New Club Forms In Mount Shasta

MOUNT SHASTA—A Toastmistress Club was formed among the women of Southern Siskiyou County Wednesday evening, December 7, with headquarters in Mount Shasta. The club will meet on the first and third Wednesday evening of each month in the Ski Bowl Coffee Shop.

Officers elected for the first half year are Mrs. N. A. Lensing, president; Mrs. T. Hunter, vice president; Mrs. Dick Clark, secretary; Mrs. Laurence Lensing, treasurer; and Mrs. K. Olovson, club representative.

A semiannual election will again be held in six months. This is to rotate members more rapidly than with annual elections.

Bethel No. 6

Bethel No. 6, Job's Daughters, met in two regular sessions on November 5 and 19 with Honored Queen Ann Anderson presiding in the east.

Mrs. Evelyn Rogers, grand guardian of the Grand Guardian Council of Oregon, made her official visitation on November 5. The meeting was preceded by a school of instruction and a potluck dinner. The honored queen presented Mrs. Rogers a gift from the Bethel. A myrtlewood pin was given to Ann Anderson from the grand guardian and associate grand guardian.

Escorted and introduced were Penny Preston, honored queen of Bethel 61; Sandra Detroit, past honored queen of Bethel 96, Los Angeles; Evelyn Rogers, grand guardian; Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian and past guardian of Bethel 6; Elmer Vincent, past associate guardian of Bethel 61 and royal patron of the Order of Amaranth; and Sue Runge, marshal of Bethel 61.

Initiated into the order were Nancy Freeman, Kathy Ward, Sandra Baustien, Barbara Cody, Kitty Stalker, Pam Baraboo, Ellen Thomas, Marianne Gallagher, Kathleen Luse, Laurie Fleet, Ann Scribner, Joanne Westlund, Carol Drew, Ann Lindley, Jana Erlandson, Pamela Conn, Cheryl Rutherford, Joanne Olson, Beth Mason, Leslie Currin, Nancy Nicol, Rebecca Pierson, Alexis Drew, Cheryl Willy, Pam Nelson, Kathy Black, Tessie Powell, Nancy LaClair, Cindy Miller and Laurie Bruns.

Cheryl Reinmiller was awarded five dollars as high candy seller with 85 boxes.

Bethel 6 has adopted a grandmother and grandfather at the Masonic Home.

Honored Queen Ann held her "go to church" at the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, November 22.

The fall formal was held Friday, November 27, at KUHS with a beautifully decorated theme, "Beyond the Reef."

Librarian Suzanne Feeback gave two interesting reports.

Honored Queen-elect Susan Moss' installation ceremony will be held on Saturday, December 26, at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple.

Annual Yule Tea To Honor Sisters

The annual Christmas party for the Sisters of St. Francis is planned for Sunday, December 13, from 2 until 4 p.m. by the Sacred Heart Mothers Club. The tea will be held at the Officers Club at Kingsley Field. This is a family affair and everyone is invited to attend. Punch will be served for the children.

Music students under the direction of St. Cecilia Francis will furnish entertainment during the afternoon.

The sisters will be given a tour of the air base and housing facilities before the party.

Chairman of the affair is Mrs. Lillian LeMay with Mrs. Barbara Edwards as co-chairman. Assisting them on the committee are Mrs. Polly O'Connell, Mrs. Shirley MacEachen and Mrs. Barbara Tiernan.

Parties Honor Future Bride

LAKEVIEW—The Thanksgiving vacation week provided opportunity for friends of Susan Quisenberry, bride-elect of Robert Adams III, to entertain at two showers in her honor. The wedding date is December 26.

