He will report at the end of his leave to Castle Air Force Base, Fresno. Flying home, he was logged in at Portland and was delayed several hours on Friday.

Benjamin Franklin, then Britain's deputy postmaster on the North American continent, established the first post office in Quebec just before the Revolution.

Bing's Sons Walk Out Of Night Club

MONTREAL (UPI)—The Crosby brothers, who vowed less than a year ago to stay eternally together in show business, split up early Friday and walked out on a $12,000 night club engagement.

The break-up was preceded by a heated argument in their dressing room shortly before their scheduled midnight appearance at the El Morocco, it was reported.

A spokesman for the club said the split-up "was due to internal strife."

He said the group still had seven more performances to go before fulfilling their contract.

The boys, Gary, 26, twins Dennis and Philip, 24, and Lindsay, 22, have been known to have had disagreements in the past. Gary, usually the spokesman for the group, was said to have a quick temper and the others were reported to resent his bossiness.

Gary announced last August that the brothers would make their night club debut in Las Vegas. At the time he said he and his father "just don't get along" and Bing did not show up for the opening of their act.

The boys and Bing reconciled last October when they appeared at the Moulin Rouge in Hollywood.

Gary also was said to have led the brothers away from Bing's brother, Larry, who handled all the Crosby business. Under Gary's aegis the boys got their own agent to handle their act.

Pietro Petito, manager of the Crosby brothers, denied that any argument took place in their dressing room. He said Gary had a sore throat and would not be able to perform for six months.

Petito said Gary had been suffering from a throat infection for some time.

The spokesman for the club said the contract with the Crosby brothers was canceled by mutual agreement.

Two of the boys, Philip and Dennis, are married and Lindsay has been romantically linked with a dancer in singer Tony Martin's night club act.

Both Philip and Dennis are married to Las Vegas showgirls.

Navy Seeks Submariners

The Navy recruiting station in Klamath Falls released a list this week of "open rates" available to re-enlisting former submarine men.

Under the program certain ex-submariners who were discharged or released less than three years ago may re-enlist without reduction in rating.

Eligible are some of those men released or discharged from the Regular Navy or some of those Navy Reserve members last discharged from a tour of not less than two years of continuous active duty and who were qualified submariners at time of discharge or release.

The local Navy recruiter, Jim Chesley, would like to discuss the program with men who held certain Deck Group I, Electronics Group II, Engineering and Hull Group VII, and Ordnance Group II ratings.

Many Weighty Problems Must Be Solved On Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Aside from such global matters as the cold war and the Chinese Communists, President Eisenhower's forthcoming trip to Asia presents some real personal problems for members of his party.

Among the weightier decisions that must be made:—When and where to get the laundry done? The drip-dry fabric hasn't been made that will dry during a five-hour stop in Kabul, Afghanistan. Reporters traveling with the Chief Executive are limited to one bag. They've been advised to take dinner clothes. So the laundry problem becomes acute.

—When and where to eat? In Rome, Paris and Madrid, this will be no problem. But in some of the other countries, hunger stalks the White House party because of the clock. The reporters, for example, will be working on American time which may be 10 hours different from local time. When they get their stories done, the local restaurants probably will be closed.

—Another mighty problem is best summed up in the motto of all those who follow a modern president — "don't miss the plane."

The schedule of Eisenhower's forthcoming trip is so tight that one errant moment of sightseeing could cause a missed plane and a nice overnight stay in Karachi or Tehran.

When the President is traveling abroad, the fear of missing the plane becomes obsessive in some members of his entourage to the point that they get up at 2 a.m. to make a 7 a.m. takeoff.

The public, including the families of those traveling with the President, get the mistaken idea at times that a trip such as the current venture into the Middle East and Asia is sort of a glorious holiday; night after night in glamorous restaurants; fascinating hours in colorful native shops.

Let the stay-at-homes be advised: Untrue. This reporter spent 10 days in Paris with Eisenhower in 1957 and ate only two French meals; chills the rest of the time in a so-called American cafe because it was the only nearby place open when the reporter got through work at 3 a.m.

Last September in Paris, one of the high-ranking members of the Eisenhower staff existed on ham sandwiches in Paris for three days. She was working so hard that she couldn't get out for meals.

The White House staff includes a crew of veteran travel experts and what they fear most about this trip is the moment of return on the night of Dec. 22 when they climb off the plane to be greeted by the cheery cries of family and friends, "how was the vacation?"

Love Classic Is Interesting For Bird Lovers

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—Librarian Ellsworth Mason recommended to students at Colorado College Friday a book that might interest bird lovers: "Lady Chatterley's Plover" (sic).

Mason supported his selection by quoting a Field and Stream magazine review of D. H. Lawrence's frankly worded love classic: "This fictional account of the day-by-day life of an English gamekeeper is still of considerable interest to the outdoor-minded reader, as it contains many passages on pheasant raising, the apprehending of poachers, ways to control vermin and other chores and duties of the professional gamekeeper."

"Unfortunately one is obliged to wade through many pages of extraneous material in order to discover and savor these sidelights of management on a Midlands shooting estate, and . . . this book cannot take the place of J. R. Miller's practical Gamekeeping."

Death Toll Slows Down

CHICAGO (AP)—The steep, steady climb of the nation's traffic death toll has been halted. The October total for five, per cent below the tally for October, 1958. It was the first month of this year to show a decline, and the number of fatalities, 3,420, was the lowest for any October in 10 years.

The National Safety Council, in reporting the figures today, said the toll for the first 10 months of this year was 30,360—two per cent above the total for the corresponding period of 1958.

The decrease was recorded in October after monthly increases that ranged as high as eight per cent early in the year.

Disabling injuries in traffic accidents through the first 10 months of this year were estimated at 1,100,000.

The Council also estimated that travel in the first 10 months of this year was up four per cent compared with the corresponding period of last year.

The January-through-October mileage death rate—number of fatalities per 100 million miles of travel—was 5.3, the lowest on record for the period covered.

Lumber Firm Awarded Bid

PORTLAND (AP)—A 15 1/2 million board foot block of Willamette National Forest on Big Creek went to the Georgia Pacific Corp., which entered a high bid of $605,170.

The U.S. Forest Service said Thursday Georgia Pacific offered $43.25 a thousand board feet for Douglas fir and pine and $14.30 for other species.

The Forest Service said Capital Lumber Co. gained 14.6 million board feet of timber in the Cedar Creek tract with a high bid of $211,641.

Timber Owners Lumber Co. gained a third tract in the Sardine Ridge area of the national forest with a bid of $133,280 for the 6.8 million board feet.

Split-Level Ruling Given

PORTLAND (AP)—The split-level home is more than one story. This is the ruling of Circuit Judge Arno Denecke.

His ruling Thursday resulted from a complaint by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snashall that the home, in an area zoned for single story houses, blocked their view.

Whether Mr. and Mrs. Don Jewell will have to shave off the upper level of their new home at 3039 S. Altadena Ave. will be decided at a future hearing.

Snashall is an assistant U. S. Attorney and Jewell is manager of Memorial Jewell.
