Magnetic Appeal

Neither time nor repetition dims the magnetic appeal of Christmas. In the weeks before Christmas how often we say, "Oh, I just don't have the Christmas spirit this year." But as the day draws near, there is that magic moment when we are caught up by the excitement, the gaiety, the good will and warm-heartedness that characterize the season. When we hum the Christmas carols without realizing it, we know that Christmas is for all and for all time.

Just as we experience that magic moment of Christmas, so we want others to know it, too. By giving to The Salvation Army Christmas Appeal we can help others experience the wonderful joys of Christmas.