On the evening of November 23 members of the GGG Club entertained with a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Carter Fetsch. With Sun Valley chosen by the couple for their wedding trip, a ski scene was chosen for the decoration motif. Accepting the gifts for her daughter was Mrs. Philip Quisenberry, as Susan was not yet home from Oregon State College for vacation. On the gift list were Teresa Fetsch, Mary Fitzgerald, Joyce Taylor, Audrey Millsap, Marian Angele, Kerry Adams, Sandra Watts, Carol Kelson, Mary Jo Deely, Margery Blair, Claudia Harris, Mary Lee Scoville, Mary Sullaway, Sharon Taylor, Terry Linccum, Margie Ryehard, Welthy Warner and Judy Barry.

Mrs. George Giese was hostess at a miscellaneous shower for Susan at Hunter's Lodge on Friday evening, November 27. Table decorations consisted of pink tapers, wedding bells and pink and white nosegays. Dessert was served, and bride play followed. High scores went to Mrs. R. S. Adams Jr. and Mrs. Fite Binnion; second high to Mrs. Richard Proebstel and Mrs. Charles Sullaway; and traveling prize to Mrs. Bob Howard. Mrs. Proebstel also won the slam prize.

The guest list included Barbara MacKay, Julene Banasco, Carole Osterman, Judy Adams, Felice Quisenberry, Laura Watermann, Frieda Gebers, Mrs. Antone Weber, Mrs. J. C. Clark, Mrs. Joe Banister, Mrs. John Blair, Mrs. Norman Carothers, Mrs. Mike Deely, Mrs. Jess Faha, Mrs. Carter Fetsch, Mrs. Con Fitzgerald Jr., Mrs. Thomas Flynn, Mrs. Victor Hill, Mrs. Rob Howard, Mrs. Fitz Binnion, Mrs. Edward MacKay, Mrs. C. E. McDonald, Mrs. Gail Reynolds, Mrs. Richard Proebstel, Mrs. Louis Shelton, Mrs. Charles Sullaway, Mrs. R. C. Burgess, Mrs. W. P. Wilbur, Mrs. M. M. Barry, Mrs. A. L. Thornton Sr., Mrs. Philip Quisenberry and Mrs. R. S. Adams Jr.

CHEMULT COMMUNITY CLUB

CHEMULT—The Chemult Community Club held its December meeting at the home of Mrs. E. E. Jessup Thursday evening, December 3, with Mrs. William Taylor presiding. Mrs. Louis Rice and Mrs. Ray Haynes were co-hostesses.

Christmas program plans were discussed and plans made for the filling of the traditional bags for the young people at the tree which will be just before Christmas. The program and roles for the children will be given out at a later date.

Eulalona DAR

Eulalona Chapter, DAR, met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Goeller with Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, regent, presiding. Mrs. Dick Owens, flag chairman, announced that over 500 flag codes had been given out during the year by Eulalona Chapter and that more would be available. Mrs. H. A. Pedersen gave the national defense report after which there was considerable discussion.

It was reported that the DAR history medal awards would be offered to Fremont and Altamont junior high schools this year for the Historic Trailways essay contest, sponsored locally by Mrs. L. H. Stone, Centennial State Committee member.

Mrs. Guy Barton, Mrs. William L. Wales Jr., and Mrs. H. A. Pedersen were chosen for the nominating committee on next year's officers.

Many Christmas presents for children were collected at the meeting and will be mailed to one of our approved schools.

Mrs. Julian Ager, candy chairman, stated that the candy sale was progressing favorably, but that most varieties are still available. It is hoped to complete this money making project by the end of December.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Guy Barton, program chairman, introduced Mrs. George McIntyre who presented and accompanied a mixed quartet consisting of Mrs. Walter Badorek, Mrs. Lyle Kellstrom, William Davenport and Raymond Hall. The quartet sang a wonderfully varied group of Christmas songs and Mrs. O. K. Puckett read Peter Marshall's sermon, "Let's Keep Christmas."

Refreshments were served by the hostesses who included B. W. Zollman, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Helen Mueller and Mrs. Charles Griffith.

The next meeting will be January 4 at the home of Mrs. Roland F. Wright. Mrs. W. J. Owsley will have the program on "The Constitution" and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote will have a display of handmade quilts. State and national delegates will be elected at that meeting.
