Robinson has any desire for such a bout.

Fullmer took solid possession of the NBA diadem and won the right to do some bargaining for

200 Average Not Enough

CHICAGO (AP) — Two hundred-average bowlers were far back as the high-scoring world's invitational tournament moved into its third day of bowling in the Chicago Coliseum.

After 12 games in the men's division, no less than 76 of 128 bowlers were averaging 200 or better, while on the distaff side, 22 of the 64 women were shooting a 190 or better mark.

Top marksmen at the end of the half-day point in the qualifying trials were Ray Bluth, a husky 31-year-old former high school back from St. Louis, who totaled 2,639, a new 12-game record, for a neat 219 plus average; and Marge Merrick, an attractive 35-year-old bowling instructor from Detroit, who had 1,751 pins for eight games, an average of 217 plus per game.

In all, 76 of the 128 men bettered the 200-average mark as the bulky field struggled for 47 places in the semifinals along with defending champion Eddie Lubanski of Detroit who is seeded into the finals.

And eight, respectively. Senior guard Jim Tucker, the Bobcats' tallest at 5-8½, headed the Bly scoring with 11 markers. Gilchrist (38) POS. (23) RLY

Huskies Growl
In the Merrill-Bonanza tilt, it was simply a case of too much height as 6-5 Bruce Bricker tossed in 26 points and teammate Brian Fields, 6-3, added 14. The pair also controlled a greater percentage of rebounds as the Merrill crew posted quarter leads of 10-5, 21-13 and 41-26.

Antler guard Sylvan Crume kept the Bonanzans in the game as he pumped in 23 points, 20 in the second half. Crume collected his total on nine field goals and five of 11 from the foul line while Bricker built his total on 13 fielders, mostly on hooks and close-in shots.

Bonanza outscored the Huskies in the third stanza, 13-10 and in the fourth 16-12. Crume hit for eight in the third and 12 in the final. Bricker hit for eight tallies in each of the first two sessions but sat out the major portion of the second half.

Grizzlies Victory
Gilchrist took an early 8-5 first quarter lead and made it stand up as they registered their first County B League victory of the season. Other tourney action was non-league.

The Grizzlies led 12-9 at the half and 24-15 at the three quarter mark as center Gerald Warren topped all scorers with 14 tallies, followed by teammates Chet Emment and Charlie Russell with nine

Kentucky Wildcats In Narrow Escape

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Aigher Adolf Rupp heaved a sigh of relief Saturday after his Kentucky Wildcats escaped with a narrow victory over UCLA on a weekend visit to the West Coast.

The Wildcats, expected to be one of college basketball's powers this season, nipped the spirited Bruins 68-66 Friday night on some clutch shooting by Sid Cohen.

In other games, California, the defending NCAA champion, and West Virginia, the team the Bears defeated 71-70 in the finals of the tournament, posted impressive victories.

California overpowered California's Santa Barbara branch 59-47 behind husky Bill McClintock and 6-10 Darrell Imhoff. The triumph was the Bears' 17th straight.

All-America Jerry West and Lee Patrone spearheaded West Virginia to an 86-76 decision over The Citadel. The success stretched the Mountaineers' Southern Conference winning streak to 51 games.

Cohen, a back court general Brooklyn, took charge in the last 90 seconds to pull out the Kentucky squeaker. With the score tied 64-61, the 6-1 senior scored on a three-point play to sew it up.

California controlled the backboards against the undermanned Santa Barbara team, while hitting on 45.6 of its field goal attempts. McClintock, a 6-4, 220-pounder scored 14 points and snared 12 rebounds. Imhoff chipped in with 11 points and nine rebounds.

West Virginia opened up a 46-34 halftime bulge over The Citadel and never was headed. Patrone garnered scoring laurels with 23 points and West added 21.

Oklahoma City University Baylor edged Oklahoma State 53-50, Missouri turned back Arkansas 75-71, Creighton defeated the Air Force Academy 56-49, Texas A&M whipped Trinity 86-47, Brigham Young nipped Washington 54-52, and Villanova romped over Scranton 110-68.

Yreka Miners Whip Wolves
YREKA—Yreka's tall Miners got off on the right foot in their first game of the 1959-60 basketball season by handing the visiting Shasta Union Wolves of Redding a 37-41 whipping in non-league action here Friday night.

