Joan Borthick Is Bride In Eugene Episcopal Rites

Joan Ollene Borthick became the bride of Donald Louis Binninger of Klamath Falls on November 14 at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Eugene. Altar vases and tall baskets of white Fuji and large pom-pom chrysanthemums and stock formed the background for the double ring ceremony read at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Robert Burton.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Irvin Borthick of Eugene, are former residents of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Binninger of Albany, California, are parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace with chiffon cummerbund. A jacket effect of scallops matched the scalloped edging of the skirt. A satin and lace clutch cap held a shoulder length illusion veil trimmed with medallions of lace. She carried a cascade of white roses and carnations with ribbon streamers and a handkerchief which had belonged to her maternal grandmother.

Mrs. M. D. Borthick of Reno was matron of honor for her sister-in-law, Jona Borthick, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid. The attendants were matching dresses of delft blue velvet and light blue ribbon headbands. They carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums and stock tied with matching blue ribbon.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Thomas Binninger of Albany. Ushers were the bride's brother, Mirvin D. Borthick of Reno and Kenneth McAndrews of Klamath Falls.

Milton Dieterich was the organist.

Mrs. Borthick chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath dress of rose beige lace over taffeta with pink accessories. Mrs. Binninger wore a Dior blue brocade silk dress and a blue feather hat.

A reception followed immediately in the parish hall of the church. The bride's table, covered with a white satin cloth, held a white tiered cake topped with wedding bells. The cake was served by Mrs. Vere B. Higbee of Halsey and Marian Day of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Claude Tarbution of Oswego presided at the coffee service and Mrs. Goldie Olson Erickson of Klamath Falls poured punch. The guest book was held by Mrs. Keith Garwood of Salem. The bridegroom's cake, each piece in a silver bell tied with tulle, was passed by Jona and Todd Borthick, niece and nephew of the bride.

For a honeymoon trip to California the new Mrs. Binninger wore a royal blue nubby wool Chanel suit with cloche hat of net and velvet. The bride is a graduate of Mills College and her husband from University of California. He is employed as forester for Weyerhaeuser Company in Klamath Falls where the newlyweds will reside at 241 Division Street.

Out-of-state guests were the bridegroom's parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Binninger and Thomas of Albany; his grandmother, Mrs. Anne Binninger of Marysville; Mrs. Mary Patmon, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Mirvin D. Borthick, Jona and Todd of Reno, the bride's brother and family; Larry Burton of San Jose.

Klamath Falls guests included Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Borsting and Rod, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gehrike, Mr. and Mrs. George Kilen, Marian Day, Mrs. Goldie Olson Erickson, Dick Kelly, Julius Reynolds and James Herrmann.

DAC Chapter Notes Birthday

Klamath Chapter, Daughters of the American Colonists, observed its second birthday at a regular luncheon meeting in the Pelican party room at 12 noon, November 23. The following members were present: Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, Mrs. Roland Wright, Mrs. Arch Proctor, Mrs. George Proctor, Mrs. L. H. Stone, Mrs. W. B. DeWitt, Mrs. Raymond Hall, Mrs. Dick Henzel, Mrs. R. Payge, Mrs. Jack Wright, Mrs. Robert Odell, Mrs. Guy Barton and Mrs. William Wales Jr.

Mrs. Roland Wright was general chairman. Mrs. George Proctor, hostess, had colorful decorations of blue and gold on the table. In recognition of the second birthday of the chapter, a beautiful cake, made by Mrs. George Proctor, was cut and served by the chapter past regent, Mrs. Arch Proctor. A congratulatory letter was read from the state regent, Mrs. John Richardson. Mrs. Irene Foster, who could not be present, sent her regrets and presented the chapter with the gift of a lineage book for the growing genealogical library.

It was reported by the registrar that six prospective members are working on their papers.

Mrs. Guy Barton, patriotic education chairman, gave a short report. Mrs. Rudolph Payge reported on national awards given to outstanding cadets at the Air Academy.

