SETTING THE THEME for the Club Hillah Flamingo dancing party on November 21 was this unusual arrangement placed at one end of the Klamath auditorium floor. Other birds stood among huge palm trees at the opposite end of the room. Completing the club idea were large styrofoam dice and play money on the tables.

Sorority Sisters Told Of Pinning

The pinning of Jeannette Cuenot and Dave Robinson of the University of Oregon was told on November 16 to sorority sisters at the Kappa Alpha Theta house on the Oregon State College campus.

The news was cleverly told by Dick Seideman, a Sigma Phi Epsilon at OSC, who gave a talk on the current "Invitation to Beaver Education" topic. His question as to why anyone would be interested in the University of Oregon was the cue for Jeannette to reveal her news. As Sue Thompson pinned Dave's Sigma Phi Epsilon pin on Jeannette, Judy Ellis and Marcia Spence passed favors of chocolate mints and Confederate flags bearing the names, Jeannette and Dave.

Parents of both sophomore students reside in Klamath Falls. They are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cuenot of 1099 Pacific Terrace and Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Robinson, 1204 Crescent Avenue.
