By JOHN NOLEN Herald and News Sports Writer. A scrappy crew of Henley Hornets put a damper on the possibility of Malin nabbing the 1959-60 County B League championship when they toppled the Mustangs 49-42 in a non-league clash Friday night.

county titlist Merrill, 43-37 the following night. Then came the return engagement with Henley which threw the league into a tossup with any one of several teams rated as potential league champs.

Malin Upset: The Hornets, paced by the long-range shooting of guards Floyd Kendall and Ray Jackson, both hitting for 15 points, came from a 35-33 third quarter deficit to pour in 16 last period tallies to Malin's seven.

The tall Mustangs, with several players plagued by sickness and injuries, were led by guard Randy Miller who sank 16 points to grab high point honors. Allbritton contributed 10 points to the Henley cause while Jim Long aided Malin with nine.

Trojans Downed: Merrill, challenged by a tough SHA defense throughout the first half, posted quarter leads of 10-5, 22-13 and 38-22. Husky ace Bruce Brickner, 6-5, was held to four points in the first half and collected only 13 points over the route, far below his league-leading 19.5 average.

by center Tony Krok's 14 points. Krok, assigned to defend Brickner, kept the Trojans in the game and gathered more than his share of rebounds. Reserve Carl Shuck aided 10 to the SHA cause.

Antlers Ramble: Bonanza started slow against the Bobcats, holding a 24-15 halftime lead, but went to work in the third frame as they hit for 24 points. Chester Schooler, last year's third top scorer in the county, topped all scorers with 16 while teammate Sylvan Crume and Jim O'Conner added 13 and 11.

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees and the Kansas City Athletics, old hands at swapping players, have completed their 15th transaction with outfielder Roger Maris the key player in the seven-man deal.

Grizzlies Tough: The Grizzly quint kept within shouting distance of the taller Panthers, Chiloquin leading at the quarter posts, 10-5, 19-14 and 30-23. "We pushed them hard," said Grizzly coach Les Martin, "but they gradually pulled away in the last quarter."

Ex-OSC Griddler New Grid Coach

REGINA (AP) — Ken Carpenter, 30, a former Oregon State College football player, Friday was named coach of the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

"We have tried unsuccessfully to trade with other clubs in both leagues," said Yankee General Manager George Weiss. "The Yankees and Kansas City have faith in each other."

OSC Tournament Foe Class Of Conference

OREGON STATE COLLEGE — Border conference champion last year, and regarded by almost everyone as a shoo-in to repeat—that's New Mexico State University, the school Oregon State must face in the opening round of the fourth annual, Far West Classic here December 26, 28 and 29.

Coach Slat's Gill must have decided long ago the task of beating the Aggies isn't an easy one. New Mexico State is loaded with veteran talent, and in 6-8 Billy Joe Price the Aggies boast one of the real all-America hopefuls. He was a unanimous choice for all-Border conference honors last year with a 19-point average and in early games this fall has looked even better.

Presley Askew, the coach, is beginning his seventh year at New Mexico State, and as a college mentor, his win and lost record stands at 136-116. But defense is one of his strong suits. For example, his 1955-56 team had a starting five that averaged less than six feet, yet earned a rating as third in the nation on defense.

The Aggies generally have fielded strong basketball teams and have wound up in a losing season only once in the last five years. Their 1959 record was 17-11, as compared with 13-13 for Oregon State.

Sophomore George Knighton was outstanding on the freshman team last year and is expected to shoulder much of the load. Whereas Ailment Takes Ex-SL Great: ST. LOUIS (AP) — Sunny Jim Bottomley, 39, the only player in major league baseball history to drive in 12 runs in one game, died of a heart ailment while Christmas shopping Friday.

The former first baseman, the National League's most valuable player in 1929 and a veteran of 15 seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds and old St. Louis Browns, lived up to his name until the end. He was joking with a friend only moments before he was found slumped over the wheel of his car in a downtown parking lot.

It was on Sept. 16, 1924, that James Leroy Bottomley wrote his name into the record books with six hits good for 12 RBI against the Brooklyn Dodgers. The hits included two home runs, a double and three singles.

He repeated his six-for-six achievement on Aug. 5, 1931, against Pittsburgh, this time with a double and five singles. He is the only National League to go six-for-six two times.

The cocky first baseman, who wore his cap at a rakish angle and was noted for his sunny disposition, had a lifetime batting average of .310 and fielded .988 during his 1,991-game career, most of it with the Cardinals.

Hank Aaron NL Bat Champ

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hammerin' Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves, who led the National League batters from the opening week to the season's end, Saturday was crowned the official champion for 1959.

Aaron wound up with a .355 average to win the senior circuit title for the second time. The Braves' outfielder won his first crown in 1956 with a .328 mark. Joe Cunningham of St. Louis finished second with a .345 average last season, official averages released by National League Headquarters disclosed.

Eddie Mathews, another Milwaukee slugger, edged Chicago's Ernie Banks for the home run championship. Mathews hit one in the final playoff game against Los Angeles, giving him 46. Banks had 45. Ernie led in 1958 with 47.

MacPhail New Oriole Prexy

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lee MacPhail is officially the new president of the Baltimore Orioles, but Jim Keely, the outgoing chief, says he'll keep a hand in the team's operation.

MacPhail, tapped for the job by Keely when the latter announced his resignation, was formally promoted from general manager to president at Friday's board meeting.

Ending speculation that he might also sell his stock in the club, Keely agreed to remain on the board.

MacPhail, in stepping up to the top Oriole post, matched an accomplishment of his colorful father, Larry MacPhail, who headed the New York Yankees until his 1947 retirement from baseball.

Lee, who will continue to perform the duties of general manager, will receive an estimated $35,000 a year.