Mrs. Dick Henzel gave an interesting paper on colonial furnishings and illustrated it with pictures.

The regent, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, appointed Mrs. Arch Proctor and Mrs. William DeWitt as a nominating committee for officers to be elected at the January meeting.

It was voted that each member give $1 to the National Headquarters Building Fund, to be paid at or before the January meeting.

Members were reminded to complete the chapter and state project of a history of a colonial ancestor.

Baby Shower

HORN BROOK — The home of Mrs. Andrew Skeahan in Hornbrook, was the setting for a shower of gifts for Carol Hockaday, newly born daughter of Mrs. Richard Hockaday, formerly of Montague and now residing in Hornbrook. Mrs. Skeahan was assisted in hostess duties by Mrs. Dale Freshour, also a former Montague resident.

The evening was spent in playing games appropriate for the occasion. Prizes were won by the honoree, Mrs. Kenneth Wheeler, Montague, and Mrs. Ralph Chadwick, Hornbrook.

Gifts were opened, after which refreshments were served. Those attending in addition to those mentioned included Mrs. Age Petersen and Mrs. Virgil Hagedorn, both of Montague; Mrs. Harley Baker, Mrs. Ray Blankenship, Mrs. Tom Burcell, Mrs. Ike Dooley, Mrs. Robert Farmer, Mrs. Pete Fisher, Mrs. Alfred King, Mrs. Grace Quigley, Mrs. George Reese, Mrs. Glen Shinar, Mrs. Alfred Spearin Jr., Mrs. James Spearin, and Mrs. George Smith, all of Hornbrook.

"Captain Cook, The Man History Forgot," the article deals with Cook's part in starting the fur trade for the Northwest as well as his discovery of the Hawaiian Islands.

Paradise of the Pacific is celebrating over 50 years of publication in Honolulu dating back to the era of King Kalakaua. Mrs. Cox previously appeared in this magazine with various articles concerning the Big Island where she lived for two and a half years before coming to Klamath Falls.

Gene Cox was in charge of the Mauna Kea Soil Conservation Service in the Islands. For the past two years he has held a similar position with the Poe Valley Soil Conservation Service.

Mrs. Cox has had considerable success recently in the sale of short manuscripts to Parents' Magazine, Better Homes and Gardens and American Home. Through her years of writing she estimates approximately 150 manuscripts have been accepted by various trade and educational publications. She was also a member of the staff of the writers' conference at the 1953 summer session of Montana University. At present, Mrs. Cox teaches English on a half time schedule at Klamath Union High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox resided in Honolulu, Hawaii, before coming to Klamath Falls two years ago with their three children, Bill, a former OTI student now employed by Weyerhaeuser, Jim, a student at Sacred Heart Academy, and Willa, who attends Fairview School.

Sojourners

Sojourners met for a regular luncheon meeting November 25, in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel. Mrs. Richard Bowers conducted a short business meeting at which time these officers (for the new term) were elected: Mrs. Ward Baldwin, president; Mrs. Calvin Shaw, vice president; Mrs. T. F. Bechtel, secretary; and Mrs. Lee Holliday, treasurer.

Plans for the Christmas party were disclosed by Mrs. Vernon Neel, chairman, which will include installation of the newly elected officers.

First time guests attending were Mrs. Harold Dody and Mrs. Hugh Wilson; second time guests were Mildred Dressler and Mrs. Robert Edwards; and little Eleanor Bowers was a special guest. Twenty-two members were present.

An afternoon of cards followed at which high score at bridge was awarded to Mrs. Rosalie Baughn and second high to Mildred Dressler. Mrs. E. R. Nelson won the high score at canasta.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Lee Holliday, Mrs. Howard Holliday and Mrs. John Renning.

Newcomers are welcome and can secure information from Mrs. Louise Guise at TU 2-5073.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Marjorie May Powell to Thomas Blair was announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Powell of this city. The bride-elect is a receptionist in the office of student affairs at Oregon Technical Institute. Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Blair of Medford, is a machine shop student at OTI.