Paced by the 17-point performance of 6-5½ forward Alan Eddy, the Miners roared to quarter bulges of 11-2, 29-11 and 47-21. Miner coach Dick Edwards played reserves almost the entire final period in which Yreka was outscored, 20-10.

Ross Carter topped the losers with 13 markers while teammate Joe Carlton followed with eight. Yreka guard Arlin Sanford trailed Eddy with 12 counters and Bill Wilson, rangy 6-6 Miner postman, registered nine.

"The boys threw up a good defense," commented Edwards following the victory. "We had a definite height advantage but I am well satisfied with the team. It was a good first game."

The Yreka Jayvees topped the Shasta Union Jayvees, 28-23, in the preliminary contest. Bob Sage of Yreka topped all scorers with 14 points.

Moore Scores 28; Stars In UO Win

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Oregon made its season basketball debut Friday night with a 62-48 victory over Fresno State, sparked by the play-making of Chuck Rask and the scoring of Glenn Moore before 3,970 persons.

The 6-foot-7 Moore, a sophomore from Klamath Falls, punched in 28 points. He starred the year before with the unbeaten Frosh team and was an All-State performer in high school.

Moore also was a big factor in Oregon's backboard control. He grabbed 11 rebounds as Oregon gained a 33-33 edge in that department.

Rask, a senior from Portland, also showed well on defense. He hit the key basket that erased an early Fresno State lead with three minutes gone in the game, and from then on Oregon stayed in front.

Oregon hit 40 per cent of its shots from the field, and Fresno State hit 30 per cent. Both teams hit only 37 per cent of their free tosses. The high scorer for Fresno State was Al Brown, with 14.

BYU Sub Sparkles As Huskies Tumble

PROVO, Utah (AP) — A substitute spelled defeat for Washington Friday night as the visiting Huskies were defeated by Brigham Young University 34-32 in the opening basketball game for both teams.

It was Jay Robinson, a sub, who first broke a 30-30 tie with seven minutes left, then broke the Huskies back by dunking a basket with four minutes remaining. The ball changed hands several times in the final 60 seconds, but neither team could hit the target.

Bill Hanson, Washington's 6-foot-8 scoring leader, fouled out early in the second half. He scored 16 points before taking the bench.

Gary Earnest was high for BYU with 16 points.

Whitman Defeated
WALLA WALLA (AP) — Willie Minor of Central Washington zeroed in on the basket in the last half minute of an overtime period Friday night to turn apparent defeat into a 69-68 victory over Whitman.

Cougars Victors
PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—Washington State opened its basketball season on a winning note Friday night with an 84-60 win over Montana.

Charlie Sells and Terry Ball paced the Cougars, who led by only seven points at halftime, but raced ahead in the second half. Sells, a 6-foot-6 mainstay of Coach Mary Harshman's club, collected 15 of his 19 points in the second half. Ball hit 10 of his 18 in the second period.

Nevada Trips EOC
LA GRANDE, Ore. (AP)—The 21 points of Val York and the 19 of Ken Longero proved too much for Eastern Oregon as it fell 56-51 Friday night before visiting University of Nevada.

Pasco Arivella hit 20 for Eastern Oregon. His team led after the first three minutes. Only that was Nevada's game all the way. The two teams play again tonight.

SOC Evens Series
ASHLAND (AP)—Southern Oregon nosed out visiting Humboldt State of Arcata, Calif., here Friday night 45-43 on the two free throws that freshman Brad Flannery sank with 44 seconds left in the game.

Humboldt State was ahead 26-25 at halftime and held a four-point lead in the second half.

Ross Carter topped the losers with 13 markers while teammate Joe Carlton followed with eight. Yreka guard Arlin Sanford trailed Eddy with 12 counters and Bill Wilson, rangy 6-6 Miner postman, registered nine.

"The boys threw up a good defense," commented Edwards following the victory. "We had a definite height advantage but I am well satisfied with the team. It was a good first game."

The Yreka Jayvees topped the Shasta Union Jayvees, 28-23, in the preliminary contest. Bob Sage of Yreka topped all scorers with 14 points.
