Polio Vaccine Campaign Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Public Health Service says more people should have the recommended three or more polio vaccine shots. A new nationwide campaign to get people vaccinated will be launched early next spring.

The plans were announced over the weekend along with new estimates that about 68 million Americans have had three or more injections and about 87 million have had at least one shot of the vaccine.

These new estimates indicated that about 14,600,000 more people have had some vaccine than was the case in the fall of last year. About 13,200,000 more have had the recommended dosage of three or more shots.

MORAL: DON'T COMPLAIN
PULASKI, Va. (UPI)—Claude Ratcliffe complained to police Friday that four cases of rotten candies were stolen from his store. He was immediately arrested on a charge of violating the town's anti-fireworks ordinance.

Amvets Plan Bell Memorial

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Amvets announced plans today to install a set of bells at Pearl Harbor in memory of the Navy men who died 18 years ago in the Japanese attack on the battleship Arizona.

The memorial will be installed next Memorial Day at the Arizona Shrine at Pearl Harbor.

The gift was announced during a Pearl Harbor Day ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery honoring the heroes of World War II. Harold T. Bere, Chicago, Amvets national commander, presented a symbolic silver bell during the service to Secretary of the Navy William B. Franke.

Queen Victoria reigned 63 years, longest of any British monarch.
